Parker splits at district

Eliot Parker impressed his coach at the Division I Northwest District tournament at Sandusky.

Parker rallied from a set down to defeat Bowsher's Sebastian Gebhardt before falling to Toledo St. John's James Davis in the second round.

Parker dropped the first set to Gebhardt 6-3, before taking the next 6-4. He closed out the victory with a 7-5 decision in the deciding set.

"That's probably the best game I've seen him play," Ross coach Rick LaFountain said of Parker's effort against Gebhardt.

Parker fell in the next round to Davis 6-0, 6-1.
