Coach: Mike Gilbert, 3rd year.

2000 record: 19-3 (11-1 GLL).

2000 tournament: Lost sectional final 2-0 to Tiffin Columbian.

Key losses: P Courtney Abbott, C Abby Gilbert, 1B Allyson Hickey, 3B Tiffany Nitschke, CF Ainsley Watkins, DH Ashleigh Horn, LF Krissy Lotycz (transferred to Gibsonburg).

Key returnees: Seniors — SS Jennifer Mielke, 2B Emily Bibler, RF Tiffany Garcia, DH Amanda Shaffer. Junior — CF Kristy Gabel.

Promising newcomers: Seniors — P Ashley Zuniga, 1B Kira Wojdyla, 3B Jill Diedrich, LF Janell Kingsborough. Sophomores — 3B Kristen Hammer, OF Tara McAfee.

Outlook: The Little Giants have a lot of holes to fill from last year's team, which shared the Great Lakes League title with Oregon Clay. Abbott threw five no-hitters and was the GLL Player of the Year and an honorable mention All-Ohio selection. But Mielke, who is bound for the University of Toledo, anchors a strong defense that will back Zuniga, a promising hurler. Bibler and Gabel make the Little Giants tough up the middle. Ross will try to scratch out a few runs per game and beat opponents with defense.

Coach's quote: "Like always, it's going to come down to pitching and defense and how well we mesh as a team. I think we're going to surprise some people."

It appears the Little Giants have found a replacement for graduated hurler Courtney Abbott.

Ross pitcher Ashley Zuniga threw a one-hitter and outdueled Columbian's Erin Rupp as the Giants won their opener at Alumni Field.

Ross got its lone run in the second inning. Kristy Gabel singled, moved to second on a Tiffany Garcia bunt, stole third and scored on a single by Kira Wojdyla.

Wojdyla was 2-for-2 with a stolen base. Gabel had a stolen base as well.

Zuniga, who struck out three, was backed by errorless defense. The Little Giants' Jen Mielke started a 6-3-5 double play in the fifth inning to kill a Tiffin rally.

Jen Mielke had four hits, and Ashley Zuniga picked up two pitching victories as the Little Giants (3-0) stayed perfect with a sweep of the Panthers at Alumni Field.

Zuniga went the distance in each game, throwing a three-hit shutout with striking out seven in the opener. She surrendered 11 hits and struck out two in the finale.

Mielke set the tone in the first inning of the opener when she drew a walk then promptly stole second and third. She later scored the only run Ross would need on a single by catcher Amy Reiter. Reiter went 2-for-3 with a run scored in the first game. Mielke was 2-for-3 with an RBI and a run scored. Tiffany Garcia and Amanda Shaffer had the other Ross hits.

In the second game, Mielke went 2-for-4 with an RBI. Kristy Gabel scored twice.

Giants blank Trojans

Zuniga, Ross defense maintain mastery of Findlay

By TIMOTHY R. WOLFRUM

The Findlay softball team failed to get a hit in two meetings with Fremont Ross ace Courtney Abbott last season.

For a while on Wednesday, it appeared new Ross hurler Ashley Zuniga might just continue — or even improve upon — Abbott's dominance of the Trojans.

With help from a stingy defense, Zuniga retired the first 14 batters and took a perfect game deep into the fifth inning before Ashley Kuhlman lined a clean, two-out single to center field.

Zuniga settled for two-hit shutout as the Little Giants claimed a 7-0 victory at Alumni Field and stayed perfect in the Great Lakes League.

"I was ready for that," Zuniga said of following Abbott's pair of no-hitters, "but I pitched one right down the middle and the girl hit it to the outfield. It was my mistake."

Of course, Zuniga didn't need to be nearly as precise Wednesday as Abbott did last season when she beat the Trojans by scores of 1-0 and 2-0.

The Little Giants (9-1, 4-0 GLL) scored five runs in the first inning and two more in the second inning to make Zuniga's life easier. Ross pounded out 13 hits, three coming from third baseman Jill Diedrich.

Zuniga made sure the Trojans (3-4, 2-1 GLL) earned their chances to score. She didn't allow a walk and never went to three balls on a batter. Zuniga struck out three.

"She's got good location," Ross coach Mike Gilbert said. "That's what we want her to do, throw it in and let them hit it. We'll play defense behind her."

"She usually doesn't walk anybody. Her control's been good, and they're not really hitting her hard."

