off to a fast start, scoring three first half goals, and continued the momentum with a goal in the opening minute of the second half.

The only Ross score came in the 28th minute of the first half, with Dusty Shively scoring off of Mark Thomson's assist. The Little Giants, who outshot the Bobcats 11-10, had several more scoring opportunities, but could not convert.

Defensively for Ross, goalkeeper Dan Wise recorded six saves, while Jon Elias and Craig Hickey had eight interceptions apiece.

The loss marked the final game for Ross seniors John McCord, Marshall Amor, Adam Pfotenuer and Brett Spicer.
