Russ Hagerty Selected For All-Ohio All-Star Team

Russ Hagerty, shortstop and pitcher for Ross high school baseball team, has been selected to play with the All-Ohio High School All-Star team. The selection was revealed Wednesday by the high school coach, Don Purvis.

The all-star team is annually selected by the high school coaches association. The hundred boys are then divided into two teams for a three-game series. The All-Star series, which attracts scouts from both college and professional teams, will be played June 18-20 at the Stadium, Columbus. There will be a single game Saturday, June 19, and a doubleheader, June 20.

Hagerty will report with the other All-Stars June 17. Purvis stated a boy from Perry was the only one to be honored for the team. John Prosser was named as an alternate two years ago. Prosser later became a professional player and couldn't get off his job to report to the All-Stars.

All baseball coaches in Ohio vote for members of the team. The votes are then evaluated by a high school coach committee which selects the team. Each coach is allowed to vote for not more than two players from his district. There are approximately 15 districts in the district including Ross.

Hagerty is a three-year letterman for the baseball team.

During the past year he batted .475 and hit seven home runs, with a plus .500 slugging average.

He has accepted an athletic scholarship to attend Bowling Green State university. At the recent All-American Sports Banquet Coach Purvis revealed that seven Major League baseball teams have shown interest in the 6-3, 165-pound senior.
