

Area doubles teams fall from district competition

News-Messenger reports

BOWLING GREEN — All four area doubles teams participating in district competition at Bowling Green State University lost in the first round Friday.

Whitney Shanahan and Andi Opre of Fremont Ross lost to Jean Lowry and Alison Roller of Perrysburg 6-1, 6-0.

Lowry and Roller are normally the second and third singles players for Perrysburg.

Carol Longanbach and Heather Lane of Ross lost to Kari Barcus and Shannon Long of Sylvania Southview 6-0, 6-1

Barcus and Long were the top-seeded team in the district.

Clyde's Kristie Wilson and Karla Wilson fell 6-2, 6-0 to Lindsley Handwork and Kathy Church of Ottawa Hills.

"They had some opportunities early in the match, and they weren't able to convert," Clyde coach Jeff MacFarland said.

Heidi Hartung and Bethany Gale of Port Clinton lost to Lexington's Yuko Kato and Yoko Kato 6-4, 7-5.

The Lexington team improved to 20-1 against Hartung and Gale, who were the Redskins' first and second singles players during the season.
