

Hard greens, Bowling Green fell Little Giants

News-Messenger reports

The hard greens at the Bowling Green State University Golf Course were rough on the Fremont Ross High School golf team Wednesday.

"(The Little Giants) hit shots right at the greens and they bounced over, while the Bowling Green kids hit shots short of the greens and let the ball roll up,"

Golf Roundup

Ross coach Dave Fleming said after the Bobcats defeated Ross 155-168.

Mark Gottron shot 38 for Ross, 1-1, but no other Little Giant shot better than 43.

"They couldn't chip and they couldn't putt," Fleming said.

Mike Windisch shot 36 for BG, and got help from Nick Myers and John Cavanaugh, who shot 37 and 39, respectively.

"Right from the start, I knew something was up because Mark (Gottron) was the only one who hit the first fairway," Fleming said.

The match was the first of the season for Bowling Green.

In other golf action, Van Buren won a tri-match over Genoa and Riverdale at Hillcrest Golf Course.

Matt Beckett shot 36, Chris England 37, Scott McGaughlin 39 and Chad Dillon 39 as Van Buren shot 151 as a team to Genoa's 169 and Riverdale's 192.

Greg Placko was low man for Genoa with a 40 as the Comets slipped to 3-1.

Golf

High School

Ross .....166

Lakota .....179

At Sycamore Hills

Ross: Ryan Riedmaier 41, Mark Gottron 42, Chad Baker 42, Dan Swaisgood 41.

Lakota: Mark Hiser 45, Brian Boze 47, Clay Wollam 41, Ken Johnson 46.

Records: Ross 2-1.

Ross wins Bellevue Invitational

News-Messenger reports

CLYDE — The Fremont Ross High School golf team won the Bellevue Invitational Saturday at Green Hills Golf Course.

The Little Giants score of 312 was 14 shots better than runner-up Norwalk.

"We were due to do something good," Ross coach Dave Fleming said. "I hope that sparks them so they can do some more."

"The kids were real happy that they were able to put one together and so was the coach."

Mark Gottron lost a playoff with Genoa's Joel Simmons for medalist honors.

Gottron, who left a 3-foot birdie putt short on the third extra hole, settled for second place when Simmons parred the fourth extra hole.

Simmons and Gottron each shot 4-over par 74 in regulation play.

Ryan Riedmaier and Chad Baker of Ross and Eastwood's Jeff Coleman each carded a 77, rounding out the top five. Dave Zinkand shot 84 and Dan Swaisgood shot 86 for the Little Giants.

Ross and Norwalk were followed by Eastwood (332), Uppr Sandusky (336), Bucyrus (340), Genoa (341), Bellevue (342), Willard (351), Tiffin Columbian (358), Carey (362), Margaretta (367) and Edison (380).

Gottron, Riedmaier fire 39s for Little Giants

News-Messenger reports

Mark Gottron and Ryan Riedmaier each carded a 39 at Fremont Country Club Tuesday as Fremont Ross won a high school golf tri-meet over Sylvania Northview and Napoleon.

Ross, 5-2, finished with 160 strokes, seven better than Northview and 20 better than Napoleon.

Golf Roundup

Northview's Shawn Kreuz took medalist honors with a 37.

In other matches reported, Clyde defeated Port Clinton 170-179 at Catawba Island Club, Lakota topped Otsego and Elmwood in a tri-match at Sycamore Hills in Fremont, Genoa edged Woodmore 167-171 at Sugar Creek and Sandusky Perkins defeated Oak Harbor 161-174 at the Oak Harbor Club.

Clyde-Port Clinton

Tony Meek's 35 kept Port Clinton close, but Clyde remained undefeated in four matches including three in the Sandusky Bay Conference.

Eric Hall paced a 40.

Lakota tri-match

Lakota's Mark medalsit honors Phil Borel. Hiser shot 39.

Lakota's 163 w:

Ross .....163

Oregon Clay.....168

Port Clinton .....188

At Fremont Country Club

Clay: Josh Breir 41, Jeff Luoma 45, Chad Parlette 42, Nick Bauman 39.

Port Clinton: Tony Meek 43, Fred Cedoz 52, Jim Jadwisiak 54, Eric Potter 39.

