It was Prom Night for Ross Saturday and Shannon Carter started her dancing early.

Carter's blazing efforts and that of Elyria's Rod Moore enabled the final Buckeye Conference Track and Field Meet to go out in a blaze of speed on a chamber of commerce picture-perfect day at Ross Saturday.

Carter, the junior blur for the Ross girls track team, was named the Buckeye Conference girls track athlete of the year after winning three individual events, running on a winning relay team and setting a conference and a school record. It was a performance under the bright, sunny skies that Carter could sing about all night.

Carter led her team to a strong runner-up finish to pre-meet favorite Elyria. Ross had 109 points, nine fewer than the Pioneers, winners for the third consecutive year. Admiral King was third with 86, Findlay edged Marion Harding 74-73 for fourth with Sandusky and Lorain Senior finishing in a tie for the other two slots.

Elyria's boys also won for the third straight year as Moore won the 100, 200 and 400 dashes. The Pioneers had 109 points to runner-up Admiral King's 85½. Ross was a surprising third with 76 and Marion Harding finished fourth with 73. Sandusky, Findlay and Lorain Senior rounded out the field.

Carter won the 100 hurdles in a conference record 14.5 seconds, erasing the 1985 record of Kelly Wolfe of Ross by two-tenths of a second.

"I wanted to beat the record," Carter said after the race in which she did not get a serious challenge. "It was easy to run with no one pushing me."

She also won the 300 hurdles in 47.2 seconds, a school record, long jumped 16-3 to win that event and teamed up with Celeste Heidelberg, Missy Provard and Yolanda Davis as the Ross quartet chipped a second off the conference record with a 1:44 in the 800 relay.

The other Ross first went to Shelly Hines in the 400.

"We came closer (to Elyria) than I expected," Ross girls coach Harold Zienta said. "The point total was a big surprise. Considering the submitted times and distances, I figured we would get about 79 points."

Moore was named the boys athlete of the year as Elyria won but did not dominate the meet.

"This was just a case of the kids doing their best when it counted," Ross boys coach Norm Bray said. "Our kids gained a lot of confidence today and that will help them in the district meet this week."

The Little Giants had three first places, two from distance
