Little Giant grapplers still alive for state spots

All five Fremont Ross wrestlers are still alive in the district meet at Mentor High School.

Yohe Rojas, wrestling at 135 pounds, won both matches Friday, and will face Westlake's Conner Dempsey at 12:30 today.

Cody Evans went 1-1 Friday at 171 pounds, and Tylor Trautwein at 189 lost a heartbreaker in triple overtime. Wyatt Wukie lost his first match at 160, as did heavyweight Cameron Journigan.

They will wrestle in the consolation matches beginning at 9 a.m. Finals will be at 7 p.m.

MENTOR — On Saturday, Yohe Rojas became the first Fremont Ross wrestler in two years to advance to the OHSAA Division I State Tournament.

Rojas, a senior, was the runner-up at 135 pounds during the Division I Mentor District Tournament on Saturday.

"He came so close last year, when he was a state alternate," Fremont Ross coach Mike Mezinger said. "But I think being an alternate helped to reshape his goals for this season. After all the wrestling he did and the camps he went to over the summer made him not want to be satisfied with being a state alternate."

In 2007, Devon Mezinger, a 130-pound Little Giants' grappler, was the last Ross wrestler to qualify for the state tournament, which will be held Thursday through Saturday at The Ohio State University's posting a pair of major decisions. In the 135-pound district title bout against Anthony Salupo (St. Edward), the Little Giants' wrestler trailed 3-0 before Mezinger made a decision to end the match.

"Yohe had bummed his elbow during the bout," Mezinger said. "I know it was an unpopular decision to end the match. But it's a call I have to make. I didn't want to see him get hurt any further with the state tournament around the corner. We need to do what we can to get it some rehab this week."

At 189 pounds, sophomore Tylor Trautwein became a state alternate by going 4-2 with a pair of pins along the way. After losing a tough 3-2 decision in four overtimes to Mike Green (St. Edward) during the championship quarterfinals, Trautwein rallied to win three of his next four matches.
