

Ross Falls To Willard In Tourney

Ross ran into a 6-7 pitcher by the name of Dick Holmes Thursday afternoon at Anderson field and not only did the Little Giants find tough going against his slants, they also couldn't get him out at the plate. Willard won 9-0 to advance in the class "AA" baseball tournament here and will meet Calvert Saturday afternoon at Anderson field. Calvert defeated Huron 6-1 yesterday.

Holmes, with a tricky curve ball and good control, limited Ross to just two hits. The big pitcher also drove long home runs his first two trips to bat. Both circuit clouts went over the leftcenter field fence. Holmes fanned 14 batters.

Willard broke open the game in the fourth with five runs on four singles and three Ross errors. Ross' only threat of the game came in the fourth when the Giants loaded the bases, but Holmes got Wayne Huffman on strikes to end the inning.