Ross: Mark Gottron 42, Ryan Riedmaier 38, Chad Baker 43, Dave Tallman 40.

Records: Clay 6-1, P.C. 1-4, Ross 6-1.

Ross-Harding

Ryan Riedmaier carded a 39 and was supported by Mark Gottron's 40 and Joey Chung's 41 as the Little Giants improved to 6-1.

---

High School

---

Ross .....154

St. Joe.....158

At Sycamore Hills

Ross: Ryan Riedmaier 37, Mark Gottron 39,
Chad Baker 39, Joey Chung 39.

St. Joe: Kirk Kayden 38, Chad Seilheimer 37,
Brian Gottron 41, Chris Drabik 42.

Records: Ross 7-1, St. Joe 6-1.

Ross .....156

Eastwood.....164

At Tanglewood

Ross: 1-Ryan Riedmaier 41, Mark Gottron 40,
Chad Baker 41, Joey Chung 34.

Eastwood: 1-Tony Weis 36, Jeff Coleman 43,
Casey Lewis 42, Johnny Flores 43.

Record: Ross 8-1.

Ross-Findlay

Mark Gottron's 37 was good for medalist honors but wasn't enough to lift the Little Giants past the Trojans.

Findlay's Chris Mays carded a 39.

Findlay improves to 6-3, and Ross falls to 8-2.

Ross 2nd in tri-match despite Gottron's 39

News-Messenger reports

Mark Gottron of Fremont Ross was edged by Toledo Bowsher's Craig Engwert for medalist honors and the Rebels topped the Little Giants and Maumee in a high school golf tri-match Wednesday.

Engwert fired a 38 to Gottron's 39 at South Toledo Golf Club.

Bowsher finished with a 164, while Ross had a 168 and the Panthers a 175.

Ryan Riedmaier added a 41 for Ross, 10-3.

Golf Roundup

its lowest score of the season.

Huron-Port Clinton

A 38 by Port Clinton's Tony Meek was not enough for PC as Huron's Eric Milavicak shot 36, Eric Swanbeck 38 and Pat Norwell 39.

Oak Harbor-St. Mary's

J.P. Johns, Brad Kersten, Brian Kersten and Troy Wright shot 40, 41, 42 and 43, respectively, for Oak Harbor.

Start Invitational

Genoa's 166 was four shots behind team champion Toledo Start.

Jamieson Duvall's 39 led the Comets.

Over 100

Findlay.....167

Ross.....171

At Findlay Country Club

Ross: Mark Gottron 40, Dan Swaisgood 41, Ryan Riedmaier 45, Dave Zinkand 45.

Findlay: Mays 40, Huth 42, Coryea 42, Palmer 43.

Whitmer.....159

Ross.....165

At Whiteford Valley, Mich.

Ross: Mark Gottron 42, Ryan Riedmaier 40, Chad Baker 43, Bill Lowery 40.

Whitmer: Adam Bieber 40, Jason Abodeely 38, Brian Mowka 39, Jon Hirzel 42.

Records: Ross 10-5, Whitmer 9-3.

Ross will challenge for BCC golf crown

News-Messenger reports

Fremont Ross coach Dave Fleming never seems to know how the Little Giants' golf team will perform.

It's no different for Saturday's Buckeye Central Conference Tournament which begins at noon at the Findlay Country Club.

"If we play well, we can beat all the teams," Fleming said. "I hope we play our best."

Mark Gottron, Ryan Riedmaier and Chad Baker have secured spots on the five-man team for Saturday's tournament.

"I have five (golfers) who could fill the final two spots," Fleming said.

Bill Lowery, Dan Swaisgood, Joey Chung, Chris Wolfe and Dave Zinkand are vying for the final spots for Saturday.

Gottron shoots 34; Ross tops Sandusky

News-Messenger reports

Mark Gottron of Fremont Ross fired a 2-under par 34 on the front nine at Mills Creek Golf Course in Sandusky Thursday and the Little Giants defeated Sandusky 153-191 in a high school golf match.

In other matches, Lakota defeated Lake 173-183 at Sycamore Hills Golf Club in Fremont, Genoa topped Fostoria 170-174 at Sugar Creek, Clyde beat Oak Harbor 163-170 at Oak Harbor Club and Sandusky Perkins whipped Port Clinton 151-184 at Woussickett.

