Ross Bows In Tennis To Sandusky

Ross high opened its tennis season Wednesday afternoon in Sandusky on a sour note, losing 5-2 to the rival Streaks. The Giants were down only 3-2 going into the finals but took a good licking there.

Russ Sale and Dean McGormley were the only winners for Ross, which will host Fostoria Tuesday.

Marion Wins Tennis Title

Marion Harding won the Buckeye Conference tennis title Wednesday in Sandusky by sweeping both the singles and doubles. This was the first time ever that a team took both ends of play in the Buckeye Conference.

Ross' Dean McGormley reached the semi-finals of the singles division and Willy Schwenzfeier and Frank Moore got to the semis of the doubles before all were eliminated.

McGormley defeated Joe Black of Lorain, 6-1, 6-2, but was bumped out when Jim Poff of Findlay defeated him 6-0, 6-2. Gil Taft of Marion then defeated Poff 6-2, 6-2 in the finals.

Schwenzfeier and Moore won over Lorain's Bob Findley and Bob Gould 6-4, 2-6, 6-4 in doubles but lost to Elyria's Clyde Rosenbaum and Dick Simmons, 6-0, 6-0. The latter team then fell to Gary Clark and Bob Kuhn of Marion, 11-9, 6-1 in the championship round.
