Lakota Defeats Ross

Ross High's Kirk Stout finished first—but Lakota runners took the next four finishes—as the Little Giants lost to the visiting Raiders, 24-31, yesterday in the first dual cross-country meet of the season for both teams.

Stout, a senior, clocked in at 10:34, 14 seconds ahead of the second-place finisher, Al Swaisgood of Lakota. The next two runners—both from the Raiders—managed to finish under 11 minutes.

Chris Widman, who recorded a sixth-place showing, came in at 11:12, a disappointing finish for the senior long-distance runner.

He was followed in by three Ross teammates—Junior Mark Hoffman, senior Lee March, and junior Joe Palomo.

Other Ross finishers were Steve Young, a junior, in 14th place, junior Dave Damschroder, in 17th, sophomore Randy Patrick, in 18th, and L. Gessner, in 20th.

“Randy (Patrick) got sick on the last part of the run—and I’m sure it was due to the intense heat,” Brant insisted. “Both Randy and Dave Damschroder should still help us out a lot this year.”

Lakota, which was the AA State Champs in cross-country last year, fielded another strong team of runners for the meet, which was held at Thornwood Golf Links.

“Yes, they’re tough again,” Brant commented. “We could have beaten them, though. But I guess our kids just weren’t in good enough shape.”

“We just weren’t quite ready for this meet. As the season progresses, I’m sure you’ll see this squad perform much better.”

Scoring-wise, Ross had place-finishes of one, six, seven, eight and nine, compared to Lakota’s two, three, four, five and ten.

The Little Giants will be at home again on Friday against Toledo Rogers.

Ross Runners Bow To Tiffin, 17-46

Tiffin Columbian administered Fremont Ross one of its worst losses in cross country in the last decade when the Tornados took a 17-46 decision from the Little Giants at Tiffin yesterday.

In other meets, Clyde bested Fostoria, 24-34, St. Wendelin handled Woodmore, 24-36, and Margaretta beat the Sandusky Reserves, 25-31.

Ross had only two runners finish among the top 10 at Columbian. Kirt Stout took fourth place and Chris Widman was 10th.

The Little Giants, who are now 1-3 for the season, travel to Fostoria Tuesday. Ross entertains Clyde at Thornwood Thursday.

Clyde was sparked by Rocky Moore and Doug Bingman, who finished first and second, respectively. Moore toured Green Hills Golf Course in 10:42 and Bingman was clocked in 11:15.

The Fliers now have two consecutive victories. That is the most consecutive wins for the Fliers since 1967. They will go after their third in a row next Thursday against Ross at Thornwood.

Woodmore took first and third places but that wasn't enough to counter the tremendous St. Wendelin depth. A St. Wendelin runner took second and the Mohawks also swept the fourth through eighth positions.

The individual victor was Tony Hernandez, who waltzed home with a 10:04. He was 42 seconds in front of the second place finisher. Wayne Fegley (11:01) was third. Hernandez established a new course record at Fostoria Lakeland Golf Course with his time.

Woodmore travels to Lakota Tuesday for a 4:30 p.m.

Margaretta won its second straight meet. The Polar Bears were paced by Tom Wright, the individual winner, who was timed in 10:45. Dale Gast (11:06) placed third.

Lakota Beats Woodmore; Margaretta Splits

Little Giant Runners Dump Fostoria, 21-34

Fremont Ross runners captured the first three places as the Little Giants thumped Fostoria, 21-34, in a dual meet at Fostoria yesterday.

In other cross country action, Lakota handled Woodmore, 21-40, and Margaretta split with Huron and Fostoria St. Wendelin. Margaretta beat Huron, 17-43, but bowed to St. Wendelin, 24-31.

Ross was paced by Kirk Stout, who toured the long Fostoria course in 11:12. He was followed to the finish line by Chris Widman (11:29) and Dave Damschroder (11:30).

A Fostoria runner took fourth and Ross' Tom Hoffman checked in the fifth spot with an 11:41.

"The Fostoria course is longer than two miles," Ross head coach Ron Brant said. "That is the reason for those high times."

Ross, which now has a 2-3 record, entertains Clyde at Thornwood Golf Course Thursday at 4 p.m.

Woodmore got a first place from Tony Hernandez but couldn't offset Lakota's tremendous depth. The Raiders had seven of the first 10 runners cross the finish line.

Hernandez toured the course in 10:16. The nearest finisher was Lakota's Fred Garcia, who had a 10:43. Lakota runners also took the third, fourth and fifth positions.

Al Swaisgood was third at 10:48. Gerard Gabel took fourth with a 10:51. Terry Wise also had a 10:51 but was placed in the fifth position.

Lakota, which is now 4-0 in dual meets, will travel to the Ashland Invitational Saturday. The Raiders will travel to Margaretta next Tuesday for their next dual meet. Woodmore's next outing is Thursday at home against Port Clinton.

Margaretta's Tom Wright was the overall winner at Sleepy Hollow Golf Course. His official time was 10:47. The second place finisher—Dick Martin of St. Wendelin—had an 11:04.

St. Wendelin runners also took the third, fourth and fifth positions. The split gave Margaretta a 3-3 season log. St. Wendelin is now 4-1. Huron has a 1-2 log.

Bowling Green High School's Jan Eikum set a new course record in leading his team to a 19-39 cross country victory over Ross at Thornwood golf course yesterday.

Eikum, who's a senior, toured the layout in 9:43, which shaved 29 seconds off the previous mark. The old record holder, Kirk Stout of Ross, set a new school record with a 10:06 clocking. Stout's time was only good for third place, however.

Second place went to Bryan Daniels of Bowling Green, who ran the two miles in 9:50.

Chris Widman, Dave Damschroder and Mark Hoffman also finished in the first 10 for the Little Giants. Widman's 10:42 was good for sixth. Damschroder ran a 10:46 for eighth and Hoffman's 10:55 put him 10th.

"Bowling Green has a fine club — one of the better ones we've run against in the last couple of years," Ross head coach Ron Brant said. "They have quite a one-two punch in Eikum and Daniels. Those two kids will go a long way."

Ross will participate in the Bowling Green State University Invitational Friday at 4:30 p.m.