Gottron made birdies on the first, seventh and ninth holes. His only bogey came on No. 6.

Ryan Riednaier and Chad Baker each carded a 39, while Dan Swaisgood shot 41 for the Little Giants, 11-5.

Lakota-Lake

Lakota's Clay Wollam and

---

Golf Roundup

---

Lake's Ed Kolanko each shot 41 to share medalist honors as the Raiders improved to 9-11.

Genoa-Fostoria

Joel Simmons led Genoa, 11-3, with a 38.

Clyde-Oak Harbor

Brad Shellhammer's 39 was good for medalist honors, while Brian Kersten led Oak Harbor with a 40 in the Sandusky Bay Conference match.

Clyde improves to 12-2 and 10-2 in the SBC. Oak Harbor slips to 8-8 and 7-5.

Perkins-Port Clinton

Perkins' Brad Harrold shot 35 to edge Port Clinton's Tony Meek by one shot for medalist honors.

The Pirates improve to 12-1 and 11-1 in the SBC. The Redskins fell to 5-13 and 3-9.

Ross slips past Clyde

News-Messenger reports

CLYDE — Mark Gottron shot a 36 as Fremont Ross nipped Clyde 161-162 in a high school golf match Friday at Green Hills Golf Course.

The victory raised the Little Giants' record to 12-5 while the Fliers slipped to 12-3.

Ryan Riedmaier and Dan Swaisgood each carded 40s to back up Gottron.

Ty Ray took medalist honors for Clyde with a 38.

Ross plays in the Buckeye Central Conference Tournament today at the Findlay Country Club. Tee time is noon.

Ross .....159

Eastwood.....173

Bedford.....182

At Fremont Country Club

Ross: Mark Gottron 37, Ryan Riedmaier 40, Chad Baker 41, Dan Swaisgood 41, Joey Chung 41.

Eastwood: Tony Weis 42, Jeff Coleman 41, Kasey Lewis 43, Johnny Flores 47.

Bedford: Rich Owens 45, Kendrick Harper 48, Jeremy Henegar 50, Craig Goodelle 39.

Records: Ross 14-5.

Ross golfers beat Findlay

News-Messenger reports

Mark Gottron shot a 39 Wednesday to lead Ross to a 163-175 high school golf victory over Fostoria at the Fostoria Country Club.

In another match Wednesday, Clyde shot a 160 to beat St. Joe (167) and Margaretta (185).

Chad Baker shot a 40 and Dan Swaisgood had a 41 for the Little Giants, 15-5.

Clyde-St. Joe

At Green Hills, Clyde's Eric

---

Golf

---

Hall was the medalist with a 38, while teammates Ty Ray and Brad Shellhammer each shot 39.

Chad Shellheimer and Shawn Dickman each shot a 41 for St. Joe.

The Crimson Streaks played without their No. 3 man, Craig Gabel, because of a death in the family.

St. Joe, Clyde lead district contingent

News-Messenger reports

Fremont St. Joseph Central Catholic, Woodmore, Old Fort and Clyde will compete in district golf tournaments Friday.

St. Joe, Woodmore and Old Fort, the first through third place finishers at the sectional tourney at Green Hills Golf Course last Friday, will play in the Division III District Tournament at Bowling Green State University. Clyde, winner of the Division II sectional at Detwiler a week ago, will play in the district tournament at Fostoria

Country Club.

At Bowling Green, tee times begin at 9:04 a.m. and at Fostoria Country Club, tee times begin at 9:30 a.m.

Several other individuals will also compete in district tournaments, including Mark Gottron of Fremont Ross, who will compete in the Division I District Tournament at Mohawk Golf Course in Tiffin. Tee times begin at 9 a.m. at Mohawk.

In the Division II district, Tony Meek of Port Clinton and Joel Simmons of Genoa will compete as individuals. Gibsonburg's Jason Adams qualified for the District III tournament.

The top four teams and four individual low scorers from Division III, and the top two teams and two low individuals from Division II qualify for the state tournament the following Friday and Saturday at the Ohio State University's Scarlet and Gray Courses.

The top two teams and two low individuals in the Division I tournament qualify for state.