Southview swims past Ross in close meets

News-Messenger reports

SYLVANIA — Southview defeated Fremont Ross in both boys and girls swimming and diving Tuesday, winning the boys meet 99-87 and the girls meet 98-88.

The Ross girls swept the relay events, and the Aqua Giants finished out of the top spot in just four individual swims. But Southview collected runner-up spots in 10 events.

Mindy Ickes won two events for Ross, taking first in the 200-meter individual medley and the 500 freestyle.

In diving, Jennifer Newman of Ross scored a personal best 234.75 points.

The Ross boys won five events, with Hans Schmidlin touching in three of them.

Schmidlin won the 50 and 100 freestyle swims and anchored the Aqua Giants' 200 freestyle relay squad.

SANDUSKY — The Fremont Ross girls swim team won all 11 events Wednesday against Sandusky, but the Ross boys failed to win any events as the Aqua Giants split with the Blue Streaks.

Ross won the girls meet 127-43, improving its record to 5-4. In the boys meet, Ross fell to 4-5 after Sandusky's 96-73 victory.

Winning two individual events apiece for the Ross girls were Molly O'Conner (200 freestyle and backstroke), Mindy Ickes (individual medley and butterfly) and Annie Mears (50 and 100 freestyle).

The team of Beth Brudzinski, Kristyn Warner, Kristin Humberger and Kristen Farrell closed the meet by teaming up to win the 400 freestyle relay.

The Ross boys took runner-up spots in nine events.

Erik Luse placed second in the individual medley and the butterfly, Andrew Humberger took second in the 100 freestyle and breaststroke and Hans Schmidlin finished second in the 50 freestyle and the backstroke.

Diving was not contested.

Aqua Giants split dual meet with Findlay

News-Messenger reports

The Fremont Ross girls edged Findlay, but the Trojans returned the favor against the Ross boys.

Diver Jennifer Newman set a personal best record in leading Ross to a 94-91 win, the Aqua Giants' sixth in 10 dual meets. Newman, a junior, had 238.25 points on her six dives.

Annie Mears, Kristyn Warner, Addie Baker and Molly O'Connor teamed up to win the medley relay for Ross and all figured in other Ross wins.

Baker won the 200 freestyle, Mears capture the 50 freestyle, O'Connor won the backstroke and Warner was first in the breaststroke.

In the boys meet, Findlay won 96-90. Findlay won seven events as the Aqua Giants slipped to 4-6.

Hans Schmidlin won the 50 and 100 freestyles for Ross, while Andrew Humberger won the breaststroke and also teamed with Erik Luse, Eric Gohring and Hans Geller to win the 200 freestyle relay.

Brian Thatcher won the diving for Ross.

SBC Meet

Two Oak Harbor relay teams and Rocket diver Ellyn Vreeland set meet records Saturday.

Vreeland compiled 228 points to break the record of 219.5 set last year by former Oak Harbor diver Calli Bodnar.

Oak Harbor's girls and boys medley relay teams lowered records set by Rocket squads in 1993.

Azure Weis, Monica Tabbert, Kristyn Hamman and Andrea Lange finished in 2 minutes, 21 seconds. James Oakley, Ron Lajti, Brian Pointer and Aaron Hemminger finished in 1:45.35.

Four other Oak Harbor relays, both the boys and girls 200 and 400 freestyle squads, also placed first.

In the boys standngs, Sandusky Perkins finished first with 129 points. Oak Harbor was the runner-up with 117.

Northview sinks Ross

News-Messenger reports

SYLVANIA — Jen White set a national high school record to highlight Northview's double win over Fremont Ross Tuesday.

The Wildcat girls defeated Ross 107-78 and the Northview boys prevailed 121-65.

White set a national record in the 500-meter freestyle in five minutes 41.64 second. She was an easy winner over teammate Kristie Orecchio who finished in 6:10.38.

"The kids swam well," Ross coach Phil Moran said. "They all had good times for the first time this season."

"Watching the Northview swimmer set a national record was a treat for our kids."

Ross won four event with Mindy Ickes taking two of the first places. Ickes won the 200 individual medley in 2:16.10 and the 100 breaststroke in 1:20.68.

The Aqua Giants also got firsts from Annie Mears in the 50 freestyle (28.63) and the team of Molly O'Connor, Annie Mears, Ickes and Addie Baker won the 200 freestyle relay in 2:00.11.

Ross had a trio of first-place finishes in the boys meet.

Brian Thatcher won the diving with 203.3 points and Andrew Humberger won the 100 breaststroke in 1:16.89. The Aqua Giants' 200 freestyle relay of Hans Schmidlin, Erik Luse, Mike Leow and Humberger won that event in 1:50.46.

Ross girls 4th, boys 5th at PC swim relays

News-Messenger reports

PORT CLINTON — Fremont Ross finished fourth in the girls standings and fifth in the boys at the 27th Port Clinton Relays Saturday in the Port Clinton High School natatorium.

Oak Harbor's girls and boys were both third.

Perkins won the girls meet with 58 points with Mansfield second at 56 and Oak Harbor next with 54. Ross had 40.

In the boys meet, Perkins had 71 points and runner-up Port Clinton 48. Oak Harbor had 46 followed by Sandusky with 40 and Ross at 33.

The Ross girls 200-yard medley relay team of Molly O'Connor, Mindy Ickes, Addie Baker and Annie Mears set a record with a clocking of one minute, 59.39 seconds. That was better than the mark of 1:59.74 set by Galion last year.

The same quartet of Ross girls won the 850 freestyle crescendo with a clocking of 9:03.95.

Oak Harbor's girls won three events: diving, 400 freestyle and 200 underwater, the latter with a record breaking effort of 2:02.09 by the team of Andrea Lange, Monica Tabbert, Amy Tabbert and Kristy Hamann. The finish was more than three seconds quicker than the previous mark of 2:05.93 set by Ashland in 1992.

The 400 relay team of Monica Tabbert, Amy Tabbert, Hamann and Lange set a meet record of 3:55.86, breaking the old record 3:53.26 by Perkins in 1988.

Ross finished second in the boys diving for the best Aqua Giants finish. Brian Thatcher and Kyle Fisher had 252.75 points to finish behind the Perkins team of Nic Cassidy and Kevin Davey which finished with 287.35.

Oak Harbor's boys won the 200 butterfly and the 200 medley, racking up a meet record in the medley.

The foursome of Aaron Hemminger, Ron Lajti, Brian Pointer and Andy Jenkins finished the medley in 1:44.5, lowering the old mark of 1:44.67 set by Mansfield Malabar in 1978.

News-Messenger reports

A pair of sophomores received the top awards during the Fremont Ross High School Swimming and Diving Awards Program Monday night at the high school.

Mindy Ickes and Hans Schmidlin were named the most valuable swimmers by a vote of the team members, according to coach Phil Moran.

Ickes was a state qualifier in the breaststroke and on a relay team while Schmidlin made it to the district meet.

Addie Baker and Jennifer Newman won the Coaches Award for the girls and Brian Thatcher won that award for the boys team.

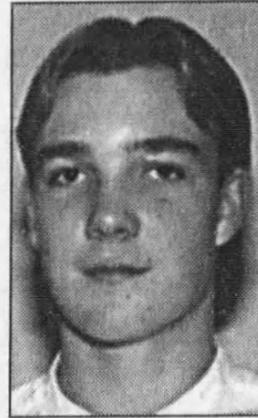

The most improved swimmers were Tricia Tooman for the girls and Jim Straight for the boys.

Captain's awards went to Kristin Humberger, Baker and Newman for the girls and Thatcher for the boys.

Thatcher was the only four-year
