

Andrews, SJCC duo fall in three sets

News-Messenger reports

BOWLING GREEN — Fremont Ross freshman Adam Andrews fell from the Division I district tennis tournament singles draw Friday at Bowling Green State University.

Brad Darr and Brian Goetz of Fremont St. Joseph Central Catholic, meanwhile, fell from the doubles draw in Division II.

Andy Wenger of Elida defeated Andrews 4-6, 6-2, 6-2. Chadd

Gessner and Gabe Young of Napoleon defeated Darr and Goetz 4-6, 7-5, 6-1. The loss was the first for Darr and Goetz as a team after six victories.

Port Clinton freshman Erick Gale advanced to the singles semifinals in Division II by winning a pair of matches.

Gale will meet David Monoky of Ottawa Hills this morning in the semifinals. He will advance to the state tournament next week at BGSU with a victory. Matt Lehman of Bryan will meet Steve Seitz of Norwalk St. Paul in the other semifinal.

Gale defeated Gilles Toulemonde of Napoleon 4-6, 6-1, 6-2 in the first round before beating Oak Harbor's Matt Lochotzki 6-2, 6-1 in the quarterfinals.

Lochotzki defeated Brett Staib of Tiffin Calvert 6-2, 6-2 in a first-round match.

Jim Jadwisiak and Jason Tester of Port Clinton lost in the first round of the doubles competition. Brad Hitts and Kyle Rudolph of Napoleon beat the PC duo 6-2, 6-3.

Windom, Harrison