TENNIS

Last spring baseball was dropped as an interscholastic sport and tennis and golf were started. As the tennis team was inexperienced it was not a very successful season and the team lost five straight games to Findlay, Bowling Green, Norwalk, Sandusky and a second to Norwalk. The next game the team seemed to hit their stride when they defeated Bowling Green in a return game. They also defeated Sandusky and Napoleon in the last two games of the season.

One of the results of the interest shown in tennis was the building of the new courts at Harmon Field. They are very fine courts and Ross High may well be proud of them.

Much credit for the successful organization of the team is due to Mr. Flinchpaugh who volunteered to coach the team. He and the boys worked very hard trying to get a winning team.

Mr. Flinchpaugh resigned his place on the faculty to do graduate work at the University of California this year. It will be difficult to find someone to take over his position as coach of the tennis team this spring.

MUCH ACTIVITY IN F. H. S. ATHLETICS

Athletic activities are certainly looming up in the Fremont high school this week. Coach Bill Ogden has his group of thin-clads rounding out their preliminary exercises for the main grind that will place them in the proverbial pink of condition for the major trials; Coach Oldfather is working his group of gridders in the final phases of the spring football practice, while Jim Flinchbaugh has called a meeting of the tennis players of the school for this evening, to organize and map out a schedule.

Football practice last evening saw about 40 gridders out in togs, among the number being Captain Fry, Harry Binkley, Travis, Short, Don Brokate, Hess, Eckert, Lee Moore, Pettiford, Haldon Binkley, Beeker and a lot of others. Several of these boys are lined up with Ogden's army of cinder pounders, who will don the thin-clads when the gridding is over a few days hence.

In regard to tennis, several good players have announced their intention of trying for the F. H. S. team that will play matches with Fostoria, Findlay, Sandusky and other teams during the season.

SANDUSKY NETTERS DEFEAT FREMONT

Fremont high's tennis team lost a match to Sandusky high on the Harmon field courts Thursday afternoon, by the count of 3 to 1.

George Post of Fremont, dropped a hard tussle to George Steinemann of Sandusky, 7-5 and 10-8. Rathke defeated Jimmy O'Farrell, 6-4, 6-4, and J. P. White and Eddie Brehm had it out considerably, with the Blue Streaker winning the match, 2-6, 6-2, 6-1.

Sandusky defaulted in the doubles play, giving Fremont its point. The two teams will meet in another match to be played at Sandusky.

FREMONT NETTERS ARE WHITEWASHED

Fremont High School's tennis team, making its first splurge in the net "racket" visited Findlay Friday afternoon and ran afoul of a defeat. Three sets of singles and two sets of doubles were engaged in with the Findlay High racquet-eers and narry a set came Fremont's way. Several of the contests were close, however, and the Fremonters showed promise and they will improve with experience. Players making the trip with Coach Jim Flinchpaugh were: Eddie Brehm, Corlett, Bob Post, Jimmy O'Farrell.
