

GAA TEAM VICTOR

Ross high school Girls Athletic Association varsity team won its first basketball game of the season Monday when it defeated the GAA alumnae, 32-26. Miss Sue Whittaker, Junior high school teacher, was referee. Parmelia Perry, Ross teacher, is coach of the varsity team; Beth Perry is manager, and Cathy Gruse is score keeper. During a social period Sue (Auxter) Michael, captain of the alumnae team, presented Miss Gertrude Bliss, Sandi Howard, Barbara McClory, Carole Miller, Sharon (Michles) Forgatsch, Nancy (Fowler) Sheets, Judy (Deno) Koebel and Judy (Paul) Drusback. Varsity players were Ginny Doust, captain, Karen Printy, Sue Wolf, Penny Grubs, Cheryl Reed, Pam Ruehle, Mardia Newmeyer, Peg Schwartz, Sue Cecil, Charlene Cochey, and Marian Fairall.

INITIATION FOR new members of Girls Athletic Association was not so drastic this year at Ross high school . . . At least, Tuesday the girls wore only dark GAA sweatshirts along with regular school attire and small identification signs pinned to shoulders . . . The sign told that they were a GAA initiate and what class they were a member of . . . It isn't yet known what each might have had to do before the day was over, however, since the sign concluded with these words 'I am at your command'.
