advanced. Dan Lopez and Terry Carter both claimed first-round wins. Lopez defeated Mike Sullivan of Cleveland St. Joseph's 21-9 and Carter posted an 11-10 win over Duke McKean of Lakewood St. Edward's.

Lopez will face Keno Henry of Meadowdale in the second round, while Carter will oppose Dean Margioras of Xenia.

"We were a little disappointed at the result of the heavyweight, but I guess it just wasn't his (Green's) night," Ross coach Al Voggenthaler said. "I thought we could win all three of the upper matches; I'm kind of disappointed we didn't win the third one."

Chad Green was pinned in his heavyweight match in 5:46 by Darryl Miller of West Chester Lakota while Dave Boda lost 17-4 to Upper Arlington's Clayton Burkle at 103.

All three St. Joe wrestlers lost. Jarad Swint dropped an 8-5 decision to John Mazey of Bedford Chanel, Mike McGrath was caught in a throw and pinned in 5:11 by Vince Tolson of Waterford. Scott Reineck was also pinned in his 112-pound match with Wade Gibson of Cadiz.

Genoa's Jay Drouillard (145) will face Rob Shepherd of Shadyside in the second round after disposing of Stuart Webb of Miami East 21-11 in the first round.

Genoa's Todd Spencer (140) and Brian Kigar (189) were both beaten in first-round action.

Gibsonburg's Steve Fetterman was defeated by Steve Kimmet of Cincinnati Turpin, a fourth-place finisher at 145 in the 1989 state tourney. Upchurch ground out a 3-1 decision.

"Tomor had two near takedowns that the official started to give him the points, but didn't," Bergman said. "But he didn't finish the takedown. He just wasn't as sharp as he had been."

In other matches, Terry Carter and Dan Lopez, both of Fremont Ross, lost in the Division I quarterfinals.

Lopez, 140, was beaten by Keno Henry of Dayton Meadowdale, 10-5, and Carter, 160, lost to Dean Margioras of Xenia.

Lopez was pulled back into the tournament when Henry won in the semifinals, advancing to the championship match. He won his first-round consolation match, defeating John Kent of Westerville South, but lost in the second round to Thad Marcelli of Massillon Perry, 9-4.

He will wrestle for fifth place today.

In other quarterfinals, Bubba Taylor, 112, of Clyde; Bob Shanteau, 135, and Chris Losie, 171, both of Oak Harbor; Don Didion, 140, and Ken Strunk, 145, both of Bellevue, all lost Division II matches.

Ryan Tyson, 130, of Lakota, and Jay Drouillard, 145, of Genoa, lost in the Division III quarterfinals.
