WHITE TANKERS BEAT PURPLE IN SWIMMING

Annual Event at Ross Pool; Three Records Go Overboard

In an interesting session of expert water work given at the Ross high pool Thursday night under the direction of "Bim" Stults, swim instructor, the annual inter scholastic meeting was taken by the White from the Purple team by the tight count of 44 to 40. Three records went overboard during the evening and a fair-sized crowd got a thrill out of the procedure.

Oxley of the Purple, paddled to victory in the 200-yard relay with George Mathern, White, in second position. Booth of the Purple, crawled in to a win in the 100-yard back stroke and took down a new school record for the event, his time being 1:14. The winner was followed in order by Waggoner, Purple; Cal Kellogg, White, and A. Mathern, White.

In the 50-yard free style event, Fuchs of the White, nosed out Booth of the Purple, and A. Mathern of the White, and Tucker of the Purple, finished in order. Sherlow of the White, took the 100-yard breast stroke and caused a record to go overboard in his effort. He did it in 1:10, new school mark. Sherlow was chased into port by Cooper, Purple; Sutkins, White, and Miller, Purple.

Carter carried the tidal wave of victory in the 100-yard free style. He represented the Purple. Dach, White; M. Sutkins, White, and Tucker, White, followed closely in the wake of the victor.

Brown of the White, established a new school record when he took the 220-yard free style feature in 2:47.6. He was chased by a coast guard composed of Oxley, Purple; Behnken, White, and Hughes, Purple.

Serwinsky plunged to victory in the diving contest, representing the White. Hasselbach, Purple entry, withdrew because of illness.

In the 150-yard medley relay, the White team, Kellogg, Sherlow and

Swimming

This sport, brand new in local circles, has been highly developed under the guiding hand of Baumann (Bim) Stults, swimming instructor at Ross high. Several meetings with Toledo and Sandusky schools were tanked in the Ross pool and were much enjoyed by overflow audiences. Several Fremont swimmers also entered and made good showings in state and district meetings.

ROSS TANKERS IN SANDUSKY MEET

Friday Coach (Bim) Stults and his merman from Ross high, will make their first start of the season along the lane of a hard schedule mapped out for their acivities. They are billed to appear at Sandusky against the splashing and wave-making of the tankers at Sandusky. The Ross tank schedule calls for home and home sessions with Sandusky, Toledo DeVilbiss, Toledo Waite and Akron, and they will also trek to a district session and finish up at a state meeting.

ROSS MERMEN LOSE SESSION

Ross high's natators, making the first of their out of town journeys according to schedule, dropped a meeting to Sandusky mermen Friday night by a score of 53 to 22 but gave a fine account of themselves.

Two pool records were reduced and many events were hotly contested. Sherlow, of Fremont broke the 100 yard breast stroke record and the Sandusky medley relay team downed the other old mark.

Booth, of Fremont, won the 100 yard back stroke event.

The summary:

160 yard free style relay—Won by Sandusky (Hendrickson, Droulliard, Hogsett and Jack Holzaepfel) Time—1 min., 24 sec.

2 ROSS STROKERS WILL MISS GAME

Handicapped by the loss of Billy Cooper, star breast stoker, and Waggoner, the back stoker, Fremont Ross High school's swimming team will leave for Akron East high school Friday afternoon for a match with the tankers of that city. Cooper and Waggoner are ill. The boys making the trip are Booth, Sherlow, Brown, Merrifield, Carter, Fuchs, Hasselbach, Oxley, Serwinsky, Kellogg, Behnken, Suttkus and Dorr. The coach is N. B. Stults.

ROSS TANK TEAM LOSES TO AKRON

Ross high swimmers, appearing against East high at Akron Saturday, were defeated 40 to 35 in a hotly contested match. Del Sherlow, of Ross, lowered the tank record by a full second when he won the 100 yard breast stroke event in 1:14. Bob Booth, of Ross, took the 100 yard back stroke race and the Ross medley team, Sherlow, Fox and Booth, won their event.

Other Ross point winners were Hasselbach and Serwensky, second and third, respectively, in diving; Garver Oxley, second in the 40 yard free style and Bob Brown, third in the 220 free style feature.

ROSS HIGH TANKERS TO TACKLE WAITE

Booth, star back stroker on the Ross high swimming team, will attempt to defeat Ed Moran, of Toledo Waite, the state champion, when the Ross and Waite swimming teams meet at Ross natatorium Thursday night.

