

Ross, Clyde reach districts

Ross and Clyde will advance to the district tournaments in volleyball after winning sectional titles Saturday.

The Little Giants defeated Vermilion and Mansfield Senior in the Class AAA sectional at Mansfield Malabar High School. Both matches were easily won by the Little Giants.

Ross downed Vermilion 15-1 and 15-4. Barb Bliss, Lori Mehling, Carla LeJeune, and Penny Broshious scored six points apiece in the first round win for the Little Giants.

In the second round, Ross defeated Mansfield 15-2 and 15-5. Debbie Link with eight points and LeJeune with six led Ross.

Clyde defeated Norwalk 15-1 and 15-2 in its first round match in the Class AA at Sandusky. In the second match, the Fliers came back from a 10-1 first game deficit to defeat Edison 16-14 and 15-12.

Kathy Aman had nine and Kelli Aman and Ellen Wood had six each in the first match win for Clyde. Kathy Aman with 15 and Lydia Mendoza with five paced the second match win.

St. Joe defeated South Central 15-0 and 15-4 before losing to New London 2-15 and 6-15 in the Class A at Norwalk.

Lakota pulled off the biggest upset of the sectionals, defeating previously unbeaten Eastwood 5-15, 15-12, and 15-13 in the Class AA at Eastwood. Patti Dennis with 11 points led the Lakota upset. The Raiders, however, lost to Elmwood 15-4 and 15-7 in the next match to drop from the tournament.

Whip . . .

t ombination

rogue-red RANGE WHIP. The hot new graphics and styling will give you the feeling of a sports car rally. It's all part of the refinement of the RANGE WHIP from a solid mid-range