

ROUNDUP^N

BASEBALL

Fremont Ross 10, Toledo Waite 2

Trey Ickes struck out 12 and walked three while allowing five hits and two runs (one earned) Saturday for the complete game victory in the sectional matchup.

"I started out slow," said Ickes, who was sharp and avoided trouble throughout.

"Once I found my groove, my team backed me up. In the fourth inning we scored five runs. When you have a team that backs you up, it's a lot easier to go out every inning and finish strong."

The Little Giants (6-16) play at Clay at 5 p.m. Monday.

Trever Brown scored three runs and Josiah Cook had three RBI, two hits and scored once. Cook has swung a potent bat as Ross won its last three games.

The Little Giants scored four runs in the sixth Saturday. Eight players scored at least one run.

Oregon Clay 7, Fremont Ross 0

The Little Giants (6-17, 2-9) fell on the road Monday to host Clay in the sectional final. Ross had four hits and four errors while Clay had nine hits and one error. ▾

Fremont Ross' Trevor Brown took the loss pitching six innings, allowing seven runs on nine hits while walking two batters and striking out four. Grant Gallagher, Dalton Welty, Noah Hotz and Josiah Cook all had a hit each for the Little Giants.

Clay's Brown got the win pitching six innings, allowing four hits while walking a batter and throwing four strikeouts; Brown also added a hit and a run scored. Quinlan was 2-for-3 with an RBI and two runs scored, Cannon went 3-for-4 with three runs scored alongside Orr, Yenrick and Linghor all adding a hit apiece with Orr scoring once and Yenrick adding an RBI.