The Little Giants made a couple spectacular plays to prolong the perfect game. Shortstop Jen Mielke charged in to scoop up a line drive that glanced off Zuniga's glove and throw out Findlay's Katie Niemeyer in the second inning. And second baseman Emily Bibler ranged far to her left to snag Chelsea Ammons's hard grounder that had gotten past a drawn-in Kira Wojdyla at first base in the fourth.

"My defense was real good. If it wasn't for them, I wouldn't be anything," Zuniga said.

Said first-year Findlay coach Noell Boyer, "Their fielding is amazing. Defensively, they're wonderful. The bunting is what got us. Throughout the game, we finally caught on."

Ross jumped on the Trojans by sending nine batters to the plate in the first inning. Findlay's got two outs from the first eight batters, and they came on sacrifice bunts.

Little Giants Amy Reiter, Tara McAfee, Kristen Hammer and Diedrich had run-scoring singles.

"Our heads weren't in it in the first inning, and that's our downfall," Boyer said. "We're a pretty young team and we're trying to overcome that, but we're having a tough time."

In the second, Tiffany Garcia slammed a one-out double to center field, Reiter singled and stole second and Wojdyla drove them both home with a two-run single.

"When you come up and start getting consecutive hits, that demoralizes the other team and gets you jacked up. The kids are executing real well, and that helps," Gilbert said.

The Ross bats are on a roll. The Little Giants have played their four GLL games in the last five days and have averaged 9.5 runs and 12 hits per game.

Gilbert said his charges are focused on repeating as league champs.

"They want to win the GLL," he said. "People are kind of looking past us because we lost seven players. But I don't think they can do that anymore. The kids are playing super, and everybody's contributing."

The Little Giants are off until April 21, when they host Norwalk.

Jen Mielke went 4-for-5, and Ashley Zuniga recorded two pitching victories as the Little Giants upped their record to 11-1 with a sweep of the Truckers.

Mielke, Ross's senior short-stop, was 2-for-3 with a pair of RBI in the first game. Her bases-loaded single in the bottom of the fourth gave the Little Giants a 5-1 lead. Amy Reiter and Janelle Kingsborough also knocked in runs for Ross.

Zuniga went the distance in the first game, allowing three runs and four hits and striking out eight.

In the nightcap, Zuniga surrendered only one run and two hits. She struck out seven.

Mielke went 2-for-2 with two stolen bases. Reiter stole three bases. Kingsborough had a two-run triple.

Little Giants rock Blue Streaks, 26-1

Zuniga happy to settle for first no-hitter

By TIMOTHY R. WOLFRUM

Fremont Ross pitcher Ashley Zuniga fired her first career no-hitter Monday against Sandusky.

But if the Little Giants' offense hadn't been so darn efficient, she might have had her first perfect game, too.

Ross scored all of its runs in the first three innings during a 26-1 shellacking of the overmatched Blue Streaks at Alumni Field. The game was shortened to 4½ innings by the run rule.

But with the game well in hand, Ross coach Mike Gilbert pulled star shortstop Jen Mielke in the third inning. That led to Sandusky's lone base runner.

Sandusky's cleanup hitter, Kate Homberger, opened the fifth with a sharp grounder that got between backup shortstop Kristen Hammer's legs for an error. Homberger came around to score from first when Ross made two more errors as she attempted a steal.

But Zuniga breezed through the remainder of the final inning and was more than satisfied with the no-hitter and Great Lakes League victory. Ross is 12-1 overall, 5-0 in the GLL.

"It was hard to keep focused on it," Zuniga said of the no-hitter. "That run didn't really matter, with the score being that big. It was just one."

Zuniga used a stiff breeze blowing straight in from center field to make her fastball even tougher to hit. She struck out six and walked none.

"Ashley pitched a wonderful game," Gilbert said. "The doubleheader Saturday (against Norwalk) really helped her. She walked three the first game; the second game, she didn't walk anybody. She needs the work. She's a workhorse."

Meanwhile, the Ross offense had its way with three Sandusky pitchers. The Little Giants sent 14 batters to the plate and scored 10 runs in the first inning and sent 13 batters to the plate in the second and third innings while scoring seven and nine runs, respectively.

Kira Wojdyla had three hits, including a two-run double in the third, and three runs batted in. Designated hitter Amanda Shaffer went 2-for-2 with three runs batted in. Amy Reiter had two hits and an RBI. Wojdyla, Shaffer, Reiter, Jen Mielke, Tiffany Garcia, Emily Bibler and Janelle Kingsborough each scored three runs.

