

Myers wins consolation; Mayle fails in upset bid

News-Messenger reports

Rob Myers of Fremont Ross bounced back from a loss in the semifinals of the Class AAA sectional tennis tournament Monday with a 6-0, 6-0 victory over Bobby Noriega in the consolation final.

"He really played well in that match," Ross Coach Mike Andrews said.

Myers, who qualified for district competition which begins Friday at Bowling Green, lost to Andy Emerson of Toledo St. John's 6-2, 6-2 in the semifinals.

In other tennis action, top-seeded Shawn Chaney and Ken Garcia of Clyde, advanced to today's semifinals in the doubles competition at the Class A-AA sectional tournament at Norwalk.

Chaney and Garcia will play Greg Conley and Rick Bastine of Perkins today at 4 p.m. at Norwalk Middle School. Conley and Bastine upset the fourth-seeded

---

Tennis Roundup

---

doubles squad.

In singles play at Norwalk, Steve Benko of Port Clinton defeated Jason Kimmett of Tiffin Calvert 6-3, 6-4 to advance to the semifinals, while St. Joseph Central Catholic's Dick Mayle failed in his bid to upset fourth-seeded Zac Fry of Edison in a quarterfinal match.

Mayle defeated Fry 6-0 in the first set, lost a match point in a 7-6, second-set loss then fell 6-4.

Mayle, who trailed 4-1 in the tiebreaker before evening it at 4-4, led 5-3 at match point in the second set before an ace by Fry.

Benko, who had a first-round bye before defeating Matt Blakely of Sandusky St. Mary's 7-5, 6-2, has already qualified for district competition.

Benko, seeded third, will play second-seeded Paolo Trombini of Edison in the semifinals.