

REGIONAL CROSS COUNTRY

Clyde's Hammons among regional race qualifiers

News-Messenger report

Clyde's Olivia Hammons, who has won a district championship this season, will compete Saturday in the Division II regional cross country race at Hedges Boyer Park in Tiffin.

Hayley Robinett was eighth at districts and also advanced for the Fliers.

Woodmore's girls team will compete in the D-III race at regionals after a third-place finish at districts. Courtney Burner was second, Jordan Grzegorzczuk ninth and Samantha Sedlmeier 12th for the Wildcats.

Johanna Ehrenhard was third as Gibsonburg's girls were fourth.

St. Joseph Central Catholic's Chloe Liebold was seventh and Brooke Foster eighth to qualify for regionals.

Alexis Rhodes was 15th for Old Fort.

Lauren Turner was eighth at districts in D-II as Bellevue's girls finished second. Kyle Vogel was 13th and Liz Ish 14th.

Cassidi Lovell was fifth, Kim Hetrick ninth and Faye Sloma 11th as Fremont Ross's girls were third in their D-I race at districts.

Owen Starkweather was eighth for the Little Giants' boys.

See CROSS COUNTRY, Page 5A

JONATHAN BIRD/NEWS HERALD

Woodmore's Ryan Avers competes in the Tiffin Carnival race on Sept. 6. Avers finished 11th in a Division III district cross country meet race to qualify for regionals.