

Lakota, Ross 1-2 in quadrangular

News-Messenger Reports

Lakota won three decisions and Fremont Ross took a pair of victories in a quadrangular meet at Lakota to highlight the first day of area cross country action Tuesday.

The Raiders beat Northwood 15-50, and Gibsonburg, 16-45, as well as the Little Giants, 18-42, to start the season perfectly. Ross won its decisions from Gibsonburg, 27-28, and Northwood, 15-50. Gibsonburg made it a clean sweep of the Rangers, also winning 15-50.

Brian Smith won the meet as Lakota captured five of the top seven places overall. Smith clocked in at 16:59 while teammate Frank Contreras was second at 17:36.

Aaron Potter was third to top the Ross runners. Potter came in at 17:40.

Gibsonburg's top finisher was Steve Mitchell, who placed sixth overall with a time of 18:30.

It was a good day for other

Cross Country

area teams in boys cross country as well as Oak Harbor, Genoa, and Woodmore all came away unscathed.

Oak Harbor defeated Perrysburg 15-44 and Ottawa Hills 22-36 in a tri-meet; Genoa downed Suburban Lakes League foes Elmwood 18-41, and Eastwood 16-40 in another tri-meet, and Woodmore also won against an SLL opponent, topping Otsego 20-35 in a dual meet.

In girls cross country action, Lakota topped Ross 23-36 and beat Gibsonburg 15-50 and Ross also beat Gibsonburg 19-32. Woodmore edged Otsego 27-28 on the road.

Jim Reggiss took first place for Ottawa Hills at Oak Harbor, but the host Rockets grabbed the next three places to assure the double victory. Reggiss clocked in at 17:47.

Rob Friar was second for Oak Harbor at 18:10 followed by Troy Lochotzki and Randy Risch.

Genoa grabbed four of the first five spots and five of the top seven in downing Eastwood and Elmwood. The Comets were led by Ray Burrey, who came in with a time of 16:59 on his home course.

Doug Shuman was the top runner for the Wildcat boys, who won at Otsego. Shuman won the meet in a time of 18:44 and was followed by Matt Miesle and A.J. Poster who finished second and third.

The Lakota girls team also had five runners place in the top seven to defeat Ross and Gibsonburg. Jenny Scherger won the meet for the Raiders with a 20:42 effort.

Tami Stanley and Sam Augugliaro finished second and third to lead the Lady Giants. Stanley clocked in at 21:23 and Augugliario had a time of 21:39.

Emily Kruse won for the Woodmore girls against the Knights, posting a time of 20:35.

---

Cross country

---

---

Boys

---

Ross 26, B. Green 29

Top 10 finishers

1-Aaron Potter (R) 18:23, 2-Tim Tucker (BG) 18:53, 3-Mike Taylor (BG) 19:16, 4-Marc Flores (R) 19:31, 5-Seth Brickner (R) 19:32, 6-Scott Nossaman (R) 19:37, 7-Jerry Bingham (BG) 19:38, 8-Mark Farnsworth (BG) 19:41, 9-Jeff Vollmer (BG) 20:07, 10-Dave Bowers (BG) 20:13.

Season record: Ross 3-1.

---

Girls

---

B. Green 24, Ross 31

Ross finishes

1-Tami Stanley 21:51, 5-Bridget Boda 23:08, 6-Samantha Augulario 23:29, 9-Lisa Abdoo 23:55, 12-Jenny Zienta 28:36.

Season record: Ross 1-2.

Ross boys, girls runners win twice in quad test

News-Messenger Reports

Both the Fremont Ross boys and girls cross country teams came away with two victories in a quad meet with Port Clinton, Huron and Sandusky at East Side Park in Fremont Thursday.

Sandusky was 3-0 in the boys meet, while the Ross boys beat Port Clinton 16-39 and Huron 26-29 to raise their record to 5-2 for the season.

The Ross girls registered victories over Huron 19-36, and Sandusky 15-30 and are now 3-3 for the year.

Aaron Potter was the top runner for the Little Giants, placing third behind a pair of Sandusky runners in a time of 18:01 in the boys race.

Cross Country

Sandusky's Mike Millot won the meet in a time of 17:56. Chris Greunke was 14th to lead the Redskins, who dropped three decisions to fall to 0-4 on the year.

