

1990 District meet...

Ritzman, Nesbitt advance

News-Messenger reports

GALION — Amy Ritzman and Tim Nesbitt of Ross both qualified for this weekend's regional meet by placing fifth and sixth, respectively, at the Division I district cross country meet Saturday at Amann Park.

Ritzman qualified with a time of 19 minutes, 19 seconds, while Nesbitt advanced with a time of 16:37.

The top four teams and top 15 individuals advanced to this Saturday's regional meet at Tiffin.

The Crimson Streaks were 12th with 302 points in the girls' division, while the Ross boys took ninth with 205 points.

Columbian was the boys' team champion, registering 37 points. Defiance (64 points), Ashland (74) and Mansfield Senior (85) also earned regional berths.

Columbian also won the girls' Division I race, capturing 81 points. Bellevue finished second with 91 points, while Celina was third (96) and St. Mary's Memorial was fourth (123).

Heather Mears took 53rd place in 22:06 and Leah Lomax was 61st in 22:37 for the Ross girls.

For the Ross boys, Steve Jay was 43rd (18:27) and Mark Sheidler 47th (18:39).