

Ross Boys Posts a 348 at Sylvania Invite...

The Fremont Ross boys golf team opened their week with a solid showing at the Sylvania Invitational, posting a team score of 348. The event, featuring a competitive field from across the region, saw the Little Giants battle through a tough opening nine before finding their rhythm on the back side of the course.

Scoring for Fremont Ross were senior Brandon Fry and junior Max Durnwald, each carding rounds of 86. Junior Quinn Wolf and freshman Grady Kelly followed closely behind with matching scores of 88.

Head Coach Jim Scharer praised the team's resilience and determination.

"The team fought hard throughout the round," Scharer said. "Although the shots didn't fall our way on the first nine, the team made a big turnaround on the back nine, led by Brandon Fry and Grady Kelly who both shot a 39 coming in."

The Little Giants will look to build on this momentum when they travel to Anthony Wayne on Thursday to compete in their annual invitational.

Lady Giants Golf Earns Win Over Tiffin, Boys Team Falls in Close Match...

The Fremont Ross girls golf team returned to .500 on the season Monday afternoon, defeating Tiffin by a narrow 216-221 margin.

Leading the way for the Lady Giants was Riley Halbeisen with a team-low 49. She was followed closely by Lauren Fry at 51, while Morgan Batey and Megan Royster each carded a 58 to round out the scoring. With the win, Ross moves to 4-4 on the year. The Lady Giants now turn their attention to a key Northern Lakes League contest as they travel to Bowling Green this afternoon.

On the boys side, Fremont Ross came up just short against Eastwood, falling 169-165 in a tightly contested match. Brandon Fry led the Little Giants with a 39, while Quinn Wolf and Braylon Jordon each posted a 43. Aidan Autullo added a 44 to complete the team score.

The boys will look to bounce back quickly as they host Bowling Green today in an important NLL matchup.

Little Giants Split Matches with Southview and Lake...

The Fremont Ross boys golf team faced a busy week on the links, taking on a pair of quality opponents and coming away with a split.

On Tuesday, the Little Giants matched up against Oregon Clay. Despite posting some of their best rounds of the season, Fremont Ross fell short, 183-165. Leading the way for the Giants was Quinn Wolf, who fired a team-low 39. He was followed by Braylon Jordan with a 45, Brandon Fry at 48, and Max Durnwald with a 52 to round out the qualifying scores.

The team quickly bounced back on Wednesday, this time edging Lake in a tight contest, 175-177. The Little Giants showed consistency across the board, with Durnwald (43), Fry (44), Wolf (44), and Jordan (44) all contributing to the team victory.

The boys will return to their home course next Tuesday when they host Napoleon in another key Northern Lakes League matchup.

Little Giants Boys Golf Team Secures Back-to-Back Wins...

The Fremont Ross High School boys golf team continued its hot start to the season with two impressive victories in as many days.

On Tuesday, the Little Giants hosted Northern Lakes League opponent Bowling Green and came away with a 175-186 win, keeping their perfect record intact in Cardinal Division play. Leading the charge for Ross were Brandon Fry with a 39, Max Durnwald and Quinn Wolf each carding 44, and Grady Kelly contributing a 48.

The team returned to the course Wednesday for a matchup against Toledo Whitmer. Once again, Ross proved tough to beat, cruising to a 205-170 win. Fry and Wolf each posted the low round of the day with a 41, while Braylon Jordan added a 43 and Kelly chipped in with a round of 45 to complete the team's scoring.

With these back-to-back victories, the Little Giants continue to demonstrate consistency and depth, positioning themselves as strong contenders in the NLL this season.