Three-time state qualifier Ann Gaydosh returned from a one-meet absence to lead the Port Clinton girls to three wins, beating Ross 26-29, Huron 19-36, and Sandusky 15-40 to raise its record to 4-0 for the season.

Gaydosh, who missed PC's first meet with an achilles injury, covered the 3.1 mile course in a winning time of 21 minutes, 27 seconds.

The Ross girls were led by Tami Stanley, who finished second to Gaydosh with a 22:22 clocking. Samantha Augugliaro added a fourth-place showing.

In other boys cross country action Thursday, Genoa picked up four dual meet wins in Toledo and Oak Harbor split with Fostoria and St. Wendelin in Fostoria.

Rob Friar finished third overall as Oak Harbor lost to Fostoria 25-30 but beat St. Wendelin 22-38. Friar clocked in at 17:58 for the Rockets, who are now 4-2 for the year.

Stanley leads Little Giants

News-Messenger Reports

The Fremont Ross girls coasted and the Ross boys struggled as the two teams split with Fostoria Thursday in high school cross country action in Fostoria.

The Ross girls team beat the Redmen 16-43, but Fostoria's boys got even by beating the Little Giants in that race 21-36.

"The girls are coming on

---

Cross Country

---

now," said Ross Coach Norm Bray, whose Lady Giants are now 4-3 on the year. "The first five are now beginning to come of age."

The Lady Giants swept the top four places and five of the top six in winning handily. Tami Stanley won the race in a time of 21:34. Bridget Boda was second, Samantha Augularo was third and Lisa Abdoo placed fourth.

The Ross boys, now 5-3, were led by Aaron Potter, who came in second with a time of 17:58.

In one other meet, Genoa swept a pair of victories from Port Clinton and Danbury at East Harbor State Park. The Comets swept the top four spots and scored 16 points, while Port Clinton had 54 and Danbury scored 76.

Genoa's Ray Burrey won the meet in a time of 17:53 and Chris Hoeft and Chris Lau placed second and third.

Roger Blevins was fifth to pace Danbury and Jonathan Redfern was seventh for Port Clinton.

Ross, St. Joe split decisions

News-Messenger/Bob Marker

CARRIE GUYER, left, of St. Joe and Tami Stanley of Ross were even a half-mile into the race at East Side Park.

News-Messenger Reports

Fremont Ross and Fremont St. Joe split decisions in boys and girls cross country action Tuesday at East Side Park in Fremont as St. Joe beat Ross in the boys race and Ross topped the Crimson Streaks in the girls meet.

St. Joe beat Ross 26-29 and also handled Oak Harbor 20-35 for a double victory Tuesday. Ross salvaged the meet by beating the Rockets 20-25.

The Ross girls were double winners in the girls race, topping the Streaks 22-33 and dumping Oak Harbor 16-41. The St. Joe girls were 1-1 with a 21-28 decision over Oak Harbor.

Ironically, the winning individual in each race represented the losing team.

Aaron Potter was the first runner across for the Ross boys, finishing in 17 minutes, 34 seconds, while Craig Nieset was second for St. Joe in 17:51. Jason Root was third for the Streaks.

Oak Harbor's Bob Friar was fourth in 18:55.

In the girls race, St. Joe's Carrie Guyer won with a 21:00 clocking, but Ross grabbed the next four spots. Tami Stanley was second for the Little Giants in 21:44.

The Oak Harbor girls were paced by Becky Adams, who was seventh in 24:44.

AARON POTTER

Rachel Allfrey made it an individual sweep for the Wildcats, winning the girls race in 20:42.

Lakota's girls just got by Otsego, who captured the top two spots.

Josie Asmus won for the Knights in 20:57. The Raiders salvaged a win by grabbing third, fourth and fifth. Beth Gabel was the top Lakota runner with a time of 21:38.

Ann Gaydosh was first Port Clinton, clocking in at 21:16.

Jeff Riffle won the race for the Pirates in 16:45, while Jonathan Redfern came in at 18:52 to finish 10th for the Redskins.

Depot blanks Famous 6-0

Ross girls 2nd, boys 7th at Maumee

News-Messenger Reports

The Fremont Ross girls finished second in the Maumee Cross Country Invitational Saturday.

The Little Giants boys were seventh in the nine-team field.

Tami Stanley was fifth to lead the Ross girls who trailed Toledo Whitmer 37-71. Stanley finished in 21:09.

