Sprints strong for Little Giants

By BOB MARKER

News-Messenger Sports Editor

Two teams and a new track will officially debut this afternoon at Ross High School. Both the girls and boys track teams at Ross will be in action against Columbian on the school's new all-weather surface.

"Last year at this time," girls head Coach Jolyn Smith pointed out, "we had not been able to run on the track at the new stadium (Harmon Stadium). At the present time, we have been on the new facility a couple of weeks and it should be to our advantage."

The 400-meter track was installed last fall and with the extension, which was recently started and added, is completed. The only detractable item is a lack of grass on the track's infield which has created some pockets of mud.

The meet this afternoon will begin at 4 p.m. and will also mark the first and complete debut of Norman Bray. An assistant to Ron Brant, for many years, Bray took over the track and field program this year after Brant resigned.

"We are as ready as we will ever be for a first meet," Bray offered. "I feel firmly that we will be a bit stronger all the way through than we were last year."

Smith got to the point quickly about her team this season. "I think it will be a good year," she said.

Both Bray and Smith pointed out that the teams are strongest in the sprints. Both also said specific field event areas should show well this spring.

The boys coach pointed out sprinters Bill Darling, Larry Lindsey, Curtis Lee, Tim Pendrey, Willie Gentry, Tim Butcher, and Adam Caskey, Pendrey and Lee are sophomores and Casky a junior. The rest are all lettermen.

Bray also has a good feeling about his weight men. Veterans Troy Amor, Gregg Hedden and Dennis Murray and Darling will be heaving the shot this season. Amor has hit 52-feet in practice and Bray says he feels Amor could reach the high 50s before the season ends.

"With Troy, do whatever he wants to do, he will do it."

In the discus, Rhodes has been over 136-feet in practice, a fact that has Bray smiling. Amor and Armentrout will also be throwing the platter as will Murray. Assistant Coach Rick Howell is handling the weight events.

Bray will also have experience in the pole vault with letterman Joe Leite returning.

Bray likes 400-meter relay team.

The race takes the place of the 880-meter relay which will be the Ross strength Bray feels. That relay will have Darling leading off with Lindsey running the second leg, Butcher will be the third man to get the baton with Gentry running the anchor. That is the way the team will line up this afternoon.

Another long distance sprinter, Gregg Hedden, is expected to be strong at 400-meters.

In the 800 and 1600-meter runs, Bray will have Mike Martin as his strongest runner. "I expect him to break two minutes in the 800 halfway through the year," he said.

Lettermen Rob Zoller, John Elder, and Dave Stover will also function at those distances along with the 3,200-meter run.

Assistant Coach Jolyn Smith has veterans John Almaguer, Fred Vance, Greg Brown and Hedden in the 110-meter highs and 300-meter low hurdles.

Girls coach Smith likes the attitude of her girls and a deluge of running and jumping successes.

"Last year as freshman, they broke all previous junior high records except two," Smith said.

Smith also pointed out that she has 40 girls on the team, the biggest team in school years.

"We should have more depth in the field events," Smith continued, "we have three girls (Donna Hetrick, Laura Smith, and Joanna Hawk) throwing over 30-feet."

Harold Zienta is coaching the weight tossers for Smith. The girls coach is not available as she has been tossed the discus over 90-feet.

The discus group is led by Margaret Van Gilder.

In the sprints, Smith could have an abundance of talent.

Tonja Tucker and Kim Saam are running from the 440 relay team that made it to the district meet. She listed sophomores Amy Swope, Jodi Price, Arlene Long and Tammy Haas as the possibles for the 400-meter relay. Also rolling off Smith's team was Delta Hall, another sophomore.

"These are our fast ones right now," she exclaimed, "but we have three or four more who will be stronger in the longer sprints."

In the field events, Smith said that two more high jumpers, Swope and Amy Lindquist, leaped 4-10 last season, that's the current high school record.

Price is expected to shine in the long jump. She cleared 16-feet as a freshman.

The biggest visible change in track for both boys and girls this season is that all running distances will be measured in meters.

Ross teams open track season on winning notes

Amy Lindstrom tied the girls school high jump record in leading Fremont Ross girls to a 70-31½ victory over Tiffin Columbian, while 19 of 25 members scored in the boys 76-51 win over the Tornadoes Tuesday at the new all-weather track at Ross High School.

Lindstrom cleared 4-10 to tie the mark in the high jump, and also placed third in the long jump for the Little Giants.

Ross swept both the jumping events, with Judy Shetzer and Tonja Tucker placing one-two in the long jump. Behind Lindstrom in the high jump were Arlene Long and Amy Swope, who tied with Columbian's Besty Taylor for third.

The girls were strong in all the field events, taking a first in all the events. Laurie Smith took a first place in the shot put and third in discus, which was won by Ross's Margaret Van Gilder.

Tucker also won the 100-meter dash and combined with Swope, Della Hall and Kim Saam for a victory in the 400-meter relay, with Shetzer, Mickey Kelley and Debbie Clark for the 1600-meter relay first-place finish.

Sophomore Tom Pendrey paced the boys victory with a first in the long jump, first in the 1600-meter relay with John Almaguer, Mike Martin and Gregg Hedden, and a second in the 400-meter dash.

The Little Giants swept the 110-meter high hurdles with Almaguer, Greg Brown and Fred Vance placing, Willie Gentry, Curtis Lee and Eric Gant placing the 200-meter dash. Lee also won the 100-meter run, and Vance the high jump.

