DISTRICT WRESTLING TOURNAMENT

Fiber, Sachs Survive Two

Ed Fiber of St. Joseph, Randy Sachs of Ross and Lynn Coleman of Lakota remain alive today in the winner's bracket of the District wrestling championships. The District tournament is in its second day at Toledo Whitmer high school.

Of the 22 wrestlers advancing from the Fremont Sectional five remain unbeaten after two matches and only two, both from Fremont St. Joseph, are definitely eliminated. Out of the competition are Jack Hershey, 157, and Dennis Haslinger, 130. Hershey lost his first match to Wolfe, Northwood, 5-3, and Wolfe was then beaten by Reilly of Whitmer. Haslinger lost to Joe Czychowicz, St. Francis, 6-0. Czychowicz then fell to Huron's Bartlett.

Wrestlers will get a second chance today in the consolation bracket if the man who beat them advances to the finals. Today's action featured semifinals at 1 p.m., followed by consolation matches. Finals in both the championship and consolation bracket will start at 7 p.m. Both championship finalists and the consolation survivor in each weight class advance to the state tournament at Columbus.

Sachs, 136, pinned Woods, Carey, 5:15, and then took a 6-5 decision from Larry Miller, Mansfield.

Fiber is on his way to the outstanding performance of the tournament with two pins. Fiber pinned Jamgochian, Macomber, 3:23 and then put Ron Peless, Sandusky, to the mat in 1:52.

Coleman of Lakota pinned his first foe, Adams, Springfield, and then decisioned Poupard, Rogers, 2-1.

The other two all-winning wrestlers from Fremont sectional are the Port Clinton Belknaps. Mark Belknap, 106, won two decisions and his brother

Ty, 130, also decisioned two foes.

Results of other matches involving area wrestlers were:

112 — Terry Biddle, Lakota, beat Pion, Lima Shawnee, lost to Connell, Macomber, 3-2.

120 — Allan Walker, Port Clinton, lost to Welsh, Ashland; Randy Keegan, Clyde defeated Snow, Fairview, lost to Zolinger, DeVilbiss.

133 — Larry Blechinger, St. Joseph, decisioned Yeager, Swanton, 10-4, lost to Blackford, Sylva, 13-4.

138 — Mike Blechinger, St. Joseph, lost to Leitner, Sylva.

145 — Mark Meggitt, Clyde, decisioned Myers, Perrysburg, lost to Dan Toffler, St. Francis, 8-1.

Lindsey Cage

Team Wins 10th

LINDSEY—Washington Township eighth grade raised its record to 10-0 this past week with two more victories. The Lindsey team defeated Clyde St. Mary, 46-28, and Oak Harbor Team Three, 47-26.

During the week the Washington township seventh grade record slipped to 3-3 with a 20-7 loss to Oak Harbor Team Three seventh grade.

For the eighth grade the ballhandling and playmaking of Dennis Knipp shared the spotlight with the 14 points each scored by James Fausey and James Garcia against St. Mary.

In the Oak Harbor game Garcia again had 14 points, Fausey scored 12 and Bill Schwartz 11.

Randy Sachs Gains Berth In State Wrestling Meet

TOLEDO — Randy Sachs, who became eligible only two matches before the end of the regular season, will represent Fremont Ross in the state wrestling tournament next weekend. Sachs was the only one of seven wrestlers representing Fremont's two schools to make it to the big show in Columbus.

Sachs came within one match of the district championship and advanced to the state meet as runnerup in the 133-pound division of the Northwest district at Toledo Whitmer. Sachs reached the finals with a decision over Dale Fisher, Toledo Rogers. Rogers then became the third representative of the 133-pound class with a victory in the consolation finals.

The Fremont wrestler met the end of the line in the finals as he fell 11-2 to Bob Iscoll, Toledo St. Francis.

Only one other survivor from the Fremont Sectional tournament reached the championship finals. Ty Belknap, who earned a trip to the state tournament a year ago, won the 127-pound class championship. He won the title with a final victory over Derrick Bartlett, Huron, 7-0.

Two other Fremont sectional winners advanced to the state tournament with consolation victories. Three boys from each weight class qualified for state from Toledo — champion, runnerup and consolation bracket winner.

Winning the consolation for third place were Lyn Coleman,

138, Lakota, and Phil Kaiser, 165, Port Clinton. Coleman who lost in the semifinals capped a comeback through consolation by pinning Greg Enders, Carey, in three minutes, 13 seconds.

Kaiser defeated another Fremont qualifier, Ed Fiber, St. Joseph, 6-4, in the consolation finals. Fiber, who won his first two matches by pin Friday, was defeated in the championship semifinals, 2-1, by Dave Reed, Cardinal Stritch. Reed went on to win the 165-pound championship with a 4-3 win over Gary Russell, Ashland.

Also winning in the consolation was Bellevue's 127-pounder Chuck DeLuca. He won a ticket to the state tournament by beating John Czychowicz, St. Francis, on a referee's decision in overtime.

Brad Lawrence, Ross heavy weight, won one match in the consolations with a first period pin of Frank Sberna, Bellevue. Lawrence then lost his second and eliminating match in the consolation semifinals. He had first fallen to Greg Wojocichowski, Toledo Whitmer, who now gets a chance to repeat the state championship he won last year.

Losing out in the consolation finals was Mark Belknap, Port Clinton, 103. The brother of the 127-pound champion fell to Greg Einerson, Milan, 11-3.

Fremont had been represented by seven wrestlers — Sachs and Lawrence from Ross; Fiber, Larry Blechinger, Mike Blechinger, Dennis Haslinger and Jack Hershey of St. Joseph. All but Fiber from St. Joseph were beaten by wrestlers who did not reach the championship finals, wiping out a chance through the consolation competition.

Clyde's Mark Meggitt, Randy Keegan and Mark Smith had a second chance but lost their first matches in the consolation bracket. The same was the fate of Lakota's Terry Biddle and Nick Nighswander. Steve Hammer, Lakota, lost in the first round.