Booth, according to Coach N. B. Stults, has come within three seconds of equalling Moran's record, and the competition against the star may see a record broken.

Mr. Stults announced the following team for the meet: 200-yard relay: Behnken, Tucker, Al Mathern and Carter; 100-yard back stroke, Booth and Kellogg; 50-yard free style, Fuchs and Oxley; 100-yard breast stroke, Sherlow and Cooper; 100-yard free style, Carter and Oxley; 220-yard free style, Brown and Merrifield; diving, Hasselbach and Serwinski; 150 yard medley relay, Booth, Sherlow and Fuchs.

LOCAL MERMEN DISPLAY CLASS IN NEAT WAY

Three Pool Records Tumble as Boys Churn Up Waters

Sherlow, Booth, Kellogg, Oxley, Hasselbach Are Ross Stars

Ross high 44, Waite high 31.

These mermen from Ross sailed out on home waters Thursday night and gave an invading fleet from Waite high, Toledo, a considerable splash, in what was regarded as a fair victory.

A capacity crowd that stepped from the Siberian atmosphere without the surroundings that masked the balmy temperature of Florida or southern California or a "heat" bullet within, enjoyed the events, several of which were exciting.

The Ross flotilla had no easy time in out watering the big townsmen in their home position for a couple of heats and they stepped out and made geysers out of the pool contents to forge ahead and hold the position.

Three Ross records tumbled during the meeting, that of Waite, showed the water for a mark of 23 seconds in the 50-yard free style.

Bill Sherlow, the capable Ross splasher, pared a full second off the 100-yard breast stroke feature, when he sailed the distance in 1:17. Armstrong of Waite, whirled a mean propeller in the 220-yard free style feature and did the distance in 2:40, and added a mark for the school album of aquatics.

A Good Start

Waite opened the witness by taking the 200-yard medley relay and had a tug on the oars to distance the home crew, Behnken, Tucker, Mathern and Carter. This gave the Walters an 8 to 4 pull on the aquatic front, as far as in advance as the visitors ever got. The home town craft found the channel and kicked about 300 parts of hardness out of the city product of fresh water and churned it to such a stage of softness that it wouldn't even ripple.

Bill Sherlow made Waite call for the coast guard when he took the 100-yard back stroke. Some people are so dumb that they think this breast stroke is father cutting white meat from the gobbler. Dudley and Kettle of Waite, and Carter and Behnken in the wake left by Sherlow.

Real Excitement

One of the thrills of the night was occasioned when Booth and Cal Fuchs, who volunteered to do their chores in the 100-yard back stroke feature. Booth dove into the lead at the crack of the gun and held his position by some means, at distance, but Fuchs had quite a duel with Ueberrath of Waite, but he proved his opponent at the finish line.

Fred of Waite, lowered the pool record in the 50-yard free style but he had to add sails to his side wheels to beat out Garver Oxley of Ross, who made the visitor do the clinching the second time. Paul of Ross, was third.

Oxley stepped out and divided first honors with Fuchs of Waite, in the 100-yard free style. Sherlow edged out Carter and Fremont, placed second. Armstrong of Waite, won the 220-yard free style and broke the record. Merrifield and Johnson Brown of Toledo, second and third, respectively, and were the real causes of shoving the Toledoan off his anchor to a new harbor mark.

Back stroke exhibition

Hasselbach of Ross, gave a great exhibition of high, wide and fancy diving, taking this pretty feature with Serwinski, another Ross product, from the German of Waite, was placed third.

The Ross team of Booth, Sherlow and Fuchs took the 150-yard medley race in clever fashion and the result more than clinched the meet.

The result shows that Coach "Bim" Stults and his mermen are set to apply the finishing touch to the big mermen when they will take on another group of opposition in De Vilbiss high of Toledo, Friday night.

The summary:

50-yard relay—Waite won.

100-yard back stroke—Booth (R), Kellogg (R), Ueberrath (W), Time 1:15.8.

50-yard free style—Ferdig (W), Oxley (R), Fuchs (R), Time 28.

100-yard breast stroke—Sherlow (R), Kettle (W), Dudley (W), Time 1:17.

100-yard free styl—Oxley (R), Ferdig (W), tied for first; Carter (R), Time 1:05.1.

200-yard free style—Armstrong (W), Merrifield (R), Brown (R), Time 2:40.

