

Ross boys, girls swim season to begin

News-Messenger reports

Second year head coach Paul Moran is anticipating improvements for both the Ross boys and girls swim teams for the 1995-96 season.

The girls will return nine letterwinners including seniors Tricia Tooman, Natasha Siebert, Andrea Hasselbach and Kristen Farrell. The junior class returns two letterwinners in Annie Mears and

Mindy Ickes. Kristyn Warner, Brandi Oliver and Mollie O'Connor

comprise the trio of sophomore letterwinners from last season. Mears, Ickes and O'Connor competed at the state meet last season.

Key losses from last season include diver Jennifer Newman and Addie Baker who led the girls swimmers to state competition. Along with Beth Brudzinski and Karen Wonderly the four swimmers scored 95 points at the 1995 sectional meet.

"We should be a better team this year," Moran said. "Our diving will be very inexperienced. Fremont has been spoiled the last few years in diving because of (Leslie) Hasselbach and Newman."

Moran looks for big things from the Ross boys team this season. Eleven letter winners return for the Little Giants from the 1994-95 squad.

Gone are diver Brian Thatcher and four-year letterwinner Hans Geller but leading the way for the returning letterwinners are seniors Josh Redman, Eric Gohring and M. J. Dummering. Junior letterwinners include Shawn Tooman, Jim Straight, Hans Schmidlin, Erik Luse, Kevin Jackson and Andrew Humberger. A pair of sophomore divers are letterwinners Ryan Newman and Kyle Fisher.

The Little Giants boys and girls teams open their season Wednesday against Calvert and travel to Mansfield on Saturday.

Oak Harbor slips past Ross boys, girls

News-Messenger reports

OAK HARBOR — Fremont Ross stayed close for a while, but the Aqua Giants eventually succumbed to Oak Harbor Tuesday.

The Ross boys were down by a point before the diving competition and trailed by three after the 200 freestyle relay before the Rockets prevailed 97-88.

"We didn't take a lot of firsts, but I knew our boys would be close," Ross coach Phil Moran said. "We've been on the other end of it on the girls side where we've gotten all the firsts and lost the meet."

While the Ross boys fell to 7-3, the Ross girls slipped to 8-2 after Oak Harbor's 107-79 victory.

Oak Harbor's girls outscored Ross 13-3 in the diving as Ellyn Vreeland and Ann Marie Kersten finished first and second.

"That was too much for us to overcome," Moran said.
