

1988 Regional meet...

State

Continued From B-1

points. Cleveland Beaumont was the winner with 34, followed by Avon Lake with 62, Swanton 165 and Ontario 166. Lakota was tied with St. Marys Memorial but was placed sixth on sixth runners finishes.

Angie Inge of Olmsted Falls was the individual winner in 19:04.

Jenny Scherger was 30th in 20:49 for Lakota. Nancy Gilbert was 38th in 21:03 with Lakota teammates Stephanie Cooper 50th, Deb Carlo 53rd and Kristi Hitchcock 60th.

Shelley Cotterill of Bellevue finished third in 19:36 to qualify for the state meet. Susan David of Genoa was 49th in 21:22.

Amy Ritzman led Ross, finishing 16th in 20:04. Ross had 204 points.

Lodi Cloverleaf won with 69 and Celina took second with 90. Sylvania Southview was third in 105 and Brecksville fourth, the final qualifying spot, with 157.

Lisa Abdoo was 29th in 20:26 for Ross. Other Ross finishes were Stacy Pasch 53rd, Bridgett Boda 75th, Kaylene Bartson 87th, Samantha Augugliaro 120th and Dawn Brooks 128th.

Dawn Eidson of Rogers was the individual winner in 18:54.

Aaron Potter of Ross was 49th in the AAA boys race. He ran a 17:09.

Sylvania Southview won the big school boys race with 64. Fostoria was next with 147, followed by Toledo St. Francis with 154 and Stowe Walsh Jesuit with 178. Bellevue's boys were 13th with 267. Brad Hicks was 37th in 16:52 for Bellevue's best finish.

Dave Briggs of Southview won in 15:42.

News-Messenger/Bob Marker

AMY RITZMAN of Ross strides along during Saturday's cross country regional in Tiffin.

Kirkland won the Class A boys regional in Elyria with 53 points followed by East Canton 61 and Maplewood 85.

Ross, running in the Class
AAA girls race in Tiffin, finished sixth.

W. A. C. 1000 and 1000 10