Track & Field: Little Giants advance to regionals

TIFFIN — The Little Giants' Mariah Mathews will compete in four events in Wednesday's Division I regional championship after a strong performance at Friday's district meet. Ross was second as a team to Ashland.

Mathews won both the 100 dash (13.1 seconds) and the 200 dash (27.06). She also anchored Ross' 4x100 and 4x200 relay teams of Ariana Spencer, Elayna Ackerman and Cassie Woleslagel.

Both relay teams earned second place finishes, 50.54 seconds and 1:45.97 respectively.

Ackerman won the 100 hurdles and teammate Erin Slaughter was fourth (16.77) in the event.

Woleslagel placed third in the 300 hurdles (48.64) and Ackerman took fourth (48.71).

In field events, Spencer's 17-foot 1 ½ -inch leap took first place. Ross' Jessica Schell was third in the discuss after a toss of 106-04.

On the boys side, Devaun Churchya led Ross, advancing in three events. The Little Giants were third as a team.

Churchya placed third in the 200 dash (22.9), fourth in the 400 dash (49.98) and he anchored the first-place 4x200 relay team of Jacob Luc, Dylan Starks and Drew Starks (1:28.70).

The Little Giants' Louis Guardiola endured the distance runs and finished first in the 1600 run (4:27.94) and second in the 3200 run (9:38.28).

In field events, Ross' Jared Ballenger advanced to the Amherst regionals after district throws of 164-05 (first place) in the discuss and 56-07 in the shot put (second place). Teammate Shanquise Mills placed second in the long jump (21-10).
