

2001 Sectional Tournament...

Ross golf sixth at sectional

News-Messenger reports

MANSFIELD — The Fremont Ross golf team ended its season sixth out of nine teams at Friday's district tournament at Westbrook country club.

Great Lakes League rival Findlay was the champion with 313 points, and runner-up Ashland had 315 points. The Little Giants finished with 352 points.

Joe Garza led Ross with an 86, while Kevin Vassar and Josh Harnish each had an 88. Austin Young carded a 90 and David Fausnaugh added a 92.

Golf, Tennis Roundup

The duo of Mike Zimmerman and Vince Golamb completed eight holes, the most for SJCC.

TENNIS

Division I

SANDUSKY — The Division I girls tennis sectional tournament was rescheduled due to heavy rain at Sandusky High School. Action resumed today at 8:30 a.m.

Ross No. 1 singles player Devon Michaels finished five games, then play was suspended.

Tournament officials plan on completing all matches today. If not, play will car-

Both Clyde doubles teams advanced to the quarterfinals to be held at 9 a.m. today at Port Clinton High School.

Janetta Chrisman and Tina Dodson face Bellevue's Nicole Johnson and Melissa Meyer in the quarterfinals.

Clyde's Jennifer Pierce and Naomi Young also advanced to the third round. In the second round, the pair edged St. Joseph Central Catholic's Krista Kupka and Rachel Sponseller 6-0, 6-2. The Flyer duo battles Megan Donnelly and Heidi Holman of Port Clinton today.

SJCC's doubles teams both won in the first round, but were ousted in the second. Kupka and Sponseller won their first match, as did Sarah Pietrykowski and Maggie O'Brien.

Several singles players recorded wins.