

A coaching change for 1958-1959

Coached Here For 11 Years

Will Continue As Teacher, Grid Helper

Al Ziemke, Fremont Ross basketball coach for the past 11 years, this week turned in his resignation as head basketball coach of the Little Giants effective at the completion of the current cage season.

Ziemke will remain as a teacher and as an assistant football coach.

Letter to Rupp

In a letter to Supt. A. E. Rupp, Coach Ziemke stated:

"Upon the completion of the 1957-58 basketball season, I am resigning as head basketball coach at Ross high school.

Having served 11 years in that capacity, I want to thank the Board of Education, Supt. A. E. Rupp, Principal C. R. Cooper, teachers, students, the Fremont News - Messenger, Radio Station WFRO and the boys who have played for me throughout the years for their fine cooperation.

I wish my successor and the boys every success in the world."

Just before the basketball game at Findlay last night, Coach Ziemke informed his players of his decision. He also notified fellow Ross high coaches who were at the game.

"I've enjoyed my tenure as basketball coach of Fremont and believe I have compiled a good record," Ziemke said. "Basketball is a much tougher game now than it was 10 years ago . . . it has changed much," Ziemke said.

Starting in the 1947-48 season, Ziemke compiled a won - lost record of 102 and 110 in his 11 years at Ross high school including games played to date this year.

In the last eight years, including tournaments, the Little Giant cagers won 82, lost 68. Teams had six winning seasons and five losing seasons. Last three seasons including 1957-58 have been losing ones.

Elmore Clips Clyde Fliers

Bulldogs Still Have Chance To Tie O-H

CLYDE — Elmore's Bulldogs kept alive their chances of tying Oak Harbor for the Sandusky Bay Conference basketball title by whipping Clyde's Fliers 69-55 last night at Clyde.

Oak Harbor is 4-0 in the league and needs only a win over Fremont St. Joseph next Friday at Oak Harbor to cinch the crown undisputed. Elmore could tie by winning its next two SBC outings providing St. Joe beats Oak Harbor.

Elmore ran its all games record to 12-3. Clyde is 5-10.

Barett Bates, high scoring ace for Elmore, clicked for 34 points to pace the Bulldogs over Clyde. Ron Baker, John Gray, and Dick Hunt each connected for 13 points for Clyde.

In non-league games, Oak Harbor stretched its winning streak to nine straight by whipping Woodville 69-51 at Oak Harbor Friday. Huron tripped

Giants Have New Coaches, Playing Arena

The word "new" craps up in any description of Ross high basketball and roundball fortunes in the fast approaching 1958-59 season.

Starting with a new head coach and new assistant coach, the Little Giants will be playing in a brand new gymnasium using several new techniques.

Ziemke Steps Down

Al Ziemke, head coach for 11 years, stepped down after the 1957-58 season. Taking over as pilot of the Little Giants is Leroy (Gus) Marquette, highly successful cage mentor of Class "A" Miller City for three seasons. His assistant and head coach of the Ross Reserves is Dennis Lewis who guided Class "A" Townsend to a tie for the Sandusky County regular season championship last year.

Couch Marquette, a thorough teacher of basketball fundamentals, places stress on a strong defense, employing the full court press.

"We'll try to harass opponents, give them few good shots and hope to at least stay even with them on rebounds," Marquette summarized his plan of action.

The Little Giants will be a running team, using the fast break.

"We won't have much height but will try to compensate with our pressing defense to gain possession," the new head coach pointed out. "Without needed height under the basket on offense, we probably won't get too many shots, so it is a necessity that we keep faces from shooting too often—that means we can't afford to give them many offensive rebound taps," Marquette explained.

Circular Seating

The new gymnasium in the new Fremont Ross Senior high school building should promote more fan interest in Ross high basketball, a lack the past several years. The old auditorium-type seating, like in a theater, is a thing of the past. Fans now will view Little Giant basketball in a circular fashion, collapsible bleachers surrounding the playing floor. Also, there is plenty of parking space available on the blacktop area just off the gymnasium. There are 10 home games scheduled and eight away.

There's still another new note in the basketball tune. That's in player personnel. Competing for Varsity berths will be brothers Charles and Dave Paskratz who played high school ball in the state of Idaho last year. Both are above 6-2 in height and Charles, a senior, lettered as a Varsity performer last year in Idaho. Dave is a sophomore who may be kept on the Reserves for a while this season gaining experience.

Returnees Listed

Veterans back from last year's team that won four, lost 12 in regular competition and finished last in the Buckeye Conference but who picked up steam in tournament competition to win twice before bowing to powerful Toledo Scott by seven points in the Toledo District include Seniors Reuben Lozano, 6-1 forward; Mike McCarthy, 6-1 forward and Juniors Steve Cecil, 6-6 forward; Roger Mann, 5-8 guard and Harry Walter, 5-11 guard.

Harry Walter and Mann paired with graduated players John Levele, Mark Walter and Charles Houshield, to provide toughness last season. Other graduated players are Fred Middleton and Jim Hadley.

Also competing for Varsity berths are Ruben Garcia, 5-11 senior, transfer from Fremont; St. Joseph who won't be eligible until January 23; Terry Collins, 5-10 senior; Dick Fuller, 5-10 junior and sophomores Deemy Sime, 5-11 and Jim Oltus, 5-10. Elwell Bels, 6-1 fullback in football, hasn't reported for practice although he was a Reserve performer in 1957-58. He may decide to skip basketball this campaign.

Sophomores who probably will be included on Coach Lewis' Reserves are Maurice Gnipper, 5-9; Dan Moran, 5-11; Scott Decker, 5-10; Larry Wilkins, 5-5; Gary Wilkins, 5-8; Larry Ripple, 5-10; Jim Vellequette, 5-6; Dick Schepflin, 6-2 (new out with a broken hand); and possibly Jerry Brooks, Gary Beatty and Dick Dundore.

First game for Ross will be on Wednesday, November 26 at Bedford high of the Greater Cleveland area. Initial home game will be on December 2 against Holland.
