Bill Bowlus and Larry Harris, carrying the banner of Ross high into the state tennis finals, fell by the wayside in the first round, Delawares' team winning the two-out-of-three match.

The Fremonters dropped the first contest 6-3, but came back to win the second 6-4. The rubber was lost 6-2.

Delaware lost later.

Doubles teams still in the running include those from Middletown, Cincinnati Western Hills, Wyoming and Lima Central.

Springfield and Cincinnati Walnut Hills are in the singles finals.