Fremont Ross Boys Golf Seniors Shine In Final Home Match

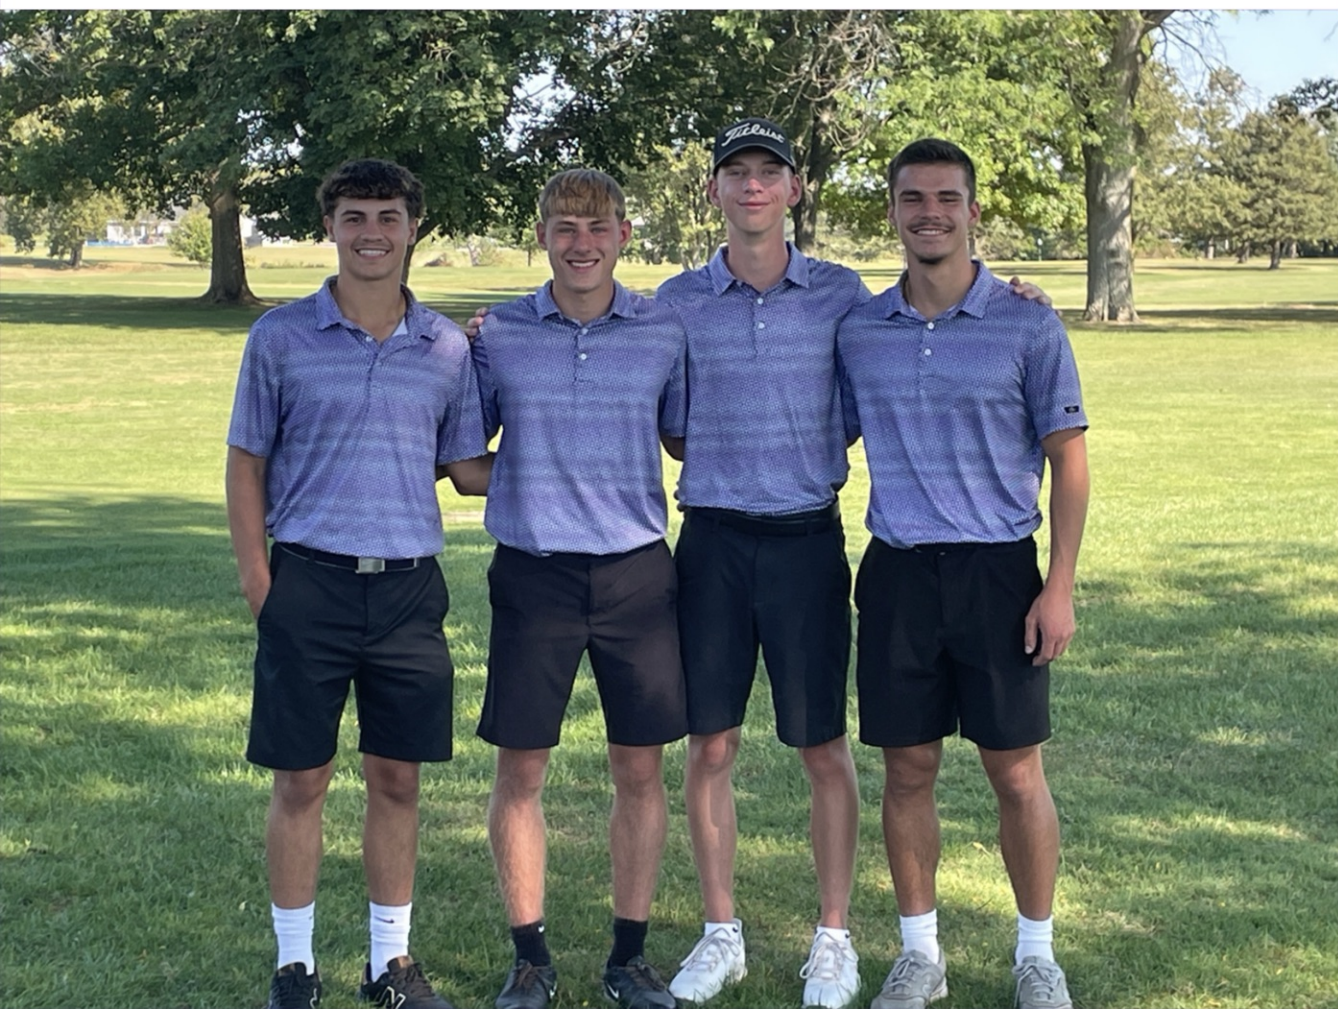

The Fremont Ross boys golf team closed out their season at the beautiful Fremont Country Club with a memorable win in their final home match. The Little Giants topped Lakota by a score of 162–186, giving the team and its seniors a fitting send-off.

The Little Giants were led by Brandon Fry (38) and Quinn Wolf (38), while Max Durnwald (42), Braylon Jordan (44), Jace Miller (46), and Auden Autullo (49) rounded out the scoring on a strong night for Ross.

Ross honored its five seniors — Aidan Autullo, Braylon Jordan, Brandon Fry, Jace Miller, and Kollin Frasure — who have been mainstays in the program and leaders on and off the course.

"This group of seniors has meant so much to our program," said Athletic Director Chad Berndt. "Most of them have been with us for four years, and their commitment and leadership have been unwavering. They've set the standard for what it means to be a Ross golfer—steadfast, dedicated, and team-first. It's going to be tough to replace them, not just for what they've done on the course, but for the kind of leaders they've been every day."

With sectionals right around the corner, the Little Giants will look to carry this momentum into the postseason. They will compete at Sycamore Springs in Findlay on September 24th.

Fremont Ross Boys Golf Battles Hard Against Perrysburg

The Fremont Ross varsity boys golf team teed it up last night on their home turf, the beautiful Fremont Country Club, facing a formidable opponent in Perrysburg.

The Little Giants showed heart and determination throughout the match, finishing with one of their best team scores of the season at 170. Perrysburg edged them out with a final score of 158, but the Ross squad walked away proud of their progress.

Leading the way for Fremont Ross was Braylon Jordan, carding an impressive 39. He was followed closely by Quinn Wolf with a steady 40, while Brandon Fry added a strong 43 and Griffin Reineck rounded out the scoring with a 48.

It was a night of growth and grit for the team, proving they can hold their own against some of the area's toughest competition.

The Little Giants will return to the links on Tuesday, September 16, when they once again host at the welcoming Fremont Country Club—this time squaring off with Woodmore.

Boys Golf Edges Central Catholic...

The Fremont Ross boys golf team earned a nail-biting victory Thursday afternoon, edging Toledo Central Catholic by the slimmest of margins, 167-168.

Senior Brandon Fry led the way for the Little Giants, turning in the low round of the day with an impressive 38. His steady play proved critical in helping Ross secure the one-stroke triumph.

With the win, the Little Giants look to keep momentum rolling as they return home to the Fremont Country Club today, where they will host Eastwood in their next matchup

