

1926 Season review...

COACH ROSS HAS BIT OF GOOD TIMBER

Capt. McCarthy, Bowers, Bierly,
Althoff and Several Other
Good Players Back

By James A. (Jimmie) Murphy.

The announcement that school sessions will be started in little less than a month brings to mind the fact that when the youngsters get back at their desks we will begin to think of football and that brings up the question of what kind of a team Bunk Ross will have in the field this fall.

Losing eleven men from last year's squad, seven of whom at least, were regulars leaves a job for Ross that no one will envy. Who is to replace the valuable Kenny Hawk. One guess is that Hetrick will have a voice in the matter for this youngster showed on a couple of occasions that he has the makings of a star.

To start with Ross will have Butch Bowers, the crafty little quarterback to run the team again. Johnny McCarthy will be back at his old position at guard, Johnny Melncor and Nell Tucker will be back at the tackles and this let's the coach out as far as experienced material is considered and the rest of the team will have to come from the ranks of the youngsters.

Among those who are expected to make the team or be forced out by some who have not yet displayed their ability are: Wadsworth, Althoff, Keller, Hetrick, Bierly, Brown and Rinehart. Others who are expected to make a bid for places on the team are: Chudzinski, Swint, Zilles, Nelson, Jones, Pelton and Root. These fellows with the others who may decide to become candidates for the eleven will present some problems for Ross to solve but in the opinion of the writer Bunk will come through with an outfit that will hold its own when the season gets under way and be in shape when Thanksgiving day rolls around, to hand out another trimming to the old time foe, Sandusky, over whom a victory is always considered above that of any other team in the league.

There will be no training camp this year, rules of the league prohibiting the practice and there will be no getting together until call for the practice comes. There is nothing to prevent the boys from getting out on their own hook and getting in shape for the start of the season and it is expected that most any night some of them will be seen going towards Harmon field with their armor and a pigskin oval and that when Ross returns to the city, he will find them all in fair condition for the start of the season.

Here's hoping that a couple of lads will be discovered who will make their names known and feared around the circuit and that when the end of the season comes the name of Fremont will be found high in the list of winners. The Purple and White must be carried to the front, if that can be done through good clean sportsmanship, and with that the fans and followers of the local school will be satisfied even though the season may not be a success from the standpoint of victory, for sportsmanship is placed first at Fremont Hl.

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE HAS BOYS HUMMING

Coach Ross has had the football candidates out for more than two hours each night and has been driving them hard in an effort to learn just what he can expect from the squad when the fall training is started. There are several big fellows on the squad and if they absorb the teaching of the coach may develop into dependable men for the next season, but from the present outlook, the chances of a top notch team does not look any too bright.

That the workouts have been strenuous was made known by one of the fellows this morning when he said, "Ross has not had the dummy out during practice and every one of the fellows has had to stand the tackling and take his spills with a smile."

By using this system, Ross will learn just which of the boys can stand the gaff and will not have to bother in the fall with players who look good but who cannot stand up under the punishment of the enemy.

Track candidates to the number of a dozen or more are working hard but there seems to be little available talent in the squad and with one or two exceptions, nothing out of the ordinary can be expected.

GREAT MEN AND GREAT MOMENTS AMONG THOSE WHO HAVE BATTLED FOR FREMONT HIGH; ALL-TIME LIST OF GRID STARS

(By Col. O'Farrell)

Fremont high school has not only taken its place in the sun of suns as an institution that puts forth sons and daughters, gifted with talent for scholarly effort, but it is also famous throughout the length and breadth of the land as an institution that has representatives who are capable of holding their own on field, track and diamond as well as basketball courts.

The well thumbed pages of history will show that the purple and white of old Fremont high has waved in a triumphant manner on many an occasion as the trophy case in the school lobby will attest.

This case has only been in position but a few short years, but it contains mementos of victory over old time rivals that are sweet and dear to the hearts of the pupils as well as the old grads who saw them won.

Way back in the glorious old days proceeding the Spanish-American war when football made its debut in local scholastic circles, Fremont high, led by its Johnny Garvins, A. O. Baumanns and its "Humpie" Marvins started collecting scalps. The practice, although it has slackened a bit in late years, has never ceased. It is a habit that comes in cycles. There is always a lull before the storm. Look at the thin days that preceded the high tide of victory in 1919, 1920 and 1921.

To Be Proud Of

To wear a F. H. S. numeral, won on the field of battle, is a proud "stepping out" for any red-blooded lad. It is something to fight for, something to covet and something to preserve.

The Marvins, Childs, Baumanns, Wendlers, and McCarthys and dozens of other stars wore them and are still proud to boast of that fact. More of these stars are coming, and who knows? 1926 may mean the stepping stone to the seat on the cycle of events that will bring the old school back to her glorious position, a championship in some department of the Little Big Seven. It is about due.

Old Fremont high has had her wonder moments in athletics. Where is there the fan who does not thrill when he remembers the feats of the heroes of old?

Where is there the dye-in-the-wool fan who does not feel a flutter of the heart and a tremor of the spinal chord when he brings to mind the runs of Towner Smith, the plunges of Eesley or the skill of a Wendler?

Where stands he who cannot get a kick out of the fact that he saw Edward O'Farrell broad jump close to 22 feet in an inter-scholastic meeting at Fostoria years ago? This mark still stands, too.

Who among the hundreds, that saw Johnny Garvin win a bike race from Hessville to Fremont a number of years back and shove the colors of F. H. S. ahead of a crew of pro cyclists, can sit back and review the scene without battling an eye and saying, "Atta boy, Johnny?" Not one.

Nathan Rose.

Is there or breathes there a man among the throng that saw Nathan Rose, star basketballer of the F. H. S. team, play Vic Zahn, then considered one of the greatest basketball forwards in the world, to no baskets on the old Buckland Guards armory floor a number of years back, who cannot experience a bit of a jerk out of a rip into memories' halls? Narry a one, I'll bet.

The woods of past great deeds are full of these great and glorious moments and the writer could review dozens of other scholastic moments of greatestness in Fremont high history.

Head Coach of Athletics

WILLIAM (BUNK) ROSS

Space of a limited quantity forbids, however, and I must hurry along in this hop skip story, like a bee gathering a titbit here and there.

The All Star Team.

Last fall the writer took upon himself the stupendous task of selecting three all time star football teams from the ranks of almost 600 players that he has seen under the purple and white gonfalon of old Fremont high in the past 30 years. I also expected to publish an honor roll at the time, but I saved that for this occasion.

The all star teams were picked as follows:

First Team

Ends—Charles Leshner, Willard Peach.

Tackles—Harry Ickes, Tim McCarthy.

Guards—Clarence Childs, Edgar Rhoades.

Center—Wilfred Gahn.

Quarterback—Harold Wendler.

Half Backs—A. O. Baumann, Fred Marvin.

Full Back—Edburn Eesley.

Second Team

Ends—William Ross, Harry Bowhus.

Tackles—William Emmons, Paul McGormley.

Guards—Danny Reardon, W. Thrun.

Center—Stanley Wolfe.

Quarterback—Ed O'Farrell.

Half backs—Clyde Christy, Clarence Burgette.

Full Back—William Fellers.

Third Team.

Ends—Elvero Forsythe, Harry Stout.

Tackles—Carl P. Heid, Francis Wolfe.

Guards—Ridgeway Bartlett, Albert Depp.

Center—Delbert Siler.

Quarterback—Edgerton Garvin.

Half Backs—A. House, Tom O'Farrell.

Full Back—Walter Sharp.

Honor List.

In working up to my honorable mention list I may have overlooked

some worthy boys, but memory is a fickle jade and the going was rough when I delved deep into my subject.

In summing up the selections, my story written last fall with the list of gridders, reads as follows:

"I have now arrived, safely I hope, at Lastchapterville in this story that concerns Fremont high's all-star, all time football elevens, three of them. This job of picking the cream of nearly 600 players in a span of almost 30 years, is no half hour exercise on the typewriter. It is what the late Chuck Connors would term a he man's chore.

It is one of the toughest assignments a sport chronicler ever undertook in this man's community and, take it from myself, I did not volunteer for the task. It was wished on me.

I am willing to take my medicine in the form of criticism in my selections and already several have been broadcasted.

This all-star selection has been the pioneer effort of its kind in Fremont and where is there, the, or was there, the pioneer that didn't have to take his knocks. Look at Dan Boone and Lou Wetzel, Zane Simon Kenton and Brady! They did pioneer stuff and the redskins went gunning for them.

'Twas ever thus.

The last chapter in this story will pertain to the Honor Roll, and folks, it's going to be a long one. This roll, just a shade lower than the lists of the 33 heroes of the present and past who have already been mentioned on this page is one select list of gridders who in their day have done their bit at home and abroad, several of them appearing with college teams. Some have been forgotten these many years, and the very appearance of their names will arouse old memories of long ago.

I will acknowledge that I may have missed a few of the stars of old times, but all in all, I have one fine galaxy of boys on the muster roll.

It would be impossible to place all of these stars in their rightful positions as many of them played all over the lot, some on the ends, others on the line and some in the backfield. As near as I can figure out here's how they line up:

ENDS

BUNK ROSS SOUNDS FOOTBALL CALL AT FREMONT HIGH; NOTICE TO PLAYERS

That football will soon be the rage at Fremont high school can be taken from the following notices that were received by prospective members of the F. H. S. squad Friday:

"Prospective Gridder:

'Tis the call of the Old Purple and White—a call which should thrill to the bone every red blooded man in F. H. S.

Five weeks from next Saturday eleven scrapping Yellow Devils will trot out on Harmon Field to dedicate that monument of clean sport for all time. Will you be one of those men who take part in that epoch making event? Your athletic ability, your summer's work and your habits, coupled with your fighting determination to make that team will settle this question.

Begin at once to round yourself in to top notch condition, get plenty of sleep eat good wholesome food, cut down on cigarettes and take a little running exercise daily. Fremont needs smashing ends, bulging tackles, boring guards, a center in and out, and a fast and shifty backfield. Pick your position and make it yours for the season.

A meeting will be held at the High School, Saturday night, August 28th, at 7 o'clock.

Fremont is due for a big year and with the old motto "Clean Smart, Pants-smacking Football" lets all get out shoulders to the old wagon and make her roll.

