Strikes to Spare

The city's biggest league—the 28-team Elks combine—concluded its league competition Friday evening at Pastime and Paramount alleys with Cotttron Coals, with a three game sweep the final session, winning the loop title.

The Spic and Span Pie team had been on top almost all year, but dropped a pair to Portage Inn, losing its title chance.

Behlmer's Packards also had a chance for the top spot, but lost all three games the last night.

Most of the 28 teams will compete this weekend in Cleveland at the National Elks tournament.

(No sheet was received from City Loan-Imperial Plating, thus those teams' final standing is not available).

Hurler Zoldak Big Surprise

CLEVELAND, April 15.—P.—Manager Lou Boudreau, home with his Cleveland Indians for their last two exhibition games, today declared this spring's training trip, "one of the best I've conducted."

Arriving 11 hours early because cold weather cancelled a game yesterday at Indianapolis, Boudreau said southpaw Sam Zoldak was one of the pleasant surprises of training and barnstorming season.

"Zoldak really looked like a different pitcher," Boudreau said. "He now has control and his fast ball has more zip, I'm hoping that his knee injury won't keep him idle long as we'll need Sam to get off to a fast start."

Sam Hit On Knee

Zoldak was hit below his right knee by a batted ball in Kansas City Thursday and is still nursing a bad bruise.

After games today and tomorrow against the New York Giants, the Indians will start the American League season Tuesday against Detroit.

So far this spring they have won 21 and lost 14 and hold a 9-7 series edge over the Giants.

Boudreau hopes to get a fast league start on the pitching of Bob Lemon, Bob Feller, Early Wynn and Zoldak. His other two first line pitchers, Mike Garcia and Al Benton, have missed a good part of the training. Garcia, who has pitched only two innings since March 23, was called home by the death

Despite their defeat, Coach W. J. McConnell's boys flashed promise. Ronnie Whisler lost two grueling sets to Ron Harris, 13-11 and 7-5, while Phil Slaymaker took Carl Gerwen three sets before bowing.

GIBSONBURG'S GRID CARD SET

GIBSONBURG, O., April 21—The Golden Bears of Gibsonburg high school will play nine football games next fall, according to the schedule announced today by A. N. Welter, principal.

The Bears open their season at Upper Sandusky on Sept. 15 after the premier at Clyde Sept. 8. The card includes five Sandusky Bay Conference games. In all probability, this will be the last year the Bears play Upper Sandusky and Port Clinton, as those teams are slated to be dropped to permit games with Sandusky St. Mary's and Clyde, latest schools to join the conference.

5 Regulars Back

The Bears won six and lost three last season, with the defeats coming at the hands of Upper Sandusky, Port Clinton and Oak Harbor. Five regulars, Tom Krotzer, Larry Smith, Kaye Callihan, Bill Babcock and Dick Butler, will be returning. Sam Picciuto started in about half the games, and Jim Schlea, Jim Aldrich, John Scheil, Jerry Kee-secker and Bud Baker saw con-

Glover First In 2 Events

Ross high school's track squad was handed a 69-49 setback by the Bowling Green thinclads in the opening meet of the season for the local lads Friday at Bowling Green.

The Giants were able to nail only six first in the 14 events, with Charlie Glover finishing ahead in two of them. Glover was also second in one event, making him the meet's high scorer with 13 points.

Ted Aldrich and Dave Witte of the Bobcats likewise were two-time winners. Aldrich took the mile run and the 880, while Witte captured the discus and shot put events.

Watches Different

Glover scored in the 100-yard dash in the unimpressive time of 11.2, although the Fremont clock showed the time to be 10.9. The B. G. watch prevails in the record book, however. Glover was trailed by Tom Lee, who beat him in the class meet Thursday.

Jim Shere sprinted to victory in the 440-yard dash for Ross, and Dick Sherman, versatile senior athlete, won the high jump. Bill Smith, another senior, was the meets' best pole vaulter.

6 Teams Entered In Invitational Track Meet Here Tomorrow

Ross high school, its hopes highly encouraged by Wednesday night's thrilling victory over Sandusky, awaits Saturday's Invitational track meet to see if the performance was a fluke.

