

Girl Cagers

Eleanor Tennerstedt, Ross high school girls' basketball team will open what is probably its final season of inter-scholastic competition here Thursday night. The Little Giant feminine cagers will meet Upper Sandusky in the opener. Miss Tennerstedt lists as her varsity performers, Jean Hineline, Willa White and Hazel Squire, forwards, and Wayno Druckenmiller, Donnabelle Payden, Jean Welker and Norma Strohl, guards.

Schedule for the remainder of the season is: Medina, January 20, here; Bloomville, January 23, there; Oak Harbor, February 3, here; Whitmer, February 10, here; Medina, February 18, there, and Willard, February 24, there.

ROSS GIRLS WIN, BY 24-22

The Ross high school girl's team defeated the girl's team from Upper Sandusky, by a 24 to 22 score at the girl's gymnasium in Ross high Thursday night. It was the first time in recent years that the feminine Purple cagers have turned back the Upper Sandusky foe.

Jean Hineline, forward, starred for the Ross girls, garnering four baskets and a free throw. Eunice Egan, who was sent in by Coach Eleanor Tennerstedt, late in the game proved a "find" as she turned in a brilliant performance, scoring eight points. Wayno Druckenmiller played an outstanding defensive game for the winners.

THE SCHEDULED GAME BETWEEN Ross high school's girl team and the Medina girls' team was cancelled Thursday night, when the latter squad was unable to travel here because of the dense fog in the northwest part of the state. The game will be played at a later date, Eleanor Tennerstedt, Ross coach announced.

ROSS HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS' basketball team and Miss Eleanor Tennerstedt will leave late Friday afternoon for Medina where basketball games with Medina high school girls are scheduled.

ROSS LASSIES IN TIE GAME

The Fremont Ross girls' team and the Willard high girls' team battled to an 18 to 18 tie in their game at Ross high, Thursday night.

It was a hard battle all the way, with the combined offensive efforts of Hineline and Squire, forwards, keeping Ross in the game. Hineline tallied five fielders and a free throw, and Squires, three baskets and a charity toss for all the Purple feminine cagers' points.

For Willard, the scoring was evenly divided, with Forward Baker high scorer, dropping in two fielders and two gift shots.
