

Ross, St. Joe Coaches Get Spring Squads Ready

Spring sports program at Fremont Ross high school and St. Joseph high will pick up steam this week as coaches attempt to take their boys outside for drills.

Weather probably will hamper the athletes today, rain forcing indoor workouts.

Baseball team, under Leroy (Cot) Marquette, is due for a first meeting this afternoon. First Ross game is scheduled against Toledo Macomber.

Ross baseball team advanced to the state finals last year in Columbus where the Little Giants lost to Cincinnati Elder.

Gone from that aggregation are Doug Gallagher, brilliant lefty pitcher, who is now working out with the Detroit Tigers in spring training. Gallagher signed a major league bonus contract last summer with Detroit.

Also missing will be graduated John Level, pitcher-first baseman; Mark Walter, shortstop; Chuck Houdeshell, Frank Walby and John Kelly, outfielders off the regular unit.

Returnees who were on the starting nine last year and who will be the backbone of this year's team are Gary Bierly, pitcher and infielder; Roger Mann, catcher; Harry Walter, second baseman; Denny Stine, infielder-outfielder.