Other Ross finishes included a 12th by Samantha Augulairo in 21:32, Lisa Abdoo 15th in 22:10, Bridget Boda 19th in 22:25 and Stacy Pasch 20th in 22:32.

Toledo Rogers won the boys portion of the meet with 43 points. Whitmer was second with 65 while Ross took its seventh with 145.

Aaron Potter finished fifth for Ross in 17:31. Scott Nossaman was 28th in 19:04 with Nanthan Middleton 35th in 19:14. Shane Hill took 36th in 19:20 and Marc Flores was 41st in 19:28.

In one other cross country result reported, the Clyde girls finished third in Division III at the Maumee Invitational.

Toledo Christian won the race with 30 points, followed by Wauseon with 40, and the the Fliers with 54.

Lisa Renfro led the Clyde effort, placing fourth in a time of 23:00. Tracy Thurn added a seventh place effort in 24:24, and Gwen Yates was 10th in a time of 24:55.

Wauseon's Missi Telok was the winner in a time of 20:56.

Guyer first, but New London wins quadrangular

News-Messenger Reports

St. Joe's Carrie Guyer was the top runner, but New London went home the top team Tuesday at a high school girls quadrangular meet at Norwalk St. Paul.

Guyer was the only runner under 20 minutes, winning in a time of 19 minutes, 52 seconds, but New London won easily with 22 to the Crimson Streaks' 61. St. Paul was third with 64 and Mapleton had 67.

The Crimson Streaks are now 2-2 in dual meets this season.

New London also won the boys race with 25 points, while St. Joe had 41 and Mapleton scored 56.

Tim Sword won for New London in 16:29 and teammate Mike Knoll was second in a time of 16:55.

Craig Nieset was third to lead the Streaks with a 17:01 clocking. Jason Rootwas seventh for St. Joe, which fell to 6-2.

In other meets Tuesday, Findlay defeated the Ross boys 19-36 and the Findlay girls downed Ross 24-31 at Findlay; Clyde beat Port Clinton 24-32 in the boys meet, but the Redskins triumphed in the girls race 19-38.

Aaron Potter of Ross was second to Findlay's David Biewer after finishing in 17:18, eight seconds behind the winner. Scott Nossaman was seventh for the Little Giants.

In the girls meet, Findlay took the top three spots before Tami Stanley of Ross crossed the line. Christina Taylor won the race for the Trojans in 19:58. Stanley finished in 20:43. Bridgit Boda, Lisa Abdoo and Samantha Auguliano, all of Ross, were fifth through seventh.

Tim Kritzell helped the Fliers win their first meet of the year by taking first place in a time of 17:20. Craig Nagy was third and Jim Rainey placed fourth for Clyde.

Chris Greunke was second for Port Clinton in a time of 19:10.

Amy Gaydosh led the PC girls to their fifth victory without a loss, winning in a time of 22:12. Clyde's Lisa Renfro was second with a 22:37 effort.

NFL

Continued From B-1

Culverhouse also reiterated that he didn't think negotiations would resume unless the players that the union was solidly behind the strike, despite decisions by some veterans to cross picket lines. "The owners think if a couple of people trickle in, we'll all cross," Upshaw said, "and that's not going to happen. We speak with one voice."

multimillion-dollar annuity would be in jeopardy if he doesn't return to work.

"I don't want to be specific about what the letter said," he told the Times Herald. "I will stay out just as long as I can. That is all I can do."

Little Giants boys pick up pair of victories

News-Messenger Reports

Fremont Ross picked up a pair of victories in high school boys cross country action Tuesday and the Ross girls were 1-1 in a meet at Tiffin Columbian.

Ross moved to 9-9 for the season in downing Norwalk and Mansfield Senior. Tiffin Columbian came out perfect in the quad meet, handing Ross a 16-39 setback in addition to beating Norwalk and Mansfield.

Aaron Potter ran fifth to lead the Little Giants, coming in with a time of 17:22. Columbian was too much however, taking the top four places and seven of the first eight.

The Ross girls managed a split, beating Norwalk, but falling to Columbian.

Tami Stanley was second

Cross Country

overall to lead the Little Giant girls, who are now 13-5 for the year. Stanley clocked in at 20:56.

Becky Bores of Norwalk was the winner in 20:34.