"I think the kids showed a lot of patience," Gilbert said. "They swung at good pitches and stayed focused, for the most part. It's hard to stay focused in a game like this."

Sandusky fell to 0-7, 0-4 in the GLL.

Clay takes control

Eagles knock off Giants, grab 2-game lead

By TIMOTHY R. WOLFRUM
Sports editor

Rivals Oregon Clay and Fremont Ross have been in an uneasy clench atop the Great Lakes League softball standings for the past two years.

The Eagles and Little Giants shared the league crown, along with some bad blood, each season.

But after Wednesday's workmanlike 4-0 Clay victory over Ross at Alumni Field, the Eagles appear poised to break free from the Giants and take control of the league.

Clay (15-4, 7-0 GLL) owns a two-game lead in the loss column over Ross (14-5, 7-2 GLL) and Toledo Whitmer after one trip through the league teams.

"We talked about it that this game was big," said first-year Clay coach Brenda Radabaugh, who came over from Toledo Central Catholic when former coach Jeff Lee took over the Eagles football program. "If we didn't want to share the championship again, we had to come out strong. ... The ball's in our court now."

The Eagles jumped ahead with a run in the first inning then extended their lead by taking advantage of an uncharacteristic four errors by the Little Giants.

Clay senior hurler Emile Ondrus limited Ross to three hits and struck out eight batters. The Little Giants, who have lost three consecutive games, were also shut out Tuesday at Anthony Wayne and have failed to score in the past 15 innings.

That's not exactly the way Ross coach Mike Gilbert hoped to enter tournament play today. The Little Giants host Mansfield Senior at 5 p.m. in a Division I sectional final.

"We haven't been playing well the last four or five games," Gilbert said. "They tried. That's all you can ask for. ... You get in slumps like this."

Senior shortstop and leadoff hitter Jen Mielke supplied most of the Ross offense Wednesday. She jumped all over a first-inning fastball from Ondrus for a double and slammed a triple over Clay leftfielder Ashley Wolf's head in the sixth.

Both times, Mielke was stranded at third base.

"When you're facing a good pitcher, you can't give up four runs," Gilbert said. "And you've got to take advantage of opportunities when you do have them. We didn't do either one."

Kristy Gabel got the other Ross hit but was thrown out trying to stretch her single to right field into a double in the fourth inning.

Clay reached Ross starter Ashley Zuniga for the only tally it would need in the first. The Eagles loaded the bases on a single by Melissa Bowie, a misplayed bunt by Jenni Summers and a single by Shannon McDougle. Bowie then scored on a wild pitch.

The early run allowed Clay to settle in.

"That always helps," Radabaugh said of the run. "Our pitcher can relax a little bit, and we have a little insurance. She can play her game then."

The Eagles scored single runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth. McDougle double and scored on an Ondrus hit in the fourth.

Then, the Ross defense caved in around Zuniga. Bowie led off the fifth with a line drive that eluded leftfielder Janelle Kingsborough for a two-base error. Bowie later scored on a Shelley Andrzejewski sacrifice fly.

In the sixth, Clay's Jenni Slaughter walked, Whitney Shellhammer reached on an error by Ross first baseman Kira Wojdyla and Slaughter scored on an error by second baseman Emily Bibler.

"We did take advantage of that. That was surprising," Radabaugh said of Ross's fielding woes. "I've never seen Fremont Ross make that many errors in a game before. We'll capitalize on whatever we can."

Lockmiller homered to extend the lead in the fourth inning, and Renee Chaney's sacrifice fly in the fifth handed the Raiders a 3-0 lead. Lakota got an unearned run in the sixth.

The Knights (11-8) scored their only run off Lockmiller in the bottom of the seventh inning. Lockmiller allowed six hits while striking out five and walking none.

Lakota is at Otsego today.

Jen Mielke earned her first pitching decision of the season, holding the Saints to four hits, as the Little Giants won easily at Alumni Field.

Tiffany Garcia led the Ross hitting attack. She went 2-for-4, scoring twice and knocking in two runs. Kira Wojdyla went 2-for-3 with two RBI, and Kristy Gabel and Tara McAfee were each 2-for-3 with two runs scored. Emily Bibler went 2-for-4 with an RBI.
