Fremont Ross' Yohe Rojas competes against Genoa's Scott Traver earlier in the season. Rojas (135), Wyatt Wukie (160), Cody Evans (171), Tyler Trautwein (189), Aaron Gonzalez (215) and Cameron Journigan (285) each advanced to today's semifinal round at sectionals.

Little Giants have quintet of grapplers advancing

News-Messenger reports

TOLEDO — Five Fremont Ross wrestlers advanced to district competition from the Division I Toledo Rogers Sectional Championships on Saturday.

Little Giants' 189-pound grappler Tylor Trautwein decided Chris Rambo (Mansfield Madison) 8-3 to become Ross' only sectional champion.

TRAUTWEIN

Yohe Rojas (135 pounds) and Cody Evans (171) competed in the title bouts of their weight class for the Little Giants, but both were runners-up after being defeated.

EVANS

Rojas dropped a 3-2 decision to Justin Yetzer (Mansfield Madison), while Evans was on the short end of a 13-6 decision against Michael Alexander (Findlay).

At 160, Ross's Wyatt Wukie moved on after losing a 3-2 decision to Brandon Nalley (Ashland) in the third-place match. At 285, the Little Giants' Cameron Journigan advanced after being pinned by Kas Stratdakis (Oregon Clay) in 2:02 during the third place match.

Ross's Miguel Marquez (112) and Aaron Gonzalez (215) earned district alternate status by winning their fifth-place matches. Marquez scored a 9-0 major decision over Jud Spore (Perrysburg), while Gonzalez posted a 4-3 decision against Chris Opp (Findlay).

The Little Giants' Steven Johnson (125) and Derek McDonald (145) lost their bids to become district alternates. Kody Sutter (Oregon Clay) recorded a 9-0 major decision against Johnson, while J.J. Griffith (Ashland) slipped past McDonald with a 5-4 decision.

Oregon Clay was the sectional team champion with 284½ points. Ross ended up fifth with 129½ points.