Sincerely,
"Bunk" Ross

COACH ROSS' OUTFIT WILL LOOK NIFTY

Purple and White Warriors Have Indications of Having Better Than Average Team

(By J. A. M.)

Now that the Twilight League baseball season is out of the way and the World Series games in the big leagues but a short distance away the attention of the fans will soon be turning again to football and the other winter sports.

Saturday night of this week the first meeting of the football squad of Fremont high school will gather in one of the rooms at the Croghan street building and the first conference of the year will get under way, in which football will be the only topic to be discussed. Coach Ross issued his call a week ago and by this time all of the candidates who are expected to step into the gridiron togs, are expected to be there ready to put in their bids for jobs.

The coming season will present greater than at any time since 1922, when Tim McCarthy captained the squad which contained such names as that of Red Thatcher, Shorty Engler, Hank Baumann, Ollie Zink, Judy Lerch, Danny Reardon, Hype Siler and Al Foos. Since that time there has been little to build a team from, each year proving harder for the coaches who have been forced to build a team out of material, which, while containing some quality, never amounted to much from the quantity angle.

This year, however, appears to be one in which there will be quantity and quality, and Coach Ross will have a considerable number of men from which to select a squad to represent the school. It is expected that the same that hampered the work of the local squad last year will again be there to keep the coaches guessing, and that is, the lack of weight.

There are plenty of students willing to get out and play the game, but many of them are lightweights, all of whom will be welcomed, but the fellow with the best chance of making the team will be the one who has the ability plus added poundage. No one is going to be slighted by Ross, when it comes to selecting the men who are to play, but it is only natural that the fellow with the weight will be considered first when the ability is considered equal.

Little can be said of the other teams of the circuit at this time for most of them are in the same fix as is Fremont, the loss by graduation of many of their regulars. Lorain lost several as did Elyria, Sandusky is another that will be affected by the loss of a number of their regular men. Oberlin is an unknown quantity for the coming season and so are Norwalk and Bellevue. The latter team will probably be the weakest in the L. B. S. during the coming season.

One thing that can be taken for a certainty at the local school is that Ross will have every available man out trying to make the team and that every one of them is going to be given every opportunity to make good.

HIGH GRIDDERS WILL HAVE POW WOW WITH COACH

Long List of Candidates to Confer
With Coach Ross Tonight

The football season at Fremont high school will be officially started tonight when the first meeting of candidates who have been asked to report for the first meeting of the year, will assemble at the school building with Coach Ross, when preliminary instructions will be given and those who are to try for the team will be told how to condition themselves before the opening of the school year.

Rules of the Little Big Seven league prevent the training camp being used this year, and for that reason the boys will have to condition themselves until after the opening of the fall sessions, which are slated to be started Sept. 7.

In the list of names of students to whom letters of invitation to the meeting have been sent are most of those who made up the second squad last year, among them several who showed, in the games played last fall, that they have the makings of real stars.

Oxley, Brown, Zillis, Shreffler, Miller, Hetrick, Paulus, Althoff, Schepplin, Wonderly, Krellick, Westfall, Binkley, Lerch, Muchmore, Freeh, Titsworth, Hasselbach and Jones all have had an opportunity of learning the Ross system and they, with the others, should make a good showing when the first practice sessions are called.

While it is a little too early to say that the team will be the equal of that of last year, or that they will make a better record than did the 1925 squad, it can safely be said that when the time for the first game comes, that Ross will have a team on the field that will give the best they have, and that they will fight for everything they are entitled to.

Those who have been asked to be present at tonight's meeting are: John McCarthy, Dan Cox, W. Jones, Nelson Tucker, Clyde Shawl, Albert Auxter, Willis Oxley, Gessner Brown, Walter Zillis, Allen Shreffler, Harley Kaiser, Luther Miller, Carl Coleman, LaMar Hetrick, Newton Paulus, Harold Althoff, Don Hirschberger, Clifton Wonderly, Paul Schepplin, Howard Siegenthaler, Harold Kelser, Haldon Leedy, John Meincer, Kermith Krellick, Edwin Westfall, Norman Strohl, Lester Binkley, Geo. Lerch, Don Muchmore, Wayne Zimmerman, Milton Stull, Robert Freeh, John Titsworth, Walter Hasselbach, Elstner Sprunk, Nelson Jones, Tarlan Robinson, Edgar Newton, Lawrence Bruner, Harlan Carnicom, Donald Crosskill, Carl Cook, Russell Colvin, Charles Gerding, Donald Burns, Claude Kuns, Clayton Schwogho, Walter Mooney, Norbert Swint, Robert Coleman, Harry Cooley, Walter Rafferty.

"GOB" LAUB NOT TO AID COACH ROSS THIS YEAR

Absence of "Kenny" Hawk Will Be
Keenly Felt at F. H. S.

(By J. A. M.)

Who will replace Kenny Hawk on the Purple and White during the coming season? That is a question that is bothering the football fans of the city and Coach Bunk Ross. Will it be possible to replace the flashing, flying Kenny, who showed his heels to many of the teams in the L. B. S. last year? That he will be missed is a certainty, there is no question of that in the minds of those who are familiar with his performances, but that the team will be wrecked because of his absence, as some would have us believe, is hardly possible.

By this time next week, we will have a fairly good idea of how the team is to be constituted and how it will shape up for the opening game of the season, to be played one week from Saturday if efforts of faculty Manager Woodruff to find a suitable opponent, bear fruit, or on the following Saturday, when they are booked to appear against Bowling Green on the B. G. gridiron.

Coach Ross has had only one statement to make so far and that is that he will have a team in the field that will hold its own. He refuses to be quoted as to who may make the team or to tell whom he believes are to be classed as formidable candidates.

One of the surprises of the fans will be the absence from the sidelines and from the duties of assistant coach, of "Gob" Laub, whose able assistance proved of great worth to Ross last season. Laub's handling of the second string team last year, was worthy of mention and the fellows on that squad are ready to furnish stiff competition for the regular jobs on the varsity team for the coming season, because of the fact that they learned many things, especially the value of fighting until the last whistle, from Laub.

Laub is a peculiar fellow, one who says little, but who is a bundle of nervous energy and whose greatest delight is to be the center of a fight, where the honor of the school is at stake. He drilled this idea into the minds of the youngsters last year in such a way that it will never be forgotten and wherever they are found in the future, they will be found fighting for every inch of ground that may be possible for them to gain. The fighting heart in a football game, is a thing that is as much needed as ability, and the latter is worth little without the former. Watch Fremont throughout the coming season and you will see a team that is never licked until the referee has sounded the final blast. This means that the school is to be represented by a team that will be real favorites with the fans; for all the world, especially the world of sport, loves a fighter.

PURPLE-WHITE WARRIORS TO PARADE STUFF

Opening Game of the Season Will Give Insight on Fremont's
L. B. S. Outfit

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock will find officials calling the members of the Bradner and Fremont high schools football squads to their places on the field for the opening game of the 1926 season after brief exercises in connection with the dedication of the field have been held and the battle will be on, the battle that will only terminate with the playing of the game with Sandusky on the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day at Sandusky, when the Purple and White bring their season to a close.

Bradner comes to Fremont with the reputation of having one of the strongest class B teams in northwestern Ohio, a team that went through the last season undefeated, and one that is expected by many to make the Rossman show an exceptional ability if they are to win.

With only one week in which to get the team together and in working order, Coach Ross has been working like a beaver in building up what he thinks is the best combination for the game and the starting lineup as announced this morning looks like the best combination which could be placed on the field at this time. Some of the boys are green and may not be able to hold the places given them, but a better combination would be hard to pick after the workouts to date.

The ends will be Shawl and Hasselbach, each of them capable of handling the job. Meincer and McCarthy will be the tackles, and what more could be asked? The guards will be Nasser and Colvin. These fellows are both new men on the squad, in fact they are both new at the school. Nasser is a former St. Ann's student and Colvin comes from Townsend centralized school where he was a star athlete. Both can be depended upon to hold their positions throughout the season for they have the build, the ability and the nerve which is necessary to this position.

"Bully" Jones will be at center and if this fellow fails to make the sports writers talk during the season, I will be forced to admit that I have made a bad guess. The backfield will be composed of Bowers at quarter—nuffed—Hetrick and Tucker in the half positions and Shreffler at fullback.

Among others who will probably have a chance to show their stuff during the afternoon are: Bierly and Coleman in the backfield, Wonderly, Rinehart and Althoff in the line. Althoff is sure to get into the game before the finish and Rinehart and Coleman will also probably be given a chance to perform.

What Bradner Says
Connie Clark, coach of the Bradner team, told the Messenger this morning that he expected his team to make a good showing but that he was unable to tell just what might be expected from his squad. With only three or four letter men back and with but two weeks of practice to drill the new players and get them in shape for the game, the task has been a hard one. The boys will give their best and I am hoping that they will be able to start the season with a victory over the Fremonters."

This statement by Clark should set at rest the rumors which have been floating about the city regarding the Bradner team, which many fans have stated would have the same lineup that represented the school last year. Many have had the impression that Bradner did not lose any of last year's team by graduation, but Clark stated that three, or possibly four of the letter men of last year are all that will be back this season.

The dedication exercises at the new playing field will be started promptly at 2 o'clock and will be very brief, the program calling for the playing of the Star Spangled Banner by the high school band as the flag is raised on the flag pole at the southwest corner of the field. There will be no speeches. The teams will probably line up in the following order:

Fremont	Bradner
Shawl	Garey
Right End
Meincer	Jones
Right Tackle
Nasser	Hutson
Right Guard
Jones	Beatty
Center
Colvin	Dauterman
Left Guard
McCarthy	Ault
Left Tackle
Hasselbach	Long
Left End
Fowers	Ryder
Quarterback
Shreffler	Hutson
Fullback
Hetrick	Cribbs
Left Half
Tucker	McCormick
Right Half

Substitutes for Fremont: Bierly, Wonderly, Althoff, Rinehart and Coleman. For Bradner: Keller, Jennings, Bieansky, Anderson and Rathbun.

PETCOFF WILL COACH TOLEDO U.

Toledo, Sept. 17.—Dr. Boni Petcoff former Ohio State university football star and captain of the scarlet and grey outfit two years ago, has signed to coach the Toledo university football team for the coming season. Before going to Ohio State, Petcoff was a star on the Waite high school grid team of this city. Petcoff, serving his internship at St. Vincent's hospital here, will begin work immediately with the Toledo outfit.

GRIDDERS WERE ALL LABORERS

Cincinnati, Sept. 17.—Fifty odd candidates responded Tuesday when George McLaren, football coach of University of Cincinnati, issued the first real call to football practice.

Among them were four concrete mixers, three iron workers, three boiler workers, four truck drivers, one bus chauffeur, three construction workers and 31 day laborers. Only four weighed less than 150 pounds. The majority of them were in excellent condition due to their vacation activities.

"KING FOOTBALL" MADE HIS DEBUT HERE SATURDAY

The football season was ushered in in Fremont with fine weather and it was expected that the largest opening day crowd of recent years would enter the gates of Harmon field this afternoon for the dedication of the field and the playing of the first game of the year with the Purple and White opposing the Bradner team coached by Connie Clark, who came near getting the local coaching job a couple of years ago.

Clark will be out to show the local adherents that a mistake was made when he was not taken on. Coach Ross, who got the job will be just as anxious to show that the right man was picked for the place. The Purple and White will be on the field determined to dedicate the new gridiron with a victory and should do this, although they will be forced to fight for every inch of ground.

The downtown streets were gaily decorated this morning, all of the merchants having placed flags in front of the store buildings, those who did not have the school pennants advocated by the Messenger last year, placed Old Glory in the open. The spirit of victory was in the air and everyone was hoping that the new field would be marked with a win for the locals.

OPENING GAME HARD BATTLE ON HOT DAY

Purple and White Shows Signs of Class, But Was Outplayed a Bit

Fremont — Bradner 6.

Thus ended the first tilt of the season for the Purple and White. To start with neither team showed anything on the offensive, though both were well trained in the defensive.

A lack of ability to get started around the ends caused Fremont to fail to score, more than anything else, and it was plain to be seen that the training season had not advanced to the stage where the athletes had picked up the knowledge of the game which will be necessary if they are to make a showing in L. R. K. circles during the season which opens a week from Saturday.

Connie Clark, coach of the Bradnerettes, put his dependence on four of his players. Hutson, Long, Cribbs, and Kysen, all of whom played as well as could be expected on a day as hot as was Saturday and, with only a few days training. Hutson is a big fellow who knows the game. His blocking of a punt in the last quarter would have won the game for his team, had the advantage been followed up by the right kind of play, but the opportunity was lost when a pass was attempted on a second down and the ball grounded back of the goal line.

Townsend Terrors
For Fremont there were two players who stood out. Miller, the Townsend "Terror" who in his first game and on his first play, carried the ball seven yards around left end on a beautiful play. On the next play, Miller went through center for 3 more and the fans were on their feet. Once more the ball was given to the youngster and he made a yard through center and on the next play he went around the end for a gain of two yards. From that time on, it seemed to forget that Miller was on the field, as far as the offense was concerned and he had little opportunity to show his stuff.

The other performer, who made the opposing team realize that he was present, was "Buster" Brown. If this lad plays through the season as he did Saturday, he will have to be kept in the lineup. He replaced Shreffler in the second half, and was in every play and more than once broke through to down the man with oval.

Hasselbach at left end also played a good game as did Nasser, at guard. Jones, playing center did well, considering that this was his first real game and that the training period was a short one. This fellow will be heard from.

The Old Timers

The oldtimers, Bowers, McCarthy, Meiner, and Tucker, all played as well as could be expected, especially Tucker, who was in the backfield for the first time. Brierly was in for a short time, but was forced to retire when slightly injured about the back. Althoff, Colvin, Shawl, Wonderly and Hetrick, all showed that they have the stuff and that they will be heard from as the season advances.

It looked for a few minutes after the start of the game as if the Purple and White were to run away with the visitors, when after Captain John McCarthy won the toss and chosen to defend the north goal Hutson's kickoff to Bowers on Fremont's 12 yard line was carried back to the 29 yard line before the quarter was downed. Hetrick made five around right and Bowers' pass to Shawl netted five. A pass, Bowers to Hasselbach failed and Bowers punted to Bradner's ten yard line.

On the first play, Cribbs fumbled and Nasser recovered the ball. Tucker made two through center. Bowers' pass went over the goal line and the ball went to Bradner and Fremont's chances for scoring ended. Long went around left end for twenty yards, and then made three through the line. Hutson made six on an end run after a fake pass formation. McCormick made two and Hutson, five through center, but an attempt to go around left end found "Peggy" Shreffler throwing Long for a one yard loss.

Kicking Duel

From this time on the battle was more or less one of punting as neither team was able to advance the ball consistently and with the exception of the blocking of Bowers' punt by Hutson there was little to excite the fans. Fremont completed two passes out of six attempts and Bradner two of three. The visitors were credited with five first downs and the Rosemen with four. Bradner intercepted two passes. Clark was the referee, and Dan Mathias was the umpire, and each handled their part in their usual good fashion.

The game was the first on the new field and the teams lined up, behind the high school band under the leadership of the new leader, Gerald Hoffman, in his first public appearance in a Fremont uniform. Marching across the field to the flag pole, the players stood at attention while student manager, John Birkenier, raised Old Glory to the top of the flag pole as the band played the Star Spangled Banner.

The entire outfit then marched to a position near the center of the new stand. Superintendent E. P. Schweickart in a short address to the players told them of the necessity of getting through the game of life as they would go through the game they were about to play, with a spirit of fair play.

Think of the Game

"We must think of the game and not of ourselves. That game is lost in which one member of the team seeks his own glory. The unity of all for a single cause, each playing his part for the general, end is the condition without which no game is won. Chivalry, the surrender of self, obedience to the law, that holds the team together—these things grow naturally with every game we play, and we should cherish them as a part of ourselves. We should be staunch and true, our comrades must be able to rely on us." Mr. Schweickart said, "if we are loyal to our team, to our school, we shall be loyal to our town and to our country. The very beginnings of patriotism lie in our games."

Close to one thousand fans were inside the grounds when the game started, with many being present from Fifth, Sandusky, Port Clinton and Toledo. In the latter delegation were a number of Waite high players headed by the former Fremont star, Kenney Hawk.

Coach Ross made a short address to the players before they took the field telling them that they were honored by being selected to play in the first game on the new field and that he expected every man to give his best. "There is no harder work than football," he said, "don't forget that. Go out and do the best you can and uphold the colors of the school above all go out and show that you can play the game."

The teams lined up as follows:

Fremont	Bradner
Shawl	Garoy
	Right End
Meiner	Jones
	Right Tackle
Colvin	Hutton
	Right Guard
Jones	Beatty
	Center
Nasser	Dauterman

Shreffler	Cribbs
	Left Half
	Hutson
	Full Back

Substitutions: Miller for Hetrick, Brierly for Colvin, Althoff for Shawl, Wonderly for Nasser, Brown for Shreffler, Keller for Beatty.

JACK BETTER STAY IN HIS OWN BACKYARD

Bridgeport, Conn., Sept. 20.—Jack Delaney of Bridgeport, world champion light heavyweight, Saturday announced that he would have a ring-side seat on the night of the Dempsey-Tunney fight in Philadelphia and would challenge the winner of the heavyweight battle.

BIG CONTEST TO BE BROADCAST

New York, Sept. 20.—Following publication here Saturday of dispatches that the Dempsey-Tunney fight would not be radio broadcast and that Tex Rickard would prohibit newspaper or other press agencies from putting their reports on the air, there was a commotion among seagull officials.

Before nightfall Rickard announced that the situation had changed and that the fight would be broadcast from the ringside with no broadcasting gag on newspapers.

"Mr. Rickard has sold the radio rights to an unnamed concern," his representative said. "The sum and the name of the station will be announced Monday. The purchaser of the rights desires to remain incognito for the present. Mr. Rickard can only say that the broadcasting will be on a long wave."

DUFFY AND MACK HAVE DISAGREED

Johnny Datto, the famous Filipino now fighting out of Cleveland, has been matched to meet Chuck Feldman in the 12-round main event of the Toledo Athletic club show at the Armory Thursday night.

Feldman was scheduled to fight Jack Duffy, but the clever Irishman had a disagreement with his manager Eddie Mack, and refused to fight Feldman.

A short time after Matchmaker Joe Duffley was notified that Duffy refused to fight, he got in touch with the manager of Datto and signed this feared hitter.

Feldman says he would rather meet Datto than Duffy, that he will be able to stop around and out-box Datto and that he can fight Datto when in close. The bout offers more possibilities than did the Duffy-Feldman fight, and it is Chuck's biggest chance of his fight career. If he can get by Datto, he should be able to step along with the best of the boys in his class.

Tickets were to go on sale Saturday at the usual places at $1 and 75c.

GOT THEIR WIRES A BIT CROSSED

The statement in a Toledo paper a few days ago, in which the Elmore baseball team claimed the championship of "Ottawa County," whatever that means, has caused considerable discussion among local fans, who may also be aware that the White Plumbers, they were in turn beaten by the Standard Garage team, which also defeated Port Clinton and Opa-sum during the season. It is possible that the argument may result in a game being scheduled between

FREMONT GRID TEAM OFF TO BOWLING GREEN

At 11:15 o'clock this morning coach Bunk Ross and the members of the Fremont high school football squad boarded a bus and the 26 mile trip to Bowling Green where the Purple and White are to play this afternoon, was started. A heavy rain was falling as the boys started on their journey but this was not to interfere with the playing of the game according to Ross who stated that the Wood county school officials had said this morning that the game would be played regardless of weather conditions.

WOOD COUNTY DELEGATION WINS 13 TO 0

Fremonters Stage Warm Contest, But Are Lacking in Needed Experience

(By J. A. M.)

The purple and white of Fremont high school went down to defeat at the hands and feet of the Bowling Green squad Saturday afternoon, but they suffered no disgrace in the loss. The men of the "House of Ross" showed the stuff which is going to make them a feared team in L. B. S. circles before the end of the season, and the scarlet and gray of Wood county had no cinch in taking the game. The score was 13 to 0.

The teams fought to a scoreless tie at the end of the first half and had gone four minutes of the second half before the big B. G. team was given an opportunity of crossing the goal line.

Gordon, B. G. halfback, got away on an end run and went through the entire team before he was downed on the two yard line. The next play found Lowell taking the ball across on a plunge. He failed to kick the goal.

The play was a fake that caused some of the Fremonters to fail to remember to follow the ball and Gordon almost ran over one of the ends who thought the ball was on the other side of the field. Lack of experience and nothing else was the reason for the Fremonters letting the speedy Gordon get away with the play.

A few minutes later this same Gordon took the ball and ran, twisted, turned and squirmed his way through the opposition and crossed the line, the ball tucked under his arm, with the entire Fremont squad in pursuit. Again it was a lack of experience that made the play possible, for Gordon's interference could and would have been broken up if they had been properly tackled.

A Big Hole

Miller, who went into the game in the second half, failed to get away with three attempted end runs because of a weakness in the right side of the line which presented a hole which half of the B. G. team went through. Each time Miller was given the ball he was nailed in his tracks before he had had a chance to get away on the play and any football fan will tell you that in a case of this kind the fellow with the ball is not to blame.

The Ross men made five first downs against a total of thirteen for the home town boys. One pass was completed by Fremont out of seven tries, and that would have been good for a touchdown if the youngster who made the catch had had the experience to make him realize that it is necessary to run after a catch is made.

An Improvement

Those who saw the team against the Bradner squad cannot realize the improvement made during the week which has elapsed since that game. The team Saturday was in there fighting from start to finish and the heavier B. G. outfit had their hands full in handling them. A fumble in the first half as the team neared the opposing goal line, is all that kept them from scoring for they were making steady gains.

If the coaches can teach the boys as much during the coming week as they were taught during the last week, Lorain will have to step if they are to have the victory which they are already counting as having been won. The Bowling Green backfield was filled with speed and their line was one that will stop many of their opponents during the season.

NOTES

Bernard Hughes, Ralph Gust, Curly and Bob Racktenwald, Glenn Clark, Eppy Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Over were seen in the stands at the game. They all did their duty when it came to cheering the team on its way.

Miller learned a lesson that will stay with him as long as he plays the game, when near the close of the first half, as he was sent in to replace Hetrick. He hopped on the field and went at once to Captain McCarthy and reported. Referee West penalized the team the usual 15 yards and the ball was on the 8 yard line as a result when the whistle ended the half.

Did Johnny McCarthy make a beautiful flying tackle? Ask the Fremonters who were present. Lowell, the flashy full back, had started an end run and Johnny was the last to near him and what a dive he made. Lowell hit the dirt with a thud that was heard across the field.

Puggy Shreffler made several nice gains but was taken from the game for failing to tackle properly and running with his head too high in the air. Shreffler will learn these little things and then his name will be mentioned around the circuit.

Buster Brown could not keep out of the game. On the sidelines in his "civies," he grabbed a megaphone and acted as cheer leader for the few Fremonters present. That's the spirit, Buster.

Schweickart, Hudson and Woodruff. There's a combination of good fellows, fellows. In that second half when Bowling Green went across for the first touchdown, they were a sad looking outfit. They give the locals credit for making a hard fight, all that can be expected from anyone.

Gordon, Floyd, Lowell and Williamson in the backfield, for the Bowling Green team, make a combination that will cause a lot of trouble during the season. Gordon knows his stuff and the others are not far behind.

While defeated at the hands of the Lorain gridders Saturday afternoon at Harmon Field, the Purple and White of Fremont were not disgraced, for it played a game that will cause the others schools of the Little Big Seven league to sit up and take notice, one that will bring the team more than one victory before the end of the season, and one that pleased the fans who were in attendance.

In the past it has been customary to go to the playing field with the impression that Fremont was to be beaten by several touchdowns, and many of the fans went out with that idea Saturday afternoon. They were agreeably surprised when the visitors were held to one line touchdown in the first half, which was due to a fumble that was excusable. From that period until the last quarter was nearly over, Fremont kept the Lavender and White from crossing the line.

The Kick-off

The game as it was played: Bowers kicked off and Kelsier falls with the ball without making a gain. On two successive plays Fremont stopped the opposition without a gain and on the third down with 16 yards to go, O'Toole kicks to Bowers on Fremont's 26-yard line, and the ball is recovered by Lorain on Fremont's 20. Kelsier failed on two plays, and a pass is out of bounds on the 17-yard line, and the ball goes to Fremont.

Bierly makes seven on an end run, and Bowers makes it a first down. Three plays fail to bring any gain, and Bowers kicks out of danger. A pass, O'Toole to Flynn, is incomplete. Kisel goes through tackle for four. Houff goes around left end for 15 yards. Kelsier goes through the line for five, O'Toole makes 4 1/2 through tackle, and Kelsier makes it first down by going through for four. Houff failed to gain, and O'Toole went through center for 10 and Kelsier made the touchdown by going through center. O'Toole kicks the goal.

O'Toole Kicks

O'Toole kicks off to Nasser, who ran the ball back five yards before being downed. Bowers' pass to Kelsier was too high and was incomplete. Another pass, Bowers to Hasselbach, was grounded. Bowers punted to Houff, who was downed by McCarthy. Kisel fails to gain and Kelsier tumbled for a three-yard loss and O'Toole kicks to Bowers, who carries the ball back. Bierly gained a half yard and then thrown for a one-yard loss as the quarter ends.

Bowers punted to start the second period, and O'Toole gets back six yards when the tackle is poorly made. Kelsier gets seven through right tackle, Houff gets one, and Kelsier makes it first down by carrying the ball for 11 yards.

O'Toole went through center for a yard. Kelsier gets six and Kisel loses five when he tumbled the ball. Kelsier makes five, and on a pass, O'Toole to Houff, the ball is fumbled but is recovered by Lorain. Another pass is grounded and the ball goes to Fremont on Lorain's 36-yard line.

Baster Brown

Bowers makes two yards and Brown's end run nets 6 1/2. Bowers makes it first down by making a yard. McCarthy went through center for four and followed it with another for three. Hetrick made a yard for first down. Bowers went through center for three, and McCarthy makes a yard, and Bowers punted 16 yards to Houff. A pass, O'Toole to Flynn, is grounded. Kelsier gets three, and another pass is fumbled and recovered by Melner.

Bowers' pass to Hetrick was grounded. Hetrick makes a yard. Brown carries the ball outside and it goes to Lorain when punted. Kelsier fails to make a gain and Houff also fails. Lorain is offside and is penalized five yards. O'Toole punts 60 yards to Fremont six-yard line. Bowers fails to gain as the gun sounds for the end of the half.

O'Toole kicks off to Calvin and Fremont has the ball on the 40-yard line. Bowers loses two. Brown makes five, and five more is added on a penalty. Bierly goes around right end for 20, and McCarthy makes 4 1/2.

Bowers fails to gain and Bierly is thrown for a four-yard loss. Bowers punted to O'Toole on his own 22-yard line. O'Toole gets 4 1/2, Kelsier 2 1/2, and O'Toole gets away for 24 yards. Houff fails to gain. Kisel loses a yard when thrown by Melner. O'Toole gets five and then punts 20 yards to Bowers.

A pass, Bowers to Shawl, is grounded, and Bierly is thrown for a six-yard loss. Bowers punts to O'Toole and time is taken out for the latter when he is downed after carrying the ball back eight yards. O'Toole's pass to Flynn is grounded by Bierly. Kelsier gets five, and Kisel two. O'Toole punted to Bowers. McCarthy lost three, Bowers gains three, and Bierly seven. Bowers punts to O'Toole out of bounds on Lorain's 44.

Passes Fail

O'Toole passed to Houff, but it is grounded. Kelsier gets through for 4, and O'Toole makes a yard. Bowers takes O'Toole's punt on the 35-yard line.

A pass, Bowers to Bierly, nets 10 yards. Another pass to Shawl is grounded. Bowers to Bierly gains seven yards. Bierly gets a yard, and the ball goes to Lorain. Kelsier gets four, Kisel makes 12. Uhjhele goes through center for 13, Kelsier gets five the same way. Kisel and Uhjhele each fail to gain and Lorain is penalized five yards. O'Toole's pass to Flynn failed and the ball goes to Fremont.

Bierly loses a yard and Bowers punts to Uhjhele. Uhjhele makes three and Kelsier gets 4 1/2, and then makes it first down with a yard. Uhjhele gets four, Kisel one, and Kelsier gets first down. Kelsier goes through for five, Uhjhele for three, and Kelsier is stopped. Kisel also fails. Bowers punts. A pass, O'Toole to Flynn, is good for 22 yards. Uhjhele gets five, and Kelsier goes over for a touchdown. Uhjhele gets the extra point.

The Captain Shines

Kisel kicks to McCarthy who carries the ball back 15 yards. A pass, Bowers to Althoff, is grounded. Another to Hetrick goes the same way. Bowers punted to Lorain's 40. Wolfe gains 5. Uhjhele is stopped, and Lorain is penalized 15 for holding. Briggs gets four and O'Toole punts 25 as the gun sounds for the end of the fray.

Bierly was the star for Fremont, and Kelsier is credited with the stellar role for Lorain. Twelve hundred fans sat in the stands and stood about the field during the game.

NORWALK WINS DECISION AFTER TORRID CONTEST

Fremont Played Hard and Well—
Purple and White Needs a
Booter of Class

Fremont high's hopes of getting out of the basement of the Little Big Seven organization and enjoying a bit of the air on an upper strata, was given a rude jolt Saturday when the Ross men slipped a cog at Norwalk and went down under a count of 8 and 0, after a fairly good game of the national excitement, now that the world's series has been parked for the season.

Fremont confidently expected to ease over a victory in this contest, but it was Bobby Burns, great old Scot, who was an all-world halfback when it came to pushing poetry over for a touchdown, who said: "The best laid plans of mice and men," etc. Eight and nothing in football is a low score but it also counts just as much as 100 and 0, on the winning side of the ledger, and there you are.

Backed by their hand and a large crowd of rooters, the purple- and white crew arose to great heights at times and had the blower down in the Maple City depths to a fearsome extent, but they lacked the push to shove it over.

Those who saw the game and those who have seen previous games this season, are said to be unanimous in the idea that Fremont high needs a booter who can get distance on the ball. Were this the case, it is said, one or two of the games lost would have been over on the right side. The Fremont team is a sizeable crew and it plays with pep and dash, but something is lacking and it may be just this one thing—punting.

Notre Dame, Michigan, Dartmouth would not have the grid standing that they enjoy at this time despite the fact that they can pass, kick, run and display generalship, if they had poor booters in the punting department. There is nothing like a boot to get a team out of danger and a good booter often times gains ground for his team on the exchanges.

Fremont high has improved in every game and they still hope to end the season with a creditable showing. The city is pulling for them and here's hoping some more.

The Scoring

Here's how the counting was done in the Saturday defeat:

Hornsby's A

By James A. (Jimmie) Murphy

Well, it is all over and the Cards have proved themselves to be the better team, and I can add another to the list of winners picked in the annual fall classic of the baseball world. I said at the start that they would win and as the games went on, and it seemed that defeat was certain, I still held my belief because I felt that they were the better ball team, which I think will be admitted by every fan in the nation.

I said before the series that they were the better ball team and for that reason picked them to take the measure of the Yanks and carry the world title to the banks of the Missouri. The records of the teams, man for man, showed them to be the better team and it is usually the case that the better team wins in the world series or in any other series.

I have been "razed" to a certain extent during the playing of the games, but there was no comeback, for I had picked them to win and it looked to many fans as though they would fall to come through, so I took it. Now it is my turn, and to a few of the wildest supporters of the Yanks I am going to say good naturedly—Flick 'em right, then the loud talk won't bother so much. Enough of and Bowers fell on the ball for a safety. In the last quarter, Halfback Diamond of Norwalk, started to encircle the Fremont left end. He found himself blocked, picked a new hole, cut through tackle and raced 40 yards for a touchdown. Attempt for point after touchdown failed.

Fremont showed good ground gaining ability late in the second quarter and again in the waning minutes of the last quarter.

Norwalk threatened to push over a touchdown in the second quarter, but with the ball inside the Fremont five-yard line, three line smashes failed to take it over. Bilton blocked five Fremont punts.

SHOW POWERFUL ATTACK AGAINST STRONG FOEMEN

Score 20 and 6—Bowers Races 50
Yards for Touchdown—
Entire Team Stars

That bit of a jacking up that Coach Ross gave his charges following the game with Norwalk last Saturday, seems to have done the F. H. S. grid-ders a world of good. As a result of the grilling (most football coaches are compelled to give the boys a barking several times a year) the purple and white went out yesterday, saw red and administered a black and blue licking to their foemen from Defiance. The score after the folks stopped the run-away team from Fremont was 20 to 6. Fremont outplayed and outgeneraled the home town cadets and won their first victory of the season. Who said that the Fremont contingent couldn't score touchdowns?

Who is the gent who, perched on high, warbled that the local outfit would not be able to win a game this season?

Where is the gang of sideline minglers that remarked that the Croghan street battlers did not have the punch, push and the power?

"Push 'em out, Tony!" is the cry of the New York stadium fans when Tony Lazarric, Yank's slugging Italian second sacker, takes his stance at the bat.

"Push 'em over, Butchie!" can now very well be the battle song of the Fremont high rooters. "Butch" Bowers purple and white's chunky backfield star, having come into his own in the Friday game. Bowers, according to reports, galloped hither and yon and was harder to catch than a flea in red flannels. He galloped 50 yards through a broken field for one of his counts after hatching right smack-dab on a fumbled ball. "Butch" also scored Fremont's first touchdown of the season when he went over the chalk after a series of line plays that swept the boys from the scene of "Mad Anthony" Wayne's exploits off their well-known feet and piled them deeper into the muck of defeat.

The entire Fremont team played bang-up ball and the figures show that they made 15 first downs to 10 by Defiance, and most certainly deserved to win.

Defiance, after Coach Ross had shoved in a lot of his seconds, started a passing attack that developed late in the contest, and scored a touchdown for the home contingent. A heave by Chapline connected with Hohenberger and the later went over for a counter.

The honor of making Fremont's other touchdown in the game fell to Pat Hetrick, a clever halfback.

Played in Mud

The field of battle was on the order of a swamp and the footing was as insecure as sprinting in bread dough.

The entire Fremont outfit played bang-up ball all the way and, in the future, there are one or two teams in the Little Big Seven that better have a close, look for a cyclone is developing on Harmon Field and it's liable to blow down a lot of grid hopes for some other teams.

Coach Ross lined up his team as follows at the start of Friday's game, and it looks like the ideal combination: Ends—Wonderly and Binkley; tackles—Meinzer and Capt. McCarthy; guards—Coleman and Tucker; center—Reinhart; quarterback—Bierly; halfbacks, Hetrick and Shreffler; fullback—Bowers.

LEON FLORES TO MEET DOUG GRAY IN LOCAL SHOW

Famous Spanish Sheikh to Appear as Headliner in Co. B Show

Matchmaker C. V. Vidler, popular lieutenant with Co. B, 148th Infantry, is just about set to announce the full extent of the card that will entertain the boxing fans of this section at the Fremont theatre on Wednesday, Oct. 27. This show, conducted under the auspices of the Fremont military company, will consist of 28 rounds of boxing at popular prices and it should have the S. O. S. sign out early.

The main go will bring on Doug Gray, Fremont's best boxing bet, against a highly touted opponent, Leon Flores of San Antonio, Texas. Leon, one of the real, classy bantam-weights of the game, is a lad of Spanish descent and he is called the sheik of the hempen circle, even out-sheik-ing Sammy Mandell, boss of the light-weights.

Flores is located in Detroit. He is one of the Chesterfields and the Beau Nashes of the ring, coming into battle with red ring shoes, pink trunks and his black hair plastered down like a fresh coat of tar.

In this lad, Gray will find a foeman worthy of his steel and they should have it hot and heavy. Flores has met a lot of good boys, among them Ward Sparks, who battled Carl Tremaine of Cleveland, recently.

Gray and Flores will work ten rounds at 122 and they'll be three-minute rounds, too.

This final bout is a wiz and is well worth anybody's time and attention. It is a main go any place, as both boys are in great demand. Gray is training daily and is in the best condition of his spectacular career. He showed his stuff by taking on the tough "Midget Mike" Moran on short notice and beating him in eight rounds.

The semi-final will consist of a six-round clash between "Watty" Wasserman of Fremont, and Jack Clifford, a good boy from Toledo. Wasserman has been idle for several months but he is rounding into form and will be fit to take on the best the Toledoan can offer. They will mingle at 155 pounds.

Three other four round bouts between good performers will also be on the card.

This show is attracting lots of notice and is deserving of good support.

SEMI-PRO GRID SEASON TO OPEN HERE TOMORROW

It is assured that a goodly sized crowd of football fans will be on hand Sunday afternoon to see the Rainbow Garden A. C. football team make its debut in local circles. Perrysburg has been selected as the opposition on this occasion and a real game of the semi-pro sport is expected. Perrysburg has a habit of putting Showing an offensive that, if continued, will cause Oberlin, Elvira and Sandusky to realize that they have met a football team, the purple and white of Fremont, Saturday afternoon won their first conference victory of the season. They ran up 20 points against Bellevue while holding the veterans to 1 in a game that was a thriller from the first kickoff until the sound of the gun ended hostilities for the day.

Bierly, Shreffler and Bowers are credited with the scoring of the points for Fremont and McClintock and Captain Stark for Bellevue, the latter kicking the goal after the quarterback had crossed the line on a sneak in the second quarter after the ball had been carried on plunges, passes and penalties to the Fremont six-inch line.

The first score was counted three minutes after the bell had been kicked to Captain Johnny McCarthy by Stark, when Bierly took a pass from Bowers and raced 20 yards while pandemonium broke loose in the stands, as the spectators realized that Fremont had scored. When Bowers kicked the goal a moment later the feeling of victory spread among the crowd, and only once thereafter was there any indication that anyone in the stands was not perfectly satisfied that Fremont had the better team, that being in the second period when Bellevue knotted the count.

Fremont had the ball and was marching steadily down the field, Bowers having made two and then eight, Shreffler two, Bierly ten and Bowers another four. Then Hetrick slipped and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Bellevue on Fremont's 33 yard line. On the first play, Leininger replaced Moore for the visitors and got into action at once by taking a pass from Redd that netted 12 yards. Another pass was tried but failed and Fremont was penalized for interfering with the passer. Leininger made another 12 and then went through for five more on another pass from Redd and the ball was on the six-inch line. The next play failed to gain an inch, but McClintock, shifty quarter for the red and white, sneaked it across and Stark kicked the goal, tying the score.

Locals Aroused

The scoring of the Bellevue touchdown seemed to arouse the locals and with but four minutes of play left in the half they started out to reach the goal line before the gun would sound. McCarthy took the ball on the kick from Redd and a pass to Bierly by Bowers was good for 25 yards. A pass to Hetrick fell short, another to Shreffler failed, and then Bierly decided to carry the ball himself and went around left end. Another pass from Bowers to Bierly was good for 25 yards and the crowd was in a frenzy, closely watching the timers with the gun ready to fire. The ball was on the Bellevue ten yard line and Bowers made five of the distance on the first play and followed with two more. Hetrick made one and then Fuggy Shreffler was given the oval which he planted behind the line for six more points in a beautiful plunge through the Bellevue line. The goal was missed by Bowers and the count was Fremont 13, Bellevue 7. Bowers kicked off to Leininger as the gun sounded.

The second half started with Redd kicking to Tucker, who made a nice return before he was dropped. Hetrick made five, Shreffler one, Bowers four, Hetrick nine on an end run, Bierly eight, and Bowers tore off five more. Shreffler made another yard and Bierly shot through the entire Bellevue team for 15 yards to be stopped on the two-yard line. On the next play, the tow-headed butcher boy, Powers, went over and then kicked the goal and the count was changed to Fremont 20, Bellevue 7.

Bellevue Threatens

On two occasions thereafter Bellevue threatened when they were aided by penalties and some wonderful passing. With the ball on the Fremont 40, the locals were penalized 25 yards for clipping and Bowers punted to Moore and the ball was again in Bellevue's possession on the Fremont 40. Redd passed to Mason for 12, two more passes failed and then Fremont drew another penalty of half the distance to the goal line. An end run by Redd failed to gain an inch and a plunge by him was also fruitless. An attempt to place kick from the 39 yard line by Stark was without results. The ball went to Fremont and Bierly made ten but the ball was called back and the team penalized five yards for offside. Bowers punted to McClintock on Fremont's 22. Redd lost a yard on the first play and then passed to McClintock for a gain of 30 yards, which put the ball on the Fremont two-yard line. Right here came the prettiest exhibition of defense seen on the local grounds in many a day for four attempts by the visitors failed to net a yard and the ball went to Fremont and Bowers dropped back and sent it flying down the field and away from the danger line.

Exchanged Punts

An exchange of punts left the ball in the possession of Bellevue and a pass, Redd to McClintock, gained seven yards just as the timers fired the gun which ended the fray.

While Bowers, Shreffler and Bierly are credited with scoring the points, the play of "Nell" Tucker stood out in a manner that is worthy of the highest praise. Hetrick also played a while of a game, as did practically every member of the team.

Leininger was the bright light for the red and white, although Redd, Stark, Wood and Mason must share the honors for the losers. Zehner left the field with a badly injured ankle, having been forced from the game in the last quarter, when the injury occurred.

Fremont will make plenty of trouble for the rest of the season and the other teams in the L. B. S. may as well make up their minds that the team which piled up the highest score made against the Bellevue squad this season, will give them all a battle from now until Thanksgiving day when they will go to Sandusky to take the measure of the "Men of Moore" on their own field.

HUNDREDS MARCH ON STREETS TO MUSIC OF BAND

Snake Dance and Other Features
Displayed in Big Turnout
Friday Night

Fremont high school is back on the map of athletics. Whether or not the football team wins or loses in the Oberlin game today, the school is back of them. A spirit that has been lacking for sometime has taken hold on the students, a demonstration of the fact having been staged last night when several hundred boys and girls, left the school building about eight o'clock, headed by the school band playing Sousa's El Capitan march paraded through the downtown streets.

An old fashioned snake dance in which it seemed that every high school student in the city participated attracted the attention of those who were in the business district. As the band played and the students drilled back and forth across the streets, the school yells ringing out on the night air, pedestrians gave way, motorists stopped their machines to watch the antics of the youngsters, and even the staid city fathers were forced to recess as the marchers passed the city hall.

In other days, students at the school used to do these things, at least the boys did, while the girls stood on the walks, and cheered them. The 1926 girls don't believe in standing by and doing nothing but cheer, they are active, they believe in doing their bit and last night were found in the midst of the demonstration, in fact the leaders of the snake dance were the girls, the boys bringing up the rear.

Preceding the affair the students had met at the school in a regular "pep" meeting at which the yells to be used in the game today were practiced. The team is assured of united support today from the students, and it is expected that the fathers and mothers will be out in force.

PURPLE-WHITE AGGREGATION AT TOP SPEED

Entire Team Resolved to Finish
High in League Race—
After Sandusky, Too

By J. A. M.

Fremont at Elyria is the next big game of the L. B. S. schedule, these teams meeting on the Elyria field on Saturday afternoon of this week. The chances of each of the teams to finish with a high standing at the close of the season depends to a great extent on the showing to be made in this game and as a result each of the outfits can be expected to play all the football they are capable of playing.

Fremont, encouraged by the showing against the Oberlin team in the game played at Harmon field last Saturday, is expected to put in a hard week, working on the Elyria plays as seen through the eyes of Scout "Gob" Laub at Norwalk Saturday, when the former ran away with the crippled aggregation of the Maple City crew. Early in the season Norwalk looked like the pennant winners, but which was disrupted by an alleged liking for moonshine liquor by members of the squad, which resulted in the sentencing of one player to a term in the state reformatory, and the dismissal of six members of the squad.

Elyria has a much heavier aggregation than has Fremont, but the Purple and White is thought to have an excellent chance of winning their encounter with the Elyrians, who have been beaten but once this season, and that at the hands (or feet) of Sandusky, which has won only one other contest, that with Bellevue last Saturday.

Real Football

Showing the same brand of football against Elyria as they did against Oberlin, the Rossmen will put up a fight that should cause a lot of trouble for the E. H. S. squad in the coming game. Those who think a victory is out of the question for the locals, were not present at the game against Oberlin, for at that time the team showed an offensive and a defensive that should carry them far.

Elyria depends almost entirely upon an aerial attack and that kind of a game has failed to result in great gains for the opposition this year excepting upon the one occasion in the Oberlin game when Hamlin shot a pass to Power which resulted in the single score by the visitors.

Bellevue came to Fremont with a reputation as a passing team, yet they failed to make any substantial gains by the aerial route, the locals either preventing the receiver from reaching the ball or grounding the pass before it reached its objective.

The big game of the season for the local school will be, of course, the Thanksgiving day affair at Sandusky, when these ancient rivals meet in the windup contest of the year in the L. B. S. Everything that is being done at the school is in anticipation of this game. To win from Sandusky will make a success of the Fremont season, but that is not to be taken to mean that an effort will not be made to trim Elyria.

Three games remain on the local schedule, that with Elyria, the Fostoria game one week from Saturday, and the Sandusky game which will be played in the resort city.

GET THE JUMP ON ROSSMEN IN EARLY CONTEST

After Recovering from Shock,
Fremont Plays Rivals to a Complete Standstill

For four minutes of play after the opening of the game at Elyria Friday afternoon, the Fremont high school football team was outplayed by the Elyrians, two touchdowns and one point after goal being scored during that time. From then on, however, it was a different story, with the Purple and White holding their opponents in check.

The final score, which was 13 to 0, fails to tell the story of the game, for the Rossmen played a battle that was worthy of better results. A wet and ruddy field and a slippery ball resulted in the blocking of punts and fumbles, which were costly to the chances of the locals.

A blocked punt on the Fremont 30 yard line gave the ball to Elyria and Hess got away for a 15 yard run, which took him over the goal line for the first touchdown. Hess kicked the goal. The second count came when a fumble on an attempted punt gave the ball to Elyria on almost the same mark. After three attempts to advance the ball with a gain of about three yards, Ucha stepped back and passed the ball over the line to Mastin, who made a pretty catch. Hess failed to kick the goal.

A Sea of Mud

The field was a sea of mud and the locals, having been delayed in reaching the field, had little time to become acquainted with conditions when time for play was called. The result was that they started the game without any preliminary warmup and before they got started, the game was lost.

The last quarter showed the fighting qualities of the team, for in that period they held the Elyrians inside the three yard stripe on three occasions when, with four downs to make the necessary distance, advancement of the ball failed, through the efforts of Capt. Johnny McCarthy's crew to break up the plays shot at them.

Gets the Credit

Archanbeau should be given much of the credit for keeping Fremont from advancing the ball, for his punting was the real feature of the game, his efforts far outdoing those of Bowers, who was handicapped by the heavy, wet ball and the muddy field, with which he was not familiar.

Coach Ross, while he hoped to see a victory chalked up yesterday, was satisfied with the work of the team and said this morning that every man on the team played a good game. To Bowers, Hetrick, McCarthy, Meincer and Brown he gave exceptional praise. "Brown, he said, played a wonderful defensive game, while the others showed up well all the way through.

It was a hard game to lose, Ross said, because of the fact that the boys were unable to get warmed up before being forced to take the field, but, he added, the boys did the best they could under the circumstances and that is all that could be expected from them.

GREAT STRUGGLE EXPECTED WHEN ELEVEN'S BATTLE

Fostoria Has Several Star Men and They Expect to Beat Fremont; Can They?

By James A. (Jimmie) Murphy
Everything is set for the Fremont-Fostoria battle at Harmon Field tomorrow afternoon, when it is expected that the biggest crowd of the season will wend its way along Rawson avenue and to the playing field. Two evenly matched teams are to meet in combat that will be worthy of praise regardless of the winner and loser.

Fostoria is coming to Fremont to win the game, of that there is no doubt. Fremont is going to the field with the expectation of trouncing their opponents in a way that will more than make up for the defeat suffered at the hands of the Red and Black a year ago on the Fostoria field.

There are three players in the lineup of the visitors who will bear watching from the start of the game until the finish, although one of them may not be seen at the start of the game, but who is certain to be rushed out to notify the referee that he is to replace someone if occasion for a drop kick or a field goal seems to be the proper play. Kiser is the young man's name, and he is said to be somewhat proficient in the art of lifting the pigskin over the bars when such emergencies arise. The others are Gorrell and Shebel, both backfield men of more than the usual ability.

In the Elyria game these fellows were given credit by Elyria sports writers with being the stars of the team, and all were credited with playing heads-up football, which means that they were in the game all of the time they were on the field.

A Real Captain, Too

Anderson, the captain, plays an end and he is said to be the equal of several L. B. S. players at this position. Powell is another man who has been given credit during the season for the manner in which he has handled the team on the field.

Ross will start the same team which started against Elyria, and if they play the same kind of ball they have been showing in recent weeks then—good night, Fostoria! That Fremont backfield is one that is to be feared at all times and by all opponents. Bowers will do his share and Bierly can be expected to call signals and to step through the opposition as he has been doing all season.

Then, Buster Brown must not be forgotten, this youngster being in the game up to his eyebrows every minute from the time the whistle blows until the gun has sounded for the finish, and it makes no difference to him whether or not the team is leading or trailing, he fights for every advantage. Hetrick and Shreffler, these are the other two who will be called upon to fill the backfield and either of them will prove satisfactory if used.

Hold That Line

In the line, Captain Johnny McCarthy, Johnny Meincer, Nell Tucker, Shawl, Wonderly, Rinehart and Bob Freeh will force the opposition to realize that they have something to pass before they get away.

Fostoria plays a passing game, and the three backs mentioned above are the fellows who will have to be watched all of the time, for they are said to be clever in getting away with the aerial game.

