Bribe Trial To Jury Today

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — The trial of two St. Louis men charged with bribing four North Carolina State College basketball players to shave points was expected to go to the jury today.

Superior Court Judge Heman Clark was to complete his charge to the jury. Clark delivered part of his charge Monday after attorneys completed final arguments.

Dave Goldberg, 46, and Steve Lekometros, 39, are accused of bribery in the basketball game-fixing scandal. The indictment involves eight games in which N.C. State participated from Dec. 5, 1959, through Jan. 7, 1961.

Goldberg and Lekometros are each charged in 14 counts in seven games and Goldberg is charged with four additional counts in an eighth game.

Defense attorney Ralph Strayhorn told the jury in his argu-

Heavy: Dennis Kreilick (F) won by forfeit.

Ross won six of the 11 matches but more Mansfield Madison pins turned the tide.

Ross Falls To Huron Matmen 20-19

Huron's wrestling team squeezed past Ross' visiting Little Giants Friday night 20-19 in a give-and-take meet all the way.

Highlight of the meet was when two undefeated matmen of dual competition met head on. Larry Kelly of Ross decisioned Ron Weissenberger 8-1 in the 127-pound division.

Ross used two new boys in competition. Leon Lomax and Bob Bundschuh participated for the first time and were defeated.

Dennis Kreilick of Ross put his mates closer in the final event when he pinned his heavyweight opponent Rich Springer.

Ross reserves also won, 28-21, with Tom Ayers, Tom Baker, Jack Kreilick, Dennis Keyes, Tom Hill and Jack Pfefferle winning.

Next meet for the Little Giants will be the Buckeye Conference in Elyria.