Sandusky is the Invitational's defending champion. The Giants triumph over the Blue Streaks here was unexpected. Charlie Glover was the meet's high scorer with 17 points.

Competing will be Ross, Sandusky, Marion, Norwalk, Fostoria and Bellevue. Field events start at 1:30, running events at 2:15.

Marion Takes Invitational Meet; Sandusky 2nd, Ross 3rd; Giants Win Shot Put, Discus

A well-balanced and fine-appearing bunch of athletes from Marion Harding high school broke Sandusky's hold on the Ross Invitational track and field meet here Saturday afternoon.

Performing in weather that would have been considered cold in football season, the Presidents ran up 61 points to 47½ for Sandusky. Ross, which defeated Sandusky in a duel meet Wednesday, placed third with 36½. Fostoria collected 32½, Bellevue 31½ and Norwalk 14½.

All entrants except Norwalk managed to get a first, with Marion copping the low hurdles, the 880-yard run and the pole vault. In the latter event, Marion's Barrett and Reeves tied at 10 feet, 3 inches.

Bertch Wins 2 Races

Dale Bertch of Sandusky was the only two-time winner, breezing home easily in the 100-yard and the 220-yard dashes. Marion's Paul Ludwig, a well-built athlete, won the high hurdles by 12 feet over Perry of Fostoria and Ludwig was second to Bellevue's Jim Hickman in the low hurdles. Ludshot 43 feet, 1¾ inches. Biggs whirled the discus 129 feet, 9¾ inches.

The meet was in doubt until the pole vault results came in. Both Barrett and Reeves easily cleared the winning height, 10 feet, 3 inches, but because of the extreme cold decided not to continue their contest after Ross high's Billy Smith who finished third barely failed to clear the bar. The bar wavered for an instant, then toppled to the earth.

Bellevue again showed its class in the mile relay, an event it took last year. Norwalk's best effort was third place.

Saturday's was the third Ross Invitational. Sandusky won in 1948 and 1949. The starter was Watson Summary:

Marion won the meet although it captured only three firsts. Findlay won nine events, and Ross two, but Harding picked up 30 points for second place.

Haskins Wins Mile

Eric Haskins stepped the mile in 5 minutes, 2.9 seconds to give Ross five points, and Charlie Glover captured the broad jump for the Giants other triumph. Giants Obtain 2nd Triumph

Ross high school won its second dual meet of the season Tuesday afternoon at Bellevue, outscoring the Redmen 69 to 49.

The Giants captured eight of the 14 events and placed second seven times out of a possible 12.

Marlin Farver, a junior, pulled a mild surprise in the 100-yard dash. He defeated Jerome Surratt, who was second, and Charlie Glover, who finished third. Surratt came back to win the 220.

John Allen continued his winning ways in the shot put, but Bob Biggs was upset by Dick Keeler in the discus. Keeler was second to Allen.

Dailey High Scorer

Dave Dailey of Bellevue was the meet's high scorer. He won the low hurdles and high jump and finished second in the 220-yard dash, a total of 13 points.

In dual competition, Ross owns victories over Sandusky and Bellevue and was beaten by Bowling Green. The Giants placed third in a six-team field in the Ross Invitational and trailed in a three-way meet at Marion.

Willey Hits Hurdle

Les Binkley's thinclads gave highly favored Fostoria surprising opposition. A couple of "Ifs" and the Giants might have upset Art Wilson's crew. In the high hurdles, Ross high's Dick Willey was several yards in front but clipped the final hurdle. He regained his stride in time to get a third. In the 440-yard relay, Charlie Glover had a five-yard edge on Bill Piggue in the final sprint but lost stride and was nipped at the finish line.

The Giants made their weight felt in the shot put and discus departments, sweeping five of the six places, John Allen, Marvin Farver and Dan Miller finished in that order in the shot put. Bob Biggs won the discus throw, with Miller second. Don Rhude of Fostoria was third.

Glover gave Ross two firsts, winning the 100-yard dash and the broad jump. Ross and Tiffin Columbians meet in a dual meet there Thursday.