Dennis Murray won the discus and Troy Amor the shot put for the Little Giants, while Hedden copped the 400-meter dash, Martin won the 800-meter, and Gentry also won the 200-meter relay with Gentry, Tim Butcher, Larry Lindsey and Bill Darling teaming for the win.

Ross captures Tiffin relays

Fremont Ross captured the Bill Krause Relays in Tiffin Saturday afternoon on the strength of first place finishes in the shot put, discus, shuttle hurdles and long jump.

The Little Giants' girls took first place finishes in the shot put and shuttle hurdles to finish third in the overall standings in the girls division.

Clyde's girls nudged out Ross for the runners-up spot by one point while Toledo Whitmer was an easy winner in the overall competition.

The Fliers got one first, in the one-mile run, but also racked up a second and two thirds to total 39 points.

Closest competition for the boys came from Tiffin Columbian and Toledo Whitmer. The Tornadoes were strong in the distance events, taking firsts in the one, two and four mile (relay) runs to total 64 points, six behind the winning Ross figure of 70.

Whitmer, with one first, finished with 62 points.

The trio of Bill Darling, John Armentrout and Troy Armor tossed the shot 130-2 feet for the Little Giants to nudge out Fostoria by a half a foot to win that event.

Armentrout, Galen Rhodes and Dennis Murray then had a combined effort of 364-9 feet to win the discus by about two feet over Whitmer.

Victory in the long jump came on efforts by Willie Gentry, Larry Lindsey and Tom Pendrey, who leaped 58-1½ feet for a two-foot victory over second place Fostoria.

Greg Brown, Fred Vance, Greg Hedden and John Almaguer then copped the shuttle hurdles with a time of 1:02.6, edging Fostoria's 1:03.2 clocking.

The Little Giants also got second place finishes in the 440 and 880 relays.

Bellevue took fifth place in the nine-team event, using firsts in the 880 and 400 relays while Clyde finished one notch lower and got a first in the pole vault.

Tom Taggart, George Ebbs and Duke Haynes were present in both the 440 and 880 relay teams that won for Bellevue, getting an assist from Terry Miller in the 880 and from Phil Hammersmith in the 440.

Randy Stohl, Curt Mesnard and Gus Mesnard measured 34 feet in Clyde's first place finish in the pole vault.

Clyde's lone first in the girls' competition came on an effort by Gena Skeels, Rene Miller, Kathy Halbisen and Ellen Wood in the mile relay, as they turned in a time of 4:26.8.

Ross's Johanna Hawk, Amy Lindstrom and Laurie Smith took a first in the shot put with a combined toss of 94-9½, while Tammy Haas, Arlene Long, Judy Shetzer and Jodie Price finished the shuttle hurdles in a rapid 1:14 to finish 1.2 seconds ahead of second place finisher Mohawk.

Ross also took second in the 440 relay, finishing 1.4 seconds behind Whitmer.

Little Giants trackmen stop Findlay; girls lose

Ross's boys track team defeated Findlay for the first time since 1973 but the girls were turned back by Sandusky in Tuesday dual meets.

The Little Giants boys downed the Trojans 74½-52½, using a strong showing in the field events to pull off the win.

Ross won four of five field events with Troy Amor taking the shot, Galen Rhoades the discus, Fred Vance winning the high jump and Tom Pendrey topping the long jumpers.

The Little Giants also got a double victory performance out of John Almaguer in the hurdles events and won all three relays. In the low hurdles, Almaguer led teammates Greg Brown and Vance across the line to complete Ross's only clean sweep of the day.

Jodi Price set a new Ross record and Arlene Long tied another but the Little Giants girls track team dropped a 61-49 meet to the Blue Streaks at the Ross High School track.

Price cleared 16-5½ to set a new Ross standard in the long jump. The Little Giants sophomore broke the previous record of 16-1½ set by Stephanie Brown in 1977.

In addition to winning the long jump, Price ran a leg of the winning 800-meter relay but the Blue Streaks captured nine of the 14 events to level Ross's dual record at 1-1 this season.

Long leaped 4-10 to tie the existing Ross high jump mark. The Ross record is shared by several jumpers. Long finished second on misses to Sandusky Cindy Brown who also cleared 4-10.

Tonja Tucker won the 100-meter dash and anchored the 800-meter relay and Tammy Haas won the hurdles. Laurie Smith was the other Ross winner, taking the shot put with a toss of 33-2.

Another sophomore, Jodie Price, finished ahead of Ross runners Carla Trabbic and Arlene Long in a 200-meter sweep. Price ran the distance in 28 seconds flat with Trabbic one-tenth of a second off that pace and Long just two-tenths of a second back in third.

New life for Blair

CHICAGO (AP) — Paul Blair said he felt like he was "back from the dead" when the Cincinnati Reds signed him to a one-year contract.

While joking about the Reds' insistence on low-stirrup socks, the 35-year-old outfielder, who was released by the New York Yankees, said he rejected offers from Los Angeles, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Boston, California and Texas.

"I think I can still hit ... but I wasn't going to a last-place club. Cincinnati is a good organization and Scherger clicked off the highs in 14.8 for the new record. He broke his old mark of 14 seconds flat. He also won the 100 and 300-meter low hurdles.
