

ROSS HI GOLFERS BOOK 6 MATCHES

Ross high will again be represented in inter-school competition by a golf team, Eddie Gabel, who will coach the divot-diggers, has announced.

The team will swing into action next Monday by playing host to Sandusky. Other matches already arranged are at Bowling Green, May 2; at Elyria, May 12; at Sandusky, May 17; Bowling Green, here, May 26, and Elyria here, June 2. Two more matches will be arranged if possible.

Coach Gabel has John Null, Don Greenman and Chuck Woodruff back from last year as well as Jack Carroll, who will play when it doesn't interfere with track.

Golf clubs in all the cities are cooperating by allowing free use of their courses to encourage young players.

PURPLE GOLFERS LOSE TO STREAKS

The Ross high golf team, making its first start of the season, dropped a 9 to 7 verdict to the Sandusky par-chasers over the Fremont Golf Club layout Monday afternoon.

Don Greenman had an 88 for the best round and scored 3½ points for the Little Giants. His opponent, Hedges, scored one-half point. John Null added three points, Charles Woodruff one-half and Bill Hausman was blanked.

The Little Giant swingers go into action again Friday at Bowling Green.

ROSS HI GOLFERS LOSE TO ELYRIA

The Ross high golfing team found the Elyria Country Club course not at all to their liking Monday afternoon and dropped a 14½ to 1½ match to the Elyria high golfers.

John Null scored one point and Chuck Woodruff accounted for one-half to get the Little Giants only points as Don Greenman and Jack Carroll were forced to be content with zeros. Null shot an 88 for the best Fremont score with Hall of Elyria pacing his team with an 80.

The Little Giants travel to Sandusky on Saturday for another interscholastic match.

ROSS GOLFERS IN WIN OVER BEE-GEE

The Ross high gold team scored an  $11\frac{1}{2}$  to  $\frac{1}{2}$  victory over the Bowling Green par-chasers in an interscholastic match played at the Fremont Golf Club Monday afternoon.

Don Greenman, John Null and Chuck Woodruff each scored three points for the winners with Bill Hausman adding  $2\frac{1}{2}$ . Willohite accounted for Bee-Gee's only points.

Greenman set the pace with an 84, while Null and Woodruff both had 85's and Hausman a 95. The final match of the year brings Elyria here Monday.
