

CARVER SUCCEEDS W. J.

McConnell as tennis coach. Mac, as about everybody in these parts know, is assistant high school athletic commissioner. He took the job last summer.

The new tennis coach is a native of Cleveland. He graduated from Lakewood high school and earned degrees at Baldwin-Wallace and Western Reserve. He taught at Margaretta township high of Castalia before coming to Fremont last fall.

Bill, who will be 32 years old May 28, married the former Miss Lois Phelps, of Elyria. They have two daughters, Peggy Lee, born on Bill's birthday in 1944, and Patricia Lynne, who arrived October 30, 1948.