Diving—Hasselbach (R), Serwinski (R), Tiernan (W).

150-yard medley relay—Ross won.

ROSS TANKERS EASILY DEFEAT BIG DE VILBISS

Sweep Seven Out of Eight Events in Pool; One Record Broken

Ross High 35, DeVilbiss (Toledo) High 20.

After having taken the Waite high school team of defeat Thursday night, those improving Ross high swimmers stepped forth Friday night and splashed the DeVilbiss wave busters by the one-sided count mentioned above. Two big foemen left in their friendly wake in two straight nights, is a pretty fair sports achievement, and something to sit down and chat about.

DeVilbiss, like Waite, a flotilla without a home harbor, does its practicing in the "X" pool in Toledo. They had no chance after the first gun when they dropped the 220 yard relay to a crew of strokers, Behnken, Wagner, Mathern and Carter.

Couch "Bim" Stultus of the Ross fleet, gave all his boys a chance last night and they succeeded in taking seven out of eight starts, the visitors escaping a shutout by winning the 150 medley race, the curtain piece of the show but only after a terrific struggle.

Coach Clinton Buell of DeVilbiss brought down a great assembly of splashers. He had 'em big and tall, fat and semi-fat but they proved poor competition for the local wave splitters.

One Record Broken

The only record broken during the night's program was the 30 yard free style event that was taken by Garver Oxley in 28.2, new school record. Oxley was shoved for the mark by his teammate, Fuchs, another improved Rossman who is no neophyte. The rest of the swimmers by the green, rubber cap he wears when out swimming Hansen, of Toledo, was third, close behind the Ross winners.

Sutkus, of Ross, took the 100 yard breast stroke with Dug Donovan, of Toledo, second and Bill Sherlow, of Ross in third berth. The 220 free style splash went to Bob Brown who sailed a great race for Ross. Cameron Merrifield, of Ross was third finished and Captain Ralph Wicker, of DeVilbiss, and the sole of the visiting navy, was second.

In the 100 yard back stroke maneuver, Bobby Booth, an auburn haired streak, followed up his sensational work in the Waite meeting by taking the event. His partner in Ross's old model of the Clement but was sure passes through the old aqua. Cal Kellogg was second, nosing out Gordon Southard, of DeVilbiss by the width of a water bug's eyebrow. They did the turn in 1.15, which isn't all bad. Leslie (Ned) Carter stepped out and took the bone in his teeth, as they say in yachting circles, and rounded the buoys ahead of the fast cruising. Oxley who finished second, Jud Cannon, one of the big shots of the evening, was thrown to a low line in third position.

The prettiest event of the night was the appearance of the divers, Orland Hasselbach, a miniature copy of Johnny Weissmuller at his best, repeated his performance of the night previous when he outdistanced the rest with the assistance of Bob Serwinski, another Ross star. This pair of boys, both little fellows, was the hit of the show. In fact they stole the show, out pitching and gracefully trimming. Wicker and his mate, Homer Biscoe.

A fair sized crowd of fans, swimming is taking on at Ross, viewed the program and gave the purple and white waders a neat hand. There had it coming. Two victories in one week is something in any man's sports album.

BIG BILL SHERLOW REAL TANK STAR

An error cropped out in the summary report of the Ross high victory over the DeVilbiss swimmers of Toledo the other night. It was mentioned that Haven Suttkus, a coming star in the aqua, had won the 100 yard breast stroke event, taking among his victims the redoubtable Bill Sherlow, of Ross. This was not the case. It was Sherlow who won the event, it being his pet style of locomotion in the tank. Dug Donovan, of DeVilbiss was second and Suttkus finished third which is pretty good for fast company of the kind. A blanket could have covered the three swimmers at the finish.

Sherlow, a junior at Ross, is a powerful, big fellow and would make good football material but he says that football detracts from a fellow's swimming ability and he wants to be a real tank star. He sure is at this present writing and, with the guidance of Coach "Bim" Stults, will travel far before he completes his scholastic career.

ROSS HIGH TANKERS DEFEAT DE VILBISS

Ross high swimmers met the De-Vilbiss high team in the Y. M. C. A. pool in Toledo Friday night and won a hotly contested match, 37 to 34. It was the second victory of the season for Ross over the Toledo team.

