Tornadoes whip Ross track teams

News-Messenger reports

The weather cooperated with the Fremont Ross track team Tuesday, but the Tiffin Columbian Tornadoes blew past the Little Giants in a dual meet in Tiffin.

Columbian rolled to a 95-37 victory in the boys meet and a 93-30 triumph in the girls meet.

In other track action, Clyde swept a dual meet from Bellevue and Lakota finished on top among the boys and girls in a tri-meet with Genoa and Woodmore.

Ross did have a few bright spots in its first meet of the season, namely from its male sprinters, the girls 400-meter relay team, long jumper Jenny Mare and distance runners Amy Ritzman and Kaylene Bartson.

Troy Williamson, who paced the victorious boys 400-meter relay squad for Ross, also won the 200-meter dash. John Liggins and Adam Bulger capped off a solid sprinting performance for the Little Giants with a 1-2 finish in the 400-meter dash.

Williamson was joined on the relay squad by Terry Hall, Terry Carter and Charles Chapman.

Ross's girls 400-meter relay team consisted of DeVona McDonald, Jada Price, Jessica Jefferson and Lisa Daniels.

Other Ross first-place finished went to Mare, who jumped 13-8<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>; Ritzman, who nosed Columbian's Monica Ferguson by eight-tenths of a second in the 3200-meter run; and Bartson, who won the 800-meter run.

Ross boys sweep, girls finish second

News-Messenger reports

A busy day in high school track and field was highlighted by Fremont Ross's victory over boys teams from Bowling Green and Fremont St. Joseph Central Catholic at Ross Thursday.

The Little Giants won 11 of 16 events and compiled 87 points to 39 for BG and 29 for St. Joe.

In the girls portion of the meet, Bowling Green scored 68 points, Ross picked up 63 and St. Joe finished with 30.

In other action, Clyde swept a dual meet at Margaretta, Genoa dropped both boys and girls meets to Lake, Perkins topped Oak Harbor and Huron in a tri-meet at Sandusky and Woodmore's girls and the St. Wendelin boys team took first place in a quad-meet at Fostoria.

At Fremont, the Ross boys won all but the shot put, 3200-meter relay, 1600-meter run and 110-meter high hurdles. The pole vault was not contested.

Sprinters Terry Hall, Terry Carter, Charles Chapman, Troy Williamson, John Liggins and Adam Bulger set the pace for Ross. Also, Tim Nesbit won the 800-meter run, Aaron Potter edged St. Joe's Tim Arndt by .01 in the 3200-meter run, Norman Crawford won the low hurdles, Jeff Draeger took first in the discus, Bulger won the high jump and Williamson took first in the long jump.

St. Joe's highlights were first-place finishes by Mike Borer in the shot put and Craig Nieset in the 1600.

The girls meet at Ross was highlighted by Carrie Guyer's double victory in the hurdles races, the 1-2 finish by Ross's Kaylene Bartson and Kim Mathews in the 400-meter dash and the 1-2 effort by the Little Giants' Emilia Wise and Shari Root in the discus. St. Joe's Dorothy Colon won the 1600-meter run and Ross's Amy Ritzman took first in front of Colon in the 3200.

Clyde-Margaretta

Both Clyde teams improved to 2-0.

The Fliers wrapped up a 70-62 victory in the boys meet with a win in 1600-meter relay. Kevin Murphy, Steve Baker, Chris Gasner and Matt Jenne did the honors. Baker also aided Clyde's with a pair of wins in the hurdles races.

Tim Frederick won the high jump and 200-meter dash for Margaretta, 1-2.

Kelly McKeever and Lisa Renfro paced the Clyde girls' victory. McKeever won the shot put and discus, and Renfro took first in the 1600- and 3200-meter runs.

Vicki Czekaj won the high jump and 400-meter dash for Margaretta, 1-2.

Lake-Genoa

Lake dusted the Comets 90-42 and 87-41 in the boys and girls meets, respectively.

Jerry Skilliter won both hurdles races for the Genoa boys, 1-2. Chris Haeft won the 3200-meter run, Mike Elmers took first in the 400-meter dash and Bill Werner won the 1600-meter run. Haeft and Werner joined with Pat Jones and Chris Lau to win the 3200-meter relay.

Susan David paced the Genoa girls, 0-3, with victories in the 1600 and 3200. Teri D'Clute and Tami D'Clute, who helped the Comets win the 800 relay along with Cindy Ernsthaven and Le-candra Billingsley, won the 800-meter run and 400-meter dash, respectively.

Ross struggles at Tiffin Relays

News-Messenger reports

TIFFIN — A second-place finish for the Fremont Ross boys 800-meter relay team was the best for the Little Giants at the Bill Krause Relays in Tiffin Saturday.

Adam Bulger, Terry Carter, Charles Chapman and Troy Williamson teamed for the runner-up finish in the 800.

The Ross boys finished sixth in the meet which was won by Sandusky. Toledo DeVilbiss won the girls meet while Ross finished 11th.

Individually, Ross bests were turned in by Tim Nesbitt, third in the 1600-meter run; Aaron Potter, Norm Crawford, third in the 300 intermediate hurdles; and T.J. Hall, sixth in the 100-meter dash.

Cory Sewell, Chapman and Williamson teamed for a third-place finish in the long jump.

Ross boys victorious

News-Messenger reports

FINDLAY — Victories by its 3200- and 400-meter relay teams and a pair of first-place finishes by Troy Williamson paced the Fremont Ross boys track team to a 70½-61½ victory over Findlay Tuesday.

Williamson, who won the long jump with a leap of 19-7, took first in the 400-meter dash by a margin of one-tenth seconds in 52.4. Teammate Charles Chapman was second to Williamson in the long jump.

The Ross girls squad did not fare as well, falling to the Trojans 89-41 despite three firsts by Connie McMorris.

McMorris won the long jump with a leap of 14-5 and the 100- and 200-meter dashes with times of 13.8 and 28.7, respectively.

Other firsts for the Little Giant girls squad went to Amy Ritzman in the 800-meter run and Leah Lomax in the 3200-meter run as well as the 1600-meter relay team of Stacy Pasch, Kim Mathes, Kaylene Bartson and Ritzman.

Aiding the boys victory were firsts by Maurice Jones in the 100-meter dash, Norm Crawford in the 300-meter intermediate low hurdles and Aaron Potter in the 3200-meter run.

Tim Nesbitt, Chad Woodrich, Scott Rosenberger and Potter comprised the Little Giants' 3200 relay team; and Cory Sewell, Jones, Chapman and John Ligins ran the 400 relay squad.