In other boys cross country action Tuesday, St. Joe lost to St. Mary's but beat Oak Harbor, and Port Clinton dropped to Fostoria.

In girls races, the Crimson Streaks lost to St. Mary's, and the Port Clinton girls beat Fostoria.

At Oak Harbor, St. Joe handed the Rockets a 17-38 setback but fell to the Panthers, the top-ranked team in the state, 25-33.

St. Mary's also beat the Rockets 17-46.

Mike Morris won the race for the Panthers in a time of 16:49, and Craig Nieset was second for St. Joe in 17:15.

Oak Harbor was led by Randy Risch, who clocked in at 18:02, good for seventh place overall.

In the girls race, St. Mary's again came out on top with a St. Joe runner finishing second. Debbie Young won for the Panthers in 19:41, and St. Mary's scored a 20-39 team decision.

Carrie Guyer of St. Joe was right behind in second with a time of 20:05.

The St. Joe boys are now 7-3, while the girls are 2-3 for the year.

"I'm really pleased with our progress," said St. Joe Coach Gary Logsdon. "St. Mary's is a fine team, but we ran hard and that was fun to see. The kids are improving every time out."

The Port Clinton girls and boys cross country teams remain headed in opposite directions.

The PC girls won for the sixth time without a loss Tuesday, but the boys squad remained winless.

Amy Gaydosh was once again the winner for the Redskins girls, picking up the slack in the absence of her older sister Ann, who is still out with a leg injury. The younger Gaydosh turned in a time of 21:53.

For the PC boys, Chris Greunke was eighth in 19:13 to turn in the top effort for the Redskins. Marcus McClellan ran 16:49 to win the race.

Ross boys, girls topple Clyde

News-Messenger Reports

The Fremont Ross boys and girls cross country teams both handed Clyde setbacks Thursday to highligh area running action.

The Little Giants defeated the Fliers 26-29 in the boys race and the girls won more easily for Ross, taking a 15-40 decision.

In other meets Saturday, the St. Joe bys won twice but the girls lost once and Genoa salvaged one victory, but Oak Harbor lost twice in a boys tri-meet at Oak Harbor.

Despite the efforts of Tim Kritzell, Clyde could not overcome the Little Giants in the boys race. Kritzell won with a time of 17:50 and Craig Nagy was fourth for the Fliers in 18:38.

Still, it was not enough as Aaron Potter was second and Marc Flores placed third for

---

Cross Country

---

Ross. Potter clocked in at 17:52 and Flores was times in 18:25. Ross is now 10-9 for the season.

The Ross girls, now 14-5, had it easier, taking the top five spots on their way to victory. Tami Stanley was the individual champ in 21:43.

Fremont St. Joe's boys racked up a pair of victories, scoring 32 points to Margaretta's 36 and New Riegel's 68 at East Harbor State Park.

Jason Lehrer won the race for the Polar Bears in a time of 16:20, but the Crimson Streaks took four of the next nine spots to slip by.

Craig Nieset was second and Jason Root placed fourth to lead St. Joe. Nieset was timed in 16:25 and Root clocked in at 16:55.

In the girls race, the Polar Bears edged the Streaks 25-34 as Carrie Guyer won the race in a time of 19:21 for St. Joe.

Jenny Ayers was second for the Streaks, but then the Bears had the next five spots between the two squads. Mary Verner was third to pace the Polar Bears in 21:34.

Oregon Clay came out on top in the tri-meet at Oak Harbor, beating the Comets 22-33 and the Rockets 15-41. The Comets managed to beat the Rockets 15-41 also to gain the split.

Clay's Joe Schnee won the meet in a time of 16:32 and Ray Burrey was second to pace Genoa, coming in with a time of 16:44. Chris Haeft was sixth for the Comets.

Randy Risch was 11th to lead the Rockets, clocking in at 17:55.

In other cross country action, Fremont Ross stopped Marion 19-41 in boys action, and Clyde defeated Margaretta 21-35 in girls running.

Aaron Potter of Ross set a course record at Marion, coming in with a time of 17:39 to lead the Little Giants over the Presidents.

Greg Sopzak paced Marion, finishing second in 18:05.

Tami Stanley led the Ross girls, finishing first with a 21:14. Bridget Boda followed Stanley with a time of 22:21. No score was kept for the meet because of Marion's lack of runners.