Ross cross country

All prospective members of the Ross High School varsity cross country team are to meet Thursday, Aug. 2, at the Rodger Young Park pool.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m.

After the brief meeting, according to Coach Ron Brant, there will be a seven-mile run.

The top Ross runner at the Ross' meet was Brian Humbarger who took 13th in 14:47. The final scores were Perkins 24, Huron 34, Ross 86.

Cross country roundup

Magrum's record leads Rockets

The Oak Harbor Rockets grabbed the top five spots and Glenn Magrum took first, breaking another course record to crush the Ross cross country team 15-42 in a meet at Thornwood Golf links.

Magrum finished the 2½ mile course in 12:54, beating the old record by more than six seconds, according to Ross coach Ron Brant. Magrum broke Genoa's course record on Tuesday.

Steve Anderson, the runner-up in the race, was 48 seconds behind Magrum while Jeff Arnold, Jack Quisno and Tom Hablitzel rounded out the top five for the Rockets.

The first Little Giant runner to cross the finish line was Fred Hepp. He finished the course in 14:14 with teammate Dwayne Endicott one second behind him. Brian Humbarger grabbed eighth in 14:22.

In other cross country action, St. Joe had an easy win over Crestline 19-44 and Clyde defeated Bellevue 20-38.

St. Joe's Tom Frederick led the pack at Crestline, taking first in 14:14. Gene Toy of Crestline was second in 14:53 while St. Joe's Chris Krice finished third in 15:17. The Crimson Streak also took the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and tenth spots to dominate the meet.

At Bellevue, Marty Meyer and Randy Noftz finished one-two for Clyde in 13:37 and 13:52 respectively, to pace Clyde to its victory over Bellevue.

Brent Smith of Bellevue was third in 14:01, Willie Colavincenzo of Clyde was fourth in 14:05 and Chris Neer of Bellevue took fifth in 14:13.

fact, Bronco officials confirmed that ABC's production crew had asked that the sign be removed and that Denver police had complied with that request.

So much for freedom of speech. But have no doubt about it. The first shots have been fired. Concord, Valley Forge and the Alamo may pale by comparison before ABC and Denver are done.

THREE ROSS runners follow an Oak Harbor runner to the finish line. The race was run in a steady rain which made the course slippery. No runner, however, fell.

Trojans run over Little Giants

FINDLAY — Ross was shutout in a dual cross country meet Monday, losing 15-50 to the Findlay Trojans.

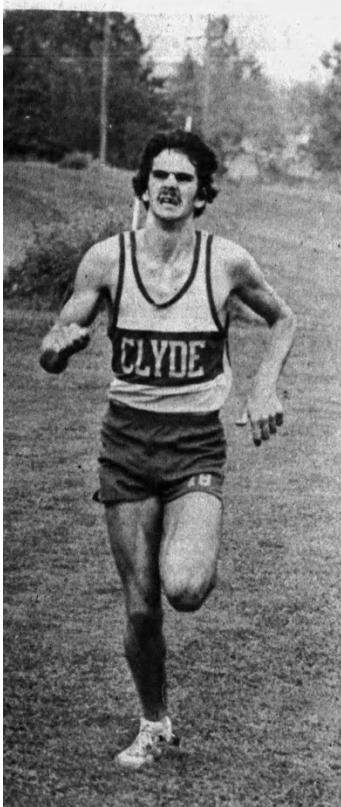

The Trojans swept the first nine positions in the two and one-half mile race. Paul Lashells of Findlay was the individual winner, running the distance in 13:20.

Second went to the Trojans' Paul Larick in 13:28. Mark Darnall, Bill Hostler, and Jim Murphy rounded out the top five for Findlay.

Fred Hepp was the first Little Giant to cross the finish line, coming in 10th.

MARTY MEYER of Clyde grimaces as he heads for the finish line in Thursday's cross country meet between Clyde and Ross at Thornwood Golf Links. Meyer broke the course record of 12:54 set by Glenn Magnum of Oak Harbor on Sept. 13 by 41 seconds.

Meyer shatters Thornwood mark

CC results

Clyde 15, Ross 50

Marty Meyer shattered the course record at Thornwood Golf Links to lead Clyde to a 15-50 romp over Ross in cross country Thursday afternoon.

Meyer's time of 12:13 broke Glenn Magnum's record of 12:54 set earlier this year. Finishing second was Clyde's Randy Nottz in 12:57 followed by teammates Dave Ralston in 13:14 and Bill Colavincenzo in 13:41. St. Joe defeated Gibsonburg 25-30 and lost to Mohawk 23-32 in a triangular meet run right after the Ross meet at Thornwood Golf Links. Mohawk defeated Gibsonburg 30-35 in the other portion of the meet.

Roger Drake of Mohawk nipped Tina Ramos of Gibsonburg at the finish line. Drake ran the 2 1/2 mile course in 13:04 while Ramos was one second behind him.

Third place went to St. Joe's Tom Frederick in 13:14. Magnum of Oak Harbor added another first place finish to his record this season in the Rockets 15-46 win over Woodmore. Teammates Steve Anderson and Jeff Arnold were second and third in 13:03 and 13:27 respectively.

Bill Sears was the first Woodmore runner to finish, grabbing sixth place in 14:09.

In a girls cross country meet, Clyde downed Bellevue 15-38. Maggie Full of Clyde won the race in 16:54 with Bellevue's Leah Diehr second in 17:14 and Jenny Bible of Clyde third in 18:11.

In other meets, Ross finished on the bottom in a triangular with Columbian and Bucyrus, Oak Harbor defeated Eastwood 20-36 and Woodmore lost to Bowling Green 15-42 and to Lake 26-29 in a double dual. In a girls meet, Woodmore defeated Bowling Green 26-29.

Columbian had 17, Bucyrus 43 and Ross 73 in the triangular at Tiffin. Todd Helmer of Columbian won the race in 13:12. Columbian runners finished in the top three spots.

Ross's top runners were Fred Hepp in 10th in 14:59 and Jeff Slaughter 14th.

Glenn Magrum and Steve Anderson finished 1-2 for Oak Harbor in the victory over Eastwood. Magrum ran a 12:23 and Anderson 12:47.

Jack Arnold was fourth for the Rockets with Tom Häblitzel sixth and Jack Quisno seventh.

Bill Sears' eighth place finish was the tops for Woodmore's boys team. Neal Obermyer and Scott Lenke were ninth and 10th for the Wildcats.

Amy Damschroder and Becky Lieske were first and second, respectively, for the Woodmore girls. Damschroder won the race in 17:33 and Lieske was five seconds off that pace.

Cross country roundup

Margaretta slips past Ross 27-29

Margaretta edged Ross while Oak Harbor and Genoa picked up victories in high school boys cross country meets Tuesday.

The Polar Bears tacked a 27-29 defeat on the Little Giants. Jeff Nash was the overall race winner for Margaretta, trotting the Thornwood Links course in 13:52.

Finishing second was

Fred Hepp of Ross in 13:54 with Margaretta's Todd Hand and Steve Davis, third and fourth, respectively. Dwayne Endicott of Ross was fifth.

Oak Harbor defeated Gibsonburg 21-35. The Rockets swept the top three positions and Gibsonburg runners took the next three.

Glenn Magrum won the race in 13:19 with teammates Steve Anderson and Jeff Arnold, second and third, respectively. Gary Knieriem was fourth, Tino Ramos fifth and Larry Foos sixth for Gibsonburg.

Genoa downed Woodmore 15-41. Comet runners took the top five positions and Woodmore harriers finished in the next five slots.

Charles Tuttle was the individual winner for Genoa, running the two and one-half miles in 13:36. Jeff Flynn was second.

Woodmore's first runner was Neal Obermyer in sixth with Bill Sears seventh.
