

Sectional tennis starts Friday

News-Messenger reports

Four area high school girls tennis teams will play in sectional tournaments Friday and Saturday.

The sectional is the first tourney used to determine state tournament participants.

In Class A-AA, Bellevue and Clyde will be playing at Tiffin Columbian High School. There are eight teams in the sectional.

Fremont Ross and Port Clinton will be playing in Class AAA tournaments. Ross and nine other teams will be at Sandusky High School while Port Clinton is part of the 10-team sectional at Perrysburg High School.

The top four singles players and top four doubles teams advance to the district tournaments Oct. 14-15 at Bowling Green State University.

The state tournament will be Oct. 21-22 at The Ohio State University, Columbus.