Handicapped by the absence of their star performer, Bill Sherlow, who is ill at his home, and Cal Kellogg, Oxley and Carter, other capable point getters, recovering from illness but unable to do their best, the Ross team had a nip and tuck contest all the way. They won two of the eight events but cashed in on second and third points. Merrifield took the 200-yard free style feature but was disqualified. Hasselbach won the diving contest with Serwinski of Ross, second. Ross was awarded the 160-yard free style event when a Toledoan was disqualified for interference.

Among the Ross point winners were Hasselbach, Serwinski, Booth, Cooper, Oxley, Fox and Suttkus.

GREAT FINISH GAVE FREMONT FINE VICTORY

Medley Relay Caps Climax in Brilliant Tank Program

Two Records Fall Before
Sway of Swimmers;
Sandusky Next

Rosa 38. Akron East 37.
In the hottest of closest matches ever held in these parts since Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry gave the British a sound thrashing at the end of Lake Erie, the Rosa high fleet, under the command of Admiral Bill Stultz, avenged the Akron last Saturday, commanded by Admiral Larry Ricker, off the waters Friday night.

From the first gun until the echoes of battle died away, the two outifts had it out with honors except that the Akron swimmers, went over the side with cutlass in hand and while the purple and white battle was still in progress, the defeated outfit went down with all hands on deck and the cook singing "We Shall Gather at the River."

Notable Achievements.
In taking Akron East into the harbor on a tow line, the Akron swimmers recorded the first account of swimming that few teams have been able to do. The splashes from the bows of the blimped boat were turned into and for the state championships and their submerging at the hands of the Akron crew, was the first to get down over the ridge of the tonnals.

The wave bending program was nippish and took all the way and before the final event, the 150 yard medley relay, the score stood 34 to 33 in favor of Akron. The Akron had to take the event to top the session. Here's with they were up against it.

The Akron medley arrangement, regarded as one of the best in the state, won their start at the recent meet in Ohio City and Cleveland. One of their starters was Ellsworth Wool-ling, holder of the state school back stroke record for two other honors. It was a dark outlook and wise money would have said that

Rosa would have won. But he left in the wake like a saw log racing the Yankees or a flat iron trying to outlast a bulldozer.

Some Astonishment.

Bobbo Booth, Rosa back stroke gunner, gave Woolling a great run in the 100 yard back stroke, 100 inches. Big Bill Sherow rolled up a wave like a typhoon and got a lead in the 100 yard back stroke event and then came Ted Fuchs, Rosa, anchored man in the free style. Ted was on his way to Rosa and, with the start given him by Sherow not only held the lead but increased it. The next he was won in one of the greatest finishes ever seen in any event in these parts. The crowd, as they were packed in the stands, were electrified with glee and, in the excitement some Akron fellow said that Rosa was swimming in his own water and was swimming more used to the track.

Record Toss.

During the water disturbance two pool records were broken and one was tied. The 100 yard back stroke was pushed to a great effort in the 100 yard back stroke by the red headed Bill Sherow, who covered the distance in 1:78 just six tenths of a second above the state record. Woolling swam as fast as he got in the 100 yard back stroke. The old pool record 1:14.6, was given one ride shattered in this class.

Bill Sherow, Rosa, took the pool record of 1:17, when he took the 100 yard breast stroke. He was shown to be equal to his brother Woyer, of Akron, another real knight of the bath.

Accomplishment.

One of the real aqua duels of the night was staged in the 50 yard free style between George Ooley, of Akron, and George (Wee) Oxley, old time baseball and football star, put on his side wheels and propellers and roared into the water with bone in his teeth to take one of the brilliant struggles of the night. Oxley was tagged out by Horace Greeley, of Akron, and Ted Fuchs, of Fremont, who puffed in a close third and fourth. The two swimmers made a foamy wake. Those who figure speed swimming events aren't exactly sure what to make of it, but an appetizer for that sweat producing medley relay fireworks that finished the meet.

At the completion of Oxley's victory the two teams were tied 15 to 15 and it was a tight race for now, after Akron, since Col. Coughlin and his team chased the Proctor-Tecumseh visitors down the river.

Akron Takes Opener.

Akron's 200 yard relay team took the first place in the race, which beat the Roasmen sort of made them rough up the water to win. The event was a close race, but went just beyond the pool mark made by some pool shark from Sandusky, so the two Matadors, Bill Stultz and Bill Sutton, did the paddling for Rosa.

Stewart, of Akron, beat George Ooley by the width of a horse's eyebow in the 100 free style, popular Stewart, who has been in it to stay, free. Hendrie, Givings, and tress signals with torn rigging and sounding an S. O. S. like the Seth Pease, of Sandusky, who was swashed third. This event was done in 1:34 a fraction over the pool record of 1:33.

Another Record.

Another record dropped into the record book when Ooley, of Rosa, chased a fellow with name of Shifbower, of Akron, in the 100 yard free style. Matador, in the 100 yard free style, Brown, of Fremont, dove into the

Firelands Leaguers Have It Out in Fast Cage Session

MONROEVILLE, Feb. 16.—Clyde high school's cagers lost another game in the Firelands league here yesterday, but won the meet 24 to 21 versus from Monroeville's lads.

The victory elevated Monroeville to the third place in the Firelands, and sent Clyde next to the cellar position. Monroeville's last victory was in 1934, when 21 to 21 points to three for Clyde, brought the margin of victory.

Clyde led Monroeville 12 to 12 at the quarter, then trailed 13 to 12 at the half. The score was tied at 21 each at the end of the third

Pretty Event.

The outstanding event of the meet for grace, class and building up physical portions for a "Mister America" contest, was the diving competition.

Ross Mermen 44. Sandusky
Neptunes 31.

Those astonishing swimmers who call their pool the home port of the who have taken Wilbiss, Wolfe and Akron East into tow this season added another swell prize to the group of floaters they have at anchor in numerous ports. The meet was rated to one of the greatest nights in their school history by Coach Schoen and his Blue Streak splashed along the submerged row Thursday night.

Sandusky has been winning with such great regularity that it sent its wave floating up to Fremont to see what the general opinion of it had figured on with the S. H. S. varsity and reserve cagers doing their bits for the big harvest they expected to have in an athletic way. When the Ross mermen did to the poolists from Erie was a caution. They did everything but chase them down the drain pipe.

No records were broken in this session but some mighty good time was negotiated. Ross took five firsts in eight events, winning after ten swimmers in most of them.
They lost the diving contest and the 200 yard relay race but had plenty of points to spare.

Al Mathews First Number.

Al Mathews, Wagoner, Ted Fuchs and Cooper lost the first event, the 200 yard relay to start the evening's program. This loss created some speculation as to same number has been lost in several other matches. The win gave the Streaks an 8 to 4 edge on points.

Bill Drouillard, however, who swims better than the whale that inhaled Jonah, livened things up when he took the 100 yard breast stroke event from Samko, the Sandusky ace, with Reiter, of the visitors, second. Drouillard then went on to beat out H. Suttikis, of Ross. This Moved the count up to 12 to 9, still favoring the invading team.

Samko, the human porpoise, set the crowd, and there was some crowd in the close confines of the pool room, too, on the well known event with he was swimming the or a spinner and nosed out Drouillard of Sandusky in an exciting 50 yard free style feature.

Oxley appeared to be swum but he had to move all around and swam into harbor to win by the thickness of the sunburn on his nose.

Plenty of excitement among the fans as Oxley dragged himself out in front. This cut Sandusky's lead 16 to 14.

A Double Win.

Carver, Merrifield and Bobby

Brown, a member of State Illis, blomed to the extent of making a grand slam in a hotly contested

200 yard free style event, longest event of the night. Merrifield pair had never headed and they had all hands hitting the deck with a horn pipe as they came home from the deep sea fishing grounds with a catch that put Ross into the lead 22 to 17.

Bobby Booth, the auburn haired back stroke from Ross, and his spare partner, Alvin Stewart

Kellogg, staged another clean sweep in the 100 yard back stroke.

Booth, one of the best back strokers said that down the peeling

the little others has stars in his special feature, all season and recently gave the state champion,

Woodie of Akron, water on the knee kept the lead all the way to score in number one birth.

Kellogg, racing his last number for old Alma Mammy and a senior in school, gave everything he had and was ample, riding the tide into the docks leading Eakin, of Sandusky, by the width of a man's shoulders. This brilliant show

Fremont lead 29 to 18.

Oxley Caps Another.

Oxley, big point getter for Ross, again aroused the water birds to a mighty roar of chitter when he swam from behind to win the 100 yard free style in one of his copyrighted finishes. Holzapfel finished second for Sandusky and Henderson, of the same school, rolled and swallowed in third to beat Copper of Fremont.

Reiter, of Sandusky, a great diver, outgunned Halebian, of Ross,