To some of the fellows on the local team there may be much depending upon the contest tomorrow, for the proper showing in this game and the one with Sandusky may mean the selection for the captaincy of the team for the 1927 season. The election does not depend upon this, of course, but a special spurt on the part of any of the candidates may mean just enough votes when the time comes, to send the honor to any of them. Fremont should win. The referee will be Jack Reeder of Toledo, former Dartmouth star.

First Victory Ever Scored Over
Fostoria—Fremont on Edge
For Big Sandusky Game

BY J. A. M.

Nothing is impossible for the Fremont high school footballers from now on, for a Fostoria team went down to defeat Saturday, the first time in the history of the schools that this has occurred. Although outweighed the purple and white stepped around in the mud as though they were on the driest of dry fields, and some of the most spectacular playing seen on the local lot this season was the result. The field was a regular quagmire.

Fostoria won the toss and chose to kick off to Fremont, the latter defending the south goal. Bowers kicked off to Seever on the latter's ten yard stripe and the ball was carried back to the 32. Shebel went through center for 3 and Gorrell made a yard. He then decided to punt and kicked to the Fremont 41.

On the first play Bowers tore off 4 yards and Shreffler followed with 2 more. Rinehart's pass to Brown who was to have carried the ball, was a little low and to one side and the receiver missed the ball entirely, but made a beautiful recovery. The loss was 17 yards and Bowers was forced to punt on the next play, the ball being downed on the Fostoria 45.

Gorrell went around left end for 5 and Shebel tore off another for the first down of the game. Gorrell was nailed on the next try and lost two yards. The first pass of the game was then tried, but Kiser failed to get under the toss from Gorrell. Gorrell then tried a run around right end but failed to make a gain and was forced to punt, the ball going 30 yards to Bowers on his own 21.

Bowers Rips Line

Bowers went through the line for 3 and then punted to the Fostoria 45. Seever got a yard and Shebel another. Gorrell sent another pass, this time to Walters and the shot was good for a gain of 15 yards. Kiser fumbled and lost 6, Gorrell made 2 and a pass to Kiser was grounded by Bowers. Gorrell then punted back to the goal line.

At this juncture the Fremonters decided to start playing football and after Bowers had gone off tackle for 2 yards, Bierly took the ball and galloped away for a run of 45 yards during which, with the aid of some beautiful interference by Captain Johnny McCarthy, he passed almost the entire Fostoria team. Seever finally brought him down. Bowers made five but it was not allowed, Fremont being offside and drawing a penalty. Bowers shot through for 3, Brown did the same and Bierly added 4. A pass from Bowers to Bierly on the fourth down netted 10 yards and the ball was on the Fostoria 19 yard line. Bowers went through center for a yard, then made another after slipping in the slimy mud as he started. Once more he went for a single yard as the quarter ended.

With the start of the second period Bowers dropped back to the 21 yard line and with Bierly holding the ball, sent it flying straight and true through the center of the goal posts and directly over the cross bar for a field goal and the score was Fremont 3 Fostoria 0.

Fostoria Comes Close

The balance of the half was unexciting, although Fostoria came dangerously near scoring when Hetrick let a punt get away from him after having it in his hands and Captain Anderson fell on it on the 15 yard line, being unable to get through. Kiser was sent back to attempt to duplicate the feat of Bowers using a drop kick as the method. The ball was wet and soggy and the attempt was a failure. The kick was blocked and Fostoria recovered. A few seconds later Kiser again attempted to tie the score via the kick from placement, but once more he failed. Bierly grabbed the ball from the air and racing to the Fostoria 31 yard line. The half ended soon thereafter with Bowers tearing off three yards for a first down.

The balance of the period was rather slow with neither side being able to gain much advantage. About the close of the quarter, Bowers went through the entire Fostoria team for a gain of 30 yards. A succession of plays at the start of the last period carried the ball to the Fostoria one yard stripe where, after Bierly had tried three times to get it across, Bowers was called upon and crossed the line for the first touchdown. Bowers missed the goal kick.

Miller Gains

Miller who had replaced Hetrick, with Bierly and Bowers had made a couple of gains when Bowers, catching the visitors off their guard shot a pass to Bierly and the latter went 36 yards for another touchdown. Bowers this time kicked the goal and the score was 16 to 0.

In a desperate effort to score in the last quarter, Gorrell shot a series of passes but with the exception of one gain of 11 yards and another of 10, they failed to get anywhere. Fostoria had lost the ball after four successive tries at the passing game without making the necessary downs, the ball going to Fremont and Bowers had just fallen for a ten yard gain when the whistle blew, ending the game.

Winning the game meant not only a victory for the team, but a strengthening of the morale of the team for the Sandusky game Thursday afternoon. The latter team lost against Tiffin Saturday and this has not added to the confidence of the Blue and White and as a result they will be playing a careful game when they op-

Elyria, Nov. 20—Lorain High school football team today won the Little Big Seven championship by a half game margin when they tied Elyria 6 to 0 here. Elyria lost a chance to score in the second period when a pass over the goal line from the one yard line was incomplete.

Both teams had won the same number of league games, but Lorain, by virtue of having had two tie games as compared to one tie and one defeat for Elyria, wins the championship by a margin of one point. Wins count two points, ties count one point and defeats do not count at all in the league standing. Lorain's previous tie game was that with Sandusky earlier in the season, which school also had the distinction of being the only one in the league to defeat Elyria.

STELLAR EVENT WITNESSED BY GREAT THROG

Sandusky Misses Two Close Shots for Goal; Game Played in a Sea of Mud

By JAMES A. (JIMMIE) MURPHY
The most spectacular scene ever witnessed upon the playing field of the Sandusky high school was that of Thursday afternoon, when the largest crowd which has ever attended a football game in that city witnessed two well matched teams battle for a victory that was not forthcoming when Fremont and Sandusky went the distance to a scoreless tie. For five minutes the players slipped and slid and rolled in the slippery mud covering the field without attaining the ambition to cross the goal line of the opposition.

The gates to the playing field were thrown open at 1:30 for holders of tickets purchased in advance and soon the stands were a mass of colors as the Blue and White and the Purple and White of the schools were swept by the brooms which swirled merrily across the field.

The Fremont band was the first to arrive on the field, taking their places 2:15, with the Sandusky musicians following a few minutes later and from that time on the air was filled with snappy, peppy tunes which kept the crowd on the alert for anything that might happen. In front of the stands cheer leaders were busy coaxing from the throats of the masses in the seats and those who were forced to stand, a rhythm of cheering that was meant to instill a spirit that would cause the players on the field to expend every effort in an attempt to carry the ball to the point which would mean victory.

McCarthy Wins Toss
Captain Johnny McCarthy won the toss for Fremont and elected to defend the north goal and when Krueger kicked off to Bieri on his ten yard line, that worthy young man carried the ball back to the ten yard line where he was stopped. On the next play Sandusky was penalized five yards for being offside and Bowers went through for seven yards on two plays that gave Fremont the first down of the game. On the next three plays, Fremont was penalized for losing that totaled 15 yards and Bowers punted, the ball rolling out of bounds on the eastern line.

Sandusky then started a march that looked certain to result in a score for the Blue and White. Taylor started it with a beautiful run around the left end of the Fremont line which netted 12 yards. Fremont, after a few plays forced the teams to punt and Krueger sent the ball high in the air as it seemed certain that it would cross the line. Shreffler, who was playing back permitted it to roll but it stuck in the mud a few inches from the goal stripe and Bowers was forced to punt on the first play, stepping far back of the line to make the kick. It was forced to hurry the kick and the ball was downed on the Fremont 24 yard line.

Sandusky Gains
Sandusky gained a total of 14 yards and then when it became impossible to get through the Fremont line, Krueger was sent back to attempt a goal from the field, with Amburn holding the ball on the 25 yard mark. Krueger's kick met the ball squarely and it sailed through the air directly towards the posts and just a little to the right of the center. Suddenly it stopped, just as everyone in the stands thought it was going across for three points. The ball had struck the crossbar and rebounded to the playing field. Bowers picked it up on the 4 yard mark. It was a tough break for Sandusky and a tougher one for Krueger.

After a few minutes of play, Sandusky was again in possession of the ball and it was decided to have Krueger try again for a goal from the field, this time from the 24 yard mark. The wind was at his back and the feat was not as impossible as it appeared. The ball was again held in position by Amburn and again Krueger's boot met it squarely, and again it sailed directly towards the goal posts, and again it seemed certain to cross the bar for the much needed points and with a sudden quick cut the vast assemblage, the ball struck the crossbar again, in almost the same position to the left of the center as the first had been to the right. This time the ball dropped and bounced back of the line and Fremont took possession on the 10 yard line.

Something Happened
In the next quarter Sandusky had carried the ball to the 27 yard line when something happened. A play was started; what it was to be and how it was to be executed only the Sandusky players knew. Krueger stepped back, Amburn took his place as if to place the ball for another attempt at a field goal. Zeiler, the Sandusky center heard the signal called and the ball was passed, but Amburn and Krueger were evidently not ready for the pass. The ball passed Amburn as Krueger turned to look back of him and before he realized what was happening the ball had gone by him. The two players with the rest of the two squads started for the ball and when Amburn fell on it, his team had lost 43 yards on the play. Sandusky attempted to advance the ball on two successive plays without gaining an inch and then Krueger punted.

A Sluggish Caught
Bowers made two short runs and on the next play was thrown for a loss but the referee was directly behind Biechele as the latter slipped. Bowers as he went down and ejected him from the game. Sandusky was penalized 24 yards, half the distance to the goal. Bowers then made a beautiful pass to Bieri on the fourth down, the ball traveling 26 yards. Three straight losses and Bowers dropped back to try for a goal from the field. The ball was low as the kick was made and never got above eight feet from the ground. It was blocked by the Sandusky line. Ebert recovering on his own 25 yard line just as the half ended. Biechele left the field at the half with tears streaming down his face. It appeared that his offense had been unintentional an attempt of an overzealous youngster to aid his team. He was given a cheer as he left the field.

A Great Defense
In the third quarter the Purple and White played a defensive game that was worth of praise, the entire squad fighting like madmen to prevent Sandusky from reaching a point where a field goal might be attempted for it seemed certain by that time that neither team would be able to put over a touch down. Sandusky marched the ball to the ten yard line and on the third down a pass from Taylor to Amburn was attempted but the ball was far over the head of the quarterback and landed back of the goal line and the danger for Fremont was averted.

In the last period, Fremont staged a comeback and only the fact that the team was twice penalized as Bowers made advances which would have given them first downs, kept them from getting close to a point where the ball might have been carried or booted over.

It was a great game and an auspicious start for the arrangement whereby the teams are to meet each year on the afternoon of Thanksgiving day.

Old Time Purple and White Team as Far Back as 1896; Members of Famous Old Outfit, Now Fremont Business Men, Tell of Good Old Days

By JAMES A. (JIMMIE) MURPHY
Not having been a resident of the city for thirty years I was not aware of the fact that Fremont and Fostoria high schools had been meeting each other in an athletic way during that period of time, when I said, following the recent meeting of the teams of these schools a week ago, that it was the first time in the history of athletic relations between the schools, that Fremont had been able to win from the Fostoria team. My lack of knowledge of things that happened as far back as 1896 caused me to make an error for Fremont not only defeated the Fostoria team that year, but they turned the trick twice in the same year.

That year was the first in which the local team had a regular coach for the football team, the men who held the job being none other than Ben Wickham, now a prominent attorney in Cleveland. Wickham had been a star athlete at Western Reserve and had been a captain of the Reserve football team.

Wickham came to Fremont where he found a squad ready to tackle anything that could be dug up in football fogs and especially anxious to make a showing against the team in being a member of the school who a number that year, Sandusky, Clyde and Fostoria.

The first game of the season found the Fostorians playing on the local grounds and the fans of that early day turned out in goodly numbers filling the old fair grounds and watching the time set for the start of the game.

Real Strategy
In those days, forward passing and the more intricate plays of today were unknown and the team that had the weaker was usually the winner, though it must not be thought for an instant that strategy was unknown or unused. Spouting of strategy, George Grob, who played right guard, told me the other day of a play that made the first touchdown of the game for Fremont that was a darp in its day, but which is no longer available under the present rules. Floyd Hobart was the left halfback and he wore a heavy felt. Of course, this had been worked many times by other teams, but the real strategy was the wearing of a sweater by Hobart, thus covering the brilliant "I played horse," Grob said, "it being my duty to pull Hobart through the opposing line."

On that team is found the name of Clarence Childs who later became famous as a member of the Yale team, being a Yale letterman.

The first game ended with Fremont the winner, the score being 24 and 0 and the count at the close of the second battle of the season, played at Fostoria, was 17 and 9 in favor of the Fremonters.

An amusing feature of that game was a play in which Newton D. Stuts, now a prominent insurance officer of the city and Edgerford "Johnny" Garvin who was captain of the team figured. The two players after a consultation agreed to have Stuts try a run around the end. As the crowd was close on the playing field, in fact inside the lines, it looked almost impossible to get away with it, but Stuts picked his hole with the only man in his way being a negro who was selling papers. Stiff-arming him, Stuts shot away and through the crowd to the goal line for a touchdown. Following this play the crowd stayed back of the lines and the Fremont players were able to show their stuff to a greater advantage.

The lineup of the old P. M. S. team shows the following names:

Harry Ickes, it.
Edgar Rhoades, lg.

BASKETEERS WIN OPENING CONTEST AGAINST COPPERS

Showing a speedy and versatile attack the Five Basketeers opened their season at Educational hall last night with a win over the Toledo police team. The margin of victory was 18 points, the score being 36 and 18. Andy Koch and Ollie Zink accounted for 24 of the markers, the former getting a total of 8 points from the field and 6 from the foul line while Zink shot five from the floor. Wolfe and Schneider accounted for the balance. Halseid, with a total of 7 was the high point getter for the "Coppers" with Limerick, former Waite high star coming next with 5. A feature of the game came in the last period when Sam Dovele, who had replaced Coughlan at center lasted for just four minutes before being ejected by the referee on the rule requiring this for the commission of four personal fouls. Sam had done in reality, one being missed by Pressing as he followed a play across the floor. Sam was very much peeved at the ruling but Pressing was not to be overruled and the player was given a razing as he left the floor.

The game started off slowly, both teams showing that the early season effort was a little more than had been expected, but as time wore on the play was hurried a little and at times was what could be termed speedy. The first quarter ended with the locals leading 9 and 4. At the close of the half this had been increased to 15 and 9 with the count at the end of the third period being 24 and 15.

The crowd was small, due no doubt to the fact that a heavy rain was falling at the time for the start of the game. There was a little delay in getting the game under way, as Eddie Gabel and Miesle had failed to put in an appearance. Tope, Bauld and Joe Lauer were sent to the dressing rooms and given uniforms to the players on the floor as Miesle entered the hall. A short time later, Gabel came in, having been delayed on his return from the football game at Sandusky by trouble with his car. He got into the game before the end of the half, replacing Schneider at the guard. Schneider was back in the second half when Miesle was forced to stay out on account of a sudden illness. Miesle had, eaten too much turkey or something and suffered as a result. The showing of the Basketeers last night was one that shows much promise for the season and very shortly they will be in shape for the hardest kind of contests.

THURSDAY'S RESULTS
Sandusky 0, Fremont 0.
The Little Big Seven League football season was closed with Thursday's game between Sandusky and Fremont. Sandusky had a chance to tie for third place in the league standing by winning yesterday's encounter. The scoreless result of the game merely placed Sandusky in a tie for fourth place with Norwalk and gave the three Lorain-co schools the undisputed title to first, second and third places.

HODES-ZINK TEAM DROPS OPENER

In their first game of the season, played against the Green Springs city team on the Green Springs floor, the Hodes-Zink basketball squad was defeated in a well played game, the score being 22 and 25.

The locals were unable to keep up with the procession during the first half and were lagging far in the rear as the whistle ended the first half of the playing period, the count at that time favoring the village team, 17 and 5.

Coming onto the floor for the last half, the factory team started an offensive that sent them along at a merry clip and throughout the half they outplayed the hometown boys, counting 20 points against 15 for Green Springs. This was not enough to overcome the lead piled up against them in the first part of the game and they were forced to accept defeat as a result.

Captain Norbert House has gathered together a team that will make itself known before the season comes to a close and many victories are to be accounted for by the team during the season.

Green Springs has a well-balanced team and one that will give any of the class A teams of this section of the state a run for its money any time they take the floor. Wolf, right guard was the scoring ace, last night, accounting for 16 of the scores run up by his team. Emory was not far behind, being credited with a total of 10.

McClary was the high point getter for the factory team, scoring ten points with five baskets from the field. The lineups and summaries.

DEFIANCE GIVES 3 TOUCHDOWNS IN FIRST PERIOD

Bad Passes From Center Are Costly; Hohenberger Scores
In Last Quarter

It was bargain day at Defiance high schools gridiron for the first quarter of the game with Fremont yesterday afternoon which ended with the visitors on the profitable end of a score of 20 to 6.

Defiance players sold touchdowns at marked down prices and many a spectator thought they gave them away. Anyway, the visiting victors scored three touchdowns as the result of shaken morals, due to erratic passing from the center, a fumble and a blocked punt.

It was only a 12-minute sale, however. Defiance decided after that fatal first period that the overhead was too great, and set about cutting down expenses. From then on, it was a different football game. Defiance held the visitors scoreless for the last three periods, and in the last frame Hohenberger tallied from the 20-yard line as the result of a pass from Chapline.

Defiance's aerial attack was an effective weapon. This coupled with Hohenberger's broken field running redeemed that terrible first quarter in which everything broke against Defiance.

First Downs About Equal.

Center Brechisen snapped the ball over Carey's head on the first play, the ball being downed on Defiance's eight. But Chapline punted out to the 40 whence Fremont turned the ends and tore open the line on a march to the first touchdown by Bowers, the star of the visitors.

Immediately after the next kickoff another bad snap-back from center resulted in a touchdown. Carey fumbled the pass and Bowers picked up the ball and ran 50 yards to the goal line.

Meincer soon after blocked a punt on the 40 and ran to Defiance's ten yard line before he was downed. Hetrick, who skirted Defiance ends consistently throughout the game, carried it over. Defiance seemed unable to bring the runners down by tackles. Time after time, the ball-toter would twist away and continue his journey.

Except for that first period, the heavy visitors did not outplay Defiance's crippled eleven to any great extent. First downs prove this contention. Fremont had the chain moved 13 times and Defiance, 10.

Lose 32 On First Play.

The game opened with Hohenberger of Defiance returning the kickoff to the 40. On the first play Center Brechisen snapped the ball far over the head of Carey who was downed on his eight-yard mark. Chapline punted to the 40 and Fremont launched a running attack. Hetrick skirting the locals' ends to within the ten-yard line Bowers then hit center for the first touchdown and place-kicked the extra point. The touchdown was made in four and a half minutes.

Hohenberger again returned the kickoff 20 yards to the 40. Carey fumbled visitors later gained the ball on downs on their 38. Three plunges failed and Bowers passed to Hetrick for a 14-yard gain. Hetrick then dashed around end for a first down on Defiance's 25. Two more plunges resulted in another first down on Defiance's 15. The quarter ended with Fremont having to make eight yards on the fourth down.

A pass grounded in the end zone as the last quarter ended, giving Defiance the ball on the 20. Hohenberger, Chapline and Brown took turns to net first down on the 32. Following a five yard penalty for offside, Chapline tossed a pass to R. Goldnetz for 22 more yards, Chapline was compelled to punt to Bowers on Fremont's 18. A 15 yard penalty put Fremont on its three-yard line. Brown was hurt and relieved by Deckrosh. Bowers punted to Hohenberger on Fremont's 21. A pass, Chapline to Hohenberger scored for Defiance from the 20. A bad pass from center spoiled the attempt to place kick for an extra point.

Hohenberger received and later Bierley intercepted a forward pass on his 45. Bowers punted into the end zone, Defiance getting the ball on the 20. The Chapline-Hohenberger aerial route netted 24 yards, and later made it first down on Fremont's 48. Wonderley recovered a bad snap on Defiance's 35. Fremont suffered a 15-yard penalty. Bowers passed to Bierley for a 30-yard gain to place the ball on Defiance's 30. The game ended after an exchange of punts. Summary